HISTORICAL STATEMENT

I Composition: The North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church is composed of:

- (1) The eastern portion of the former North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Protestant Church.
- (2) The former North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church, South.
- (3) The coastal region of the former Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church.
- (4) The Eastern District, North Carolina-Virginia Conference, Central Jurisdiction.

II Organization: The organizing dates of the four former Conferences were as follows:

- (1) The North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Protestant Church, 1828, at Whitaker's Chapel in Halifax County, North Carolina.
- (2) The North Carolina Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, 1837, at Petersburg, Virginia.
- (3) The Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church, 1879, at Greensboro, North Carolina first named Southern Central Conference; two years later, 1881, renamed Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference.
- (4) The Eastern District North Carolina-Virginia Annual Conference was organized at a special session on August 11, 1964, at Bennett College, Greensboro, North Carolina.

III Sessions of the Constituent Conferences before Union in 1939:

Those prior to 1968 are listed in the 1972 Journal of the North Carolina Conference and will be printed in the first Journal issue of each quadrennium.

RULES OF ORDER AND PROCEDURE FOR THE NORTH CAROLINA
ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

I. RULES OF ORDER

1. Robert's Rules of Order shall apply to any situation not covered by these Rules.
2. No member who has the floor may be interrupted except for a breach of order, a misrepresentation, to direct the attention of the Conference to the fact that time has arrived for a special order, or to raise a very urgent question of high privilege.
3. No member shall speak a second time on the same question if any member who has not yet spoken desires the floor, or more than twice on the same question under the same motion, nor longer than ten minutes unless his time shall be extended by the Conference, except as provided in Rule 4.
4. When the report of the committee is under consideration and when all have spoken who desire to do so, or when (and later) the previous question has been ordered, the chairman and/or duly authorized member or members presenting the committee's report (and the minority report if there be one) shall be entitled to speak before the vote is taken.
5. A member claiming the floor at any time for what he believes is a very urgent question of high privilege, shall be allowed to indicate briefly the nature of the question, and if it be adjudged by the chair to be such, he may proceed at his pleasure, or until the chairman judges he has exhausted his privilege.

II. VOTING PROCEDURES

1. Voting shall be by a show of hands unless otherwise ordered by the Conference. A "yea" and "nay" vote, if taken, shall be by written ballot, which result will be published in the Conference Journal. A count vote may be ordered on call of any member supported by one-fifth of the members present and voting, in which case the delegates shall rise from their seats and stand while they are counted.
2. Election of delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences: Only clerical members in full connection and elected and registered lay delegates may vote. (Alternate lay delegates may not vote except in the absence of the delegate and then only if they are duly registered in lieu of the delegate.) All votes must be cast in the bar of the conference as determined by the conference; votes must be cast upon the official ballots authorized by the conference; ballots shall be placed by individual delegates in ballot boxes; whereupon the bishop shall declare the balloting closed.
The official ballots furnished to the delegates shall be numbered consecutively and no vote shall be valid unless cast upon the ballot bearing the number designated by the presiding officer for such particular balloting. In the event a ballot is defaced, it may be exchanged at the secretary's desk for another ballot bearing the same number. Ballots furnished to lay delegates shall be different in color from those furnished to clerical delegates.

III. ORGANIZATION

1. The Secretary: The secretary of the Annual Conference shall be elected quadrennially, at the first session of the Conference after the meeting of the General Conference; and on nominations arising from the floor.
2. Assistant Secretaries: The secretary shall nominate his assistants and the Conference shall elect.
3. Statisticians: There shall be a conference statistician and an assistant statistician. The statistician shall be elected quadrennially at the first session after the meeting of the General Conference. The assistant statistician shall be elected annually upon nomination by the statistician.
4. Conference Stenographers: The conference secretary shall employ the conference stenographers.
5. Compensation: The Commission on World Service and Finance shall determine, subject to the approval of the Conference, the compensation given officers for their services and also

- the method and amount for meeting expenses of said officers. The conference treasurer shall pay these amounts,
6. Boards, Commissions, and Committees: The Bishop and his Cabinet shall determine the size of and nominate the members of all Boards, Commissions, and Committees authorized by the General Conference the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference, and this Annual Conference, except those cases in which the Discipline directs otherwise. Near the end of each quadrennium, the Chairman or President of all Boards, Commissions, and Committees shall submit a list of qualified suggested nominees to the Bishop and his Cabinet for their consideration in the formation of new Boards, Commissions, and Committees. The nominees shall be consulted about their nominations. The recommendations and nominations shall be subject to the approval of the Conference. At the beginning of each quadrennium all Boards, Commissions, and Committees shall elect their officers only after all their members have been properly notified of the organizational meeting.
 7. The Conference Board of Trustees: The Conference Board of Trustees shall be required to meet at least once a year other than the regular meeting at the session of the Annual Conference.
 8. The Conference Treasurer and all others receiving and disbursing funds from our Conference shall be required to make audited statements annually, and to print the same in the Journal.
 9. Program Committee: There shall be a Program Committee of the Conference consisting of the resident Bishop, the Conference Secretary, the District superintendent of the District in which the session of the Conference is held, the pastor of the host church, and the Conference Lay Leader. This committee shall determine the compensation and expense for invited speakers and this shall be paid from the Conference expense fund.
 10. Entertainment Committee: There shall be a Conference Entertainment Committee, composed of three ministers and two laymen. This committee shall be elected at the first session of the Conference following the General Conference, and shall serve for the Quadrennium. This committee shall receive invitations and determine the place and method of entertaining the Conference sessions. The committee is requested to determine the place of holding the next Conference not later than January 1, if possible.
 11. Committee on Memoirs: The Conference, Secretary and the District Superintendents shall constitute the Committee on Memoirs. The members of the committee shall be charged with the responsibility of providing for all the details of the memorial service. The Conference Secretary shall be the chairman of this committee.
 12. Committee on Daily Minutes: A committee of three members shall be elected each year to examine the daily minutes of the sessions of the Conference and report daily to the Conference.
 13. Courtesies and Introductions: There shall be constituted a Committee on Courtesies and Introductions annually, at the first session of the Conference.
 14. Committee on Appeals: There shall be appointed quadrennially, a Committee on Appeals, composed of at least five members, whose duties shall be to hear appeals from the decisions of the several District Boards of Church Location and Building or any other questions that may properly come before them.
 15. American Bible Society: All matters regarding the relation of the Conference to the American Bible Society and its work shall be referred to the Division of Education.

IV. REPORTS, RESOLUTIONS, MOTIONS, AMENDMENTS

1. All reports to be presented to the conference shall be sent to the conference secretary, typewritten and in triplicate, on or before the date approved for such by the Council on Ministries and published in the conference calendar
2. All resolutions to be presented to the annual conference affecting the structure, policy and function of any board or agency of the annual conference shall be submitted in writing to the conference secretary with copies for all the delegates twenty-four hours prior to consideration by the annual conference, and not later than the second night session of the conference.
3. All motions presented to the annual conference, and amendments to any paper, shall be in writing (in triplicate) and placed in the hands of the conference secretary at the time of presentation, or immediately following.

V. LAY DELEGATES TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

1. Lay delegates, regular and reserve, from the pastoral charges to the Annual Conference shall be elected by the Charge Conference at least forty-five days prior to the session of the Annual Conference.
2. Each district superintendent shall complete the list of lay delegates to the Annual Conference, from his district, at least forty-five days before the Annual Conference session, and shall immediately transmit the completed list, in triplicate, to the conference secretary.
3. When necessary, substitutions shall be by election of the Charge Conference called upon authorization by the district superintendent. No person will be seated unless duly elected by the Charge Conference as the regular or alternate delegate. Notice of change in delegates must be sent to the Conference Secretary at once.

VI. PASTORS' REPORT TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE: SATATISTICS

1. Each pastor shall complete Table I of his annual report to the Conference, and transmit the same to the conference statistician at least two weeks prior to the opening date of the Conference.
2. Charge and church treasurers shall make final remittance for the current year to the conference treasurer on or before the date scheduled by the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance, and each pastor shall complete and submit Table II to the conference statistician on or before the opening date of the annual conference.
3. Each table of the report shall be filled out by individual churches with totals for the charge.
4. Table II shall be made out in even dollars only.
5. Tables I and II shall be printed in the Conference Journal with individual church reports and charge totals as compiled by the conference statistician from the pastor's reports.

VII. THE CONFERENCE JOURNAL

1. Editor: The Conference secretary shall be charged with the responsibility of editing and making contracts for the publication of the Conference Journal, in keeping with the regulations of the General Conference and of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference. The editor shall have full authority to condense reports, memoirs, and other papers when necessary.
2. One complimentary copy of the Conference Journal shall be sent to each of the following: The conference claimants, lay members of the conference boards, the educational and church-related institutions of the North Carolina Conference. The conference secretary shall have discretionary authority to send copies to such other institutions and agencies of the General Church as he may deem advisable. Six copies including copy for lay delegate to annual conference shall be sent to each pastor without charge. All other copies shall be sold at $2.25 each, or single copies by mail at $2.50 each. Monies accruing from the sale of Journal shall be deposited with the conference treasurer and credited to the Journal account.

VIII. DISTRICTS

1. The number of districts shall be twelve.
2. A district conference shall be held annually, in each district, if authorized by the annual conference.
3. The District President, the Sub-District Presidents, and the local church President of the United methodist Youth Fellowship shall be delegates to the District Conference. These shall be in addition to those named by the Discipline as ex-officio members.
4. The district and associate district lay leaders shall be elected annually by the Annual - Conference on nomination of the district superintendents and the conference lay leaders.

5. The District Superintendent of each District shall be required to furnish the Conference Treasurer as early as possible following the completion of the Charge Conferences an official copy of the acceptances of the Single Figure Asking and a schedule of the salaries of pastors as set by the Charge Conferences. The figures furnished by the District Superintendent to the Conference Treasurer shall be used by the Statistician to compile his report to the Annual Conference.

IX. AMENDMENTS

1. These rules of order and procedure may be amended by a two-thirds vote on the next day after a proposed amendment has been presented in writing; provided the rule fixing the number of districts may be amended by a majority vote; provided further, a change in the number of districts may not be made later than the second morning of the Annual Conference.

X. WHEN THE RULES BECOME EFFECTIVE

1. These rules of order and procedure of the North Carolina Annual Conference shall become effective immediately upon passage by the vote of the majority of the Conference.

ROLL AND PASTORAL RECORDS OF CONFERENCE MEMBERS IN FULL CONNECTION: 562 1973

Note: This was formerly the Chronological Roll and is now alphabetically arranged for greater convenience and to provide a listing of the service records of conference members in full connection, both effective and retired. Since the information came from records supplied by each man and includes only service in the North Carolina Conference, the Conference Secretary should be notified of any discrepancies or changes that the members wish to have made. Note that service years vary in value and the Conference Board of Pensions evaluates each year of service in terms of annuity credit. The figures in the right-hand column only indicate the number of years served under episcopal appointment of the North Carolina Conference. All questions concerning years applicable to annuity credits should be directed to the Board of Pensions (Editor).

Honorary Member, Bishop Robert M. Blackburn

R. Retired: 105

ALPHABETICAL ROLL – CONFERENCE DIRECTORY – 1973-74

Note: Information for the Conference Directory derives principally from two sources: from the ministers themselves on the cards provided them and filed with the Conference Secretary, and from District Directories furnished the Conference Secretary by the Superintendents. However, each minister is personally responsible for the correct reporting of his own address.

SECTION III

JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS

(Daily Minutes)

FIRST DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION

Monday, June 4, 1973

Conference Convened: The one hundred forty-eighth session of the North Carolina Annual Conference was called to order at 2:00 p.m. by Bishop Robert M. Blackburn, Resident Bishop of the Raleigh Area. Roger F. Searles, organist, accompanied the Conference in singing the traditional hymn for opening the Conference, "And Are We Yet Alive?" Organ prelude for the session was "Praise to the Lord, the Almighty" by Manz-Walther. Seat of the Conference was Reeves Auditorium, Methodist College, Fayetteville, North Carolina. This was the first session over which Bishop Blackburn presided as Resident Bishop of the Raleigh Area.

Invocation: The invocation was given by Bishop Blackburn calling the Conference into the love of God through Christ Jesus our Lord.

Bishop Blackburn reminded the Conference of its history — 25 years since unification in 1939 and 6 years since union with the Evangelical United Brethren.

Welcome: Dr. Stacy Weaver brought words of welcome concluding 16 years as president of Methodist College. Dr. Weaver presented the president-elect for the college, Dr. Richard W. Pearce, academic vice-president of Florida Southern College. Dr. Weaver also presented the mayor of Fayetteville, a graduate of the University of Nebraska, the Honorable Jackson F. Lee. And lastly Dr. Weaver presented host District Superintendent Graham S. Eubank as a good and faithful minister of the Lord Jesus Christ. Dr. Eubank responded by saying the introduction was the best he had ever had. Dr. Eubank welcomed the delegates to the Fayetteville District on behalf of all of the ministers of the district. He complimented the lay people on their many roles of assistance in making the Conference possible. Dr. Eubank welcomed Mrs. Blackburn and daughter Frances. Mrs. Blackburn replied, when asked how she liked being a bishop's wife, "Great, as long as he is Bob Blackburn and assigned to the North Carolina Annual Conference."

Bishop Blackburn expressed the appreciation of all to Bill Lowdermilk for making splendid provisions for the comfort and entertainment of Conference participants while meeting at Methodist College.

Bishop Blackburn reported he had been in every parsonage with only a few exceptions and traveled about 30,000 miles "in this enjoyable task."

Bar of Conference: Dr. Eubank moved that the main floor of Reeves Auditorium be the bar of the Conference. It was approved.

Official Roll: Kimsey King moved that the cards, as signed at the registration tables by both lay and clerical members of the Conference, be designated as the official roll of the Conference. This was passed.

Official Program: Kimsey King moved that the program as contained in the Book of Recommendations and as partially reprinted in the handout program be designated as the official program. This was done.

Rules: Kimsey King moved that the rules of the Conference be those printed on pages 18-21 of the 1972 Journal. This was adopted.

Nominations: Charles Mercer moved the acceptance of Committees of the 1973 Annual Conference with the following changes: William C. Spencer, Rocky Mount District, to replace Clarence R. Breedin, Committee on District Conference Records; M.F. Grantham to replace John H. Lively as Chief Lay Teller; and Marion Ambrose to replace John H. Lively as Lay Teller from the Elizabeth City District. This was approved.

Kimsey King moved that the Conference approve staff members as printed on page 4 of the Book of Recommendations. They were approved.

Passing of Character and Official Administration of Preachers:

Bishop Blackburn read from Chapter 2 of The Book of Discipline (1972) regarding the nature and responsibilities of the Methodist ministry. The Bishop then read the names of the district superintendents and asked the Conference to pass on their characters. The district superintendents were asked to pass on the ministers of their districts. Their characters were approved by a vote of the Conference.

Conference Council on Ministries Staff: The bishop read the appointment of the Conference Council on Ministries Staff: Charles H. Mercer, Director; Simeon F. Cummings, Coordinator, Outreach; William H. Gattis, Coordinator, Youth Ministry and Social Concerns; R. Keith Glover, Coordinator, Children's Ministry and Camping; C. Frank Grill, Coordinator, Resources; F. Belton Joyner, Coordinator, Leadership Development and Adult Work; John Meares, Coordinator, Communications. These men were asked to come forward for recognition.

First Indian American Appointed to Conference Post: The bishop presented S.F. Cummings as the first Indian American to be appointed to a Conference staff post.

Garrisons Recognized: Bishop and Mrs. Edwin Garrison were presented to the Conference by Dr. Eubank. Bishop Garrison will speak at the evening session.

Composite Report of the District Superintendents: Dr. Eubank presented the composite report of the district superintendents. (See Reports.) The report was adopted.

Bishop Expresses Appreciation: Bishop Blackburn expressed his sincere appreciation to this his first Cabinet. He added that the cabinet meetings were the first he had ever attended other than to take various reports to such meetings during the years of his pastoral appointments.

Superintendents' Statements: Each of the district superintendents made a brief personal statements.

Hymn: The bishop called for the singing of "Rise Up, O Men of God."

Call for Executive Session: Bishop Blackburn requested that all conference members in full connection plan to remain for a brief executive session following the Service of Ordination Monday night.

The Division of the Ministry: John M. Cline presented the report of the Division of the Ministry. He spoke first to the Ministerial Education Fund and the use of some of these funds for Continuing Education. Horace Garris reported on the Ministerial Education Fund. He thanked the bishop and the district superintendents for their leadership in continuing education. He also praised the ministers and lay people for their support. He said the support of student ministers was the highest on record. Twenty-seven graduates received $10,550; twenty-one undergraduates, $8,850. (See Reports.)

The motion was made and passed that this report be accepted.

John M. Cline referred the Conference to the report on page 42 in the Book of Recommendations. He said the committees on the ministry met last night until well after midnight interviewing the various candidates.

Paul W. Boone gave a corrected report for the Lay Pastor Section. Questions 24 through 34 were asked by John Cline and answered by Bob Drew. (See Condensed Minutes).

David Bradley, professor at Duke University, raised a question of information concerning signing of the report. John Cline explained the procedure of the operation of the Division.

The report was approved.

Questions 37 and 38 were called. (See Condensed Minutes). The entire report was adopted by the Conference.

Bishop Blackburn asked the candidates for full connection the historic questions asked down through the years of those who enter this sacred relationship with the church.

The United Methodist Women: Bishop Blackburn called for the report of the United Methodist Women, introducing Mrs. D.K. Fry as the new president of this new arm of the United Methodist Church. Mrs. Fry said Mrs. Blackburn had thrilled the women with her talk at the Conference Celebration of United Methodist Women in Wilson on May 26, 1973.

Mrs. Fry said the year 1972-73 saw $190,000.00 given to missions through the former Women's Society of Christian Service. She said the most important task for the new year would be the achievement of a "feeling of oneness" within the organization.

Motion: Preston C. Jones, Sr., of Rhyne Memorial United Methodist Church, Red Springs, raised the question of this being the 148th session of the North Carolina Annual Conference. William K. Quick said the oldest date of the antecedent body was used. Mr. Jones moved that since this is the United Methodist Church now, and we do not have an old denominational name, that this session be called the 6th session and subsequent sessions be called by numbers following the 6th. The motion was seconded. The question was called and the motion failed.

Personal Privilege: Preston Jones asked for a point of personal privilege to explain his position further and walked out of the Conference as a symbol of friendly protest, explaining he would be back.

Personal Privilege: Graham Eubank asked that a note of appreciation be sent to J.E. Garlington noting his absence because of illness. Clyde McCarver asked that Carleton Wilson be sent a note of appreciation and affection. Claude Chaffin's wife is sick. Bill Davenport was reported as sick. J.F. Cummings is listed as hospitalized. Edgar Seymour of Oriental is also listed as ill. The Conference Secretary, Kimsey King, was requested to send greetings from the Conference to each of these persons.

Announcements: Announcements were made by Kimsey King.

Personal Privilege: Miss Kathy Mitchum, deaconess, of Robeson County, reported that there were precedents for the motion made by Preston Jones.

Benediction: Bishop Blackburn adjourned the session and Howard McLamb gave a prayer of benediction.

FIRST DAY, EVENING SESSION

Monday, June 4, 1973

The Service of Ordination for Deacons and Elders: Guest organist for the service was Mrs. William Aycock, organist of Haymount United Methodist Church, Fayetteville, who accompanied the combined choirs of Hay Street and Haymount United Methodist Churches for the anthem, "Psalm 150." Mr. Roger F. Searles was organist for all other portions of the service. Mr. Alan Porter, director of the Methodist College Chorus and associate professor of voice, directed the choir. Bishop Blackburn presided with Bishop Edwin R. Garrison bringing the ordination sermon.

Bishop Blackburn opened the evening service at 7:30 p.m. with prayer asking for God's blessings upon the candidates for ordination. The opening hymn was, "Glorious Things of Thee Are Spoken." Dr. C.D. Barclift, District Superintendent of the Durham District, gave a prayer of thanks for the year closing and for Divine guidance for the days ahead. His prayer asked for God's blessing not only on the men to be ordained but upon their families and upon Bishop Blackburn. James McCallum, District Superintendent of the Sanford District, led the Responsive Reading.

Bishop Blackburn gave the charge to those to be admitted as Associate Members of the Conference. Four men were so received. (See Condensed Minutes, Question 25).

An offering was received.

Sitting on the stage to the congregation's right were the twelve district superintendents. The combined choir was seated on a stepped platform in the center of the stage, and to the congregation's left were Bishop Blackburn, Bishop Garrison and John M. Cline, Chairperson for the Division of the Ministry.

Bishop Garrison challenged the congregation to accept with the ordinands the responsibility of being Christians involved in society; he spoke especially about the problems of discrimination making specific reference to the American Blacks and Indians. His text was, "If any man would come after me, let him take up his cross and follow me." Bishop Garrison said a cross was something we chose, not something imposed upon us by life, as for example, a physical handicap. He said first the cross is a service incurred. Secondly, the cross is administered by persons. In the third place the cross is a hazard, a risk, he added. "The Gospel is controversial per se," the bishop said.

Bishop Blackburn called for the singing of, "A Charge to Keep I Have."

John M. Cline presented the Deacons to the bishop for ordination, Calling Question No. 31. (See Condensed Minutes).

Bishop Blackburn asked for any impediments against the candidates for the office of Deacon.

Dr. Graham Eubank offered a prayer.

Charles Mercer read the Scripture pertaining to the office of a Deacon.

Bishop Blackburn gave the charge to the Deacons. He then ordained each Deacon by the laying on of hands. He was assisted in this portion of the service by Robert McKenzie, Paul Boone, Bill Sherman, Bob Drew and Bishop Garrison. The men placed their hands, along with the bishop, on Holy Scripture and took authority to preach the Word of God. Edgar Fisher read a Scripture from the Gospel. Bishop Blackburn led in prayer and then called for the singing of, "O Master Let Me Walk With Thee."

John Cline presented to the bishop those to be ordained Elder, calling Question No. 33. (See Condensed Minutes). The bishop asked for any impediments. Rev. A.F. Fisher offered a prayer for the candidates. Paul Carruth read from the Epistles and the Gospel. Bishop Blackburn gave the charge to the ordinands. All of the district superintendents assisted the bishop in this ceremony. The candidates were ordained by the bishop through the laying on of hands and by placing their hands on Holy Scripture.

Bishop Garrison offered the closing prayer.

Each ordinand received a parchment.

The benediction was given by Bishop Blackburn.

FIRST DAY, EXECUTIVE SESSION

(Following Ordination Service)

Monday, June 4, 1973

Executive Session Convened: Bishop Blackburn called the session to order at 9:30 p.m. Paragraph 663.5 of The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church was read by the bishop. This session was referred to as an executive session by the bishop. He asked for a brotherly spirit.

Motion: James Coile moved that the bar and rules of the Conference be the same for the executive session as for the regular session. It was seconded by Jim Bailey. The motion carried.

Re-Admission: Question 35 was called and John Cline presented the name of Dermont Reid for re-admission into the Conference from the Division of the Ministry. Reinstatement was for the purpose of transfer. A motion was so made and carried, and Bishop Blackburn stated that Mr. Reid would be notified of the action of the Conference and his transfer effected immediate.

Question 42: Question 42 was called: "Who are granted sabbatical leave?" The names of Kenneth E. Beane and Murrell K. Glover were submitted. The Division of the Ministry did not feel they had the authority to recommend a sabbatical leave for Mr. Glover. Sabbatical was granted for Mr. Beane. Mr. Cline referred to page 453 of the Discipline for Mr. Glover's request as a matter of pension responsibility. Norwood Jones was asked to give the session pension information concerning Mr. Glover. Mr. Glover has only 3½ years of pension credit out of the last 13 rather than the required 5 out of the last 10 years. Mr. Cline said this would refer Mr. Glover's appointment to the Cabinet for action. It was so done.

Announcements: Kimsey King made announcements concerning the orders of the day.

Closing: Bishop Blackburn thanked the men and closed with a benediction.

SECOND DAY, MORNING SESSION

Tuesday, June 5, 1973

Holy Communion: The Sacrament of Holy Communion was served in Hensdale Chapel at 8:15 a.m. under the direction of The Division of Worship.

Conference Convened: Mrs. William Aycock played the prelude, "Prelude on Three Hymns" by W. Lawrence Curry to open the session at 9:00 a.m.

Hymn: Bishop Blackburn called for the Conference to sing, "Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee." The text for his devotional was Matthew 25:31 and the verses following and a passage from II Corinthians. His theme was a call from "our little corner of the world" to all the world, a call to peace and self development.

He asked the Conference to sing, "Standing on the Promises."

Presentation: Graham Eubank presented Robert M. Blackburn, Jr., of Florida Southern College to the Conference.

Report on Consultation: Belton Joyner gave a brief report on his recent participation in a Consultation on Peace and Self Development. He said a task force to implement this concern would be formed out of existing agencies. He mentioned a call to respond to Key '73, to use Continuing Education and other such means as the Lake Junaluska laboratory experiences to develop a real response to the call to peace and self development.

Task Force: The bishop read the names of the members of the proposed Inter-Agency Task Force to implement the United Methodist call for Peace and Self-development of Peoples, North Carolina Conference: Mrs. Charles M. Smith, Mr. Barnes Bryant, James Cummings, Ralph Fleming, Mrs. A.B. Roberts, Mrs. Earl Peterson, F. Belton Joyner, Jr., Mr. John Brooks, Brian Gentle, Charles M. Smith, Dr. Richmond Anderson, Dan Earnhardt, Mr. Lester Ridenhour, James Creech, Mrs. Charles Dorsett, Paul Bunn, Dewey Tyson, Mr. Frank Steinbeck, Mr. David Boardwell, Mr. David Kornegay, S.F. Cummings, A.F. Fisher, Mrs. Mary Boyd, Mrs. James McCallum, Robert Johnson, Vernon Tyson, Mrs. Clyde Ingale, Mrs. James Herron, Robert Young, Mr. Jess Harrington, Mrs. H.T. Mullins, Sr. A. F. Fisher was named convener.

Publishing House Greetings: Mr. Lee Driggs of The Methodist Publishing House brought a word of greeting to the Conference. A check for $6,977.09 was presented to the Conference for its retired ministers.

Bishop Blackburn showed and commented on several books he had purchased from Cokesbury.

Board of Publications: The Methodist Board of Publication, Inc. was asked to make its report. C.P. Morris gave the report indicating that the North Carolina Christian Advocate will be changed into a tabloid newspaper format. Morris read item 6 (P. 46 in Book of Recommendations), for Conference action, and it passed. James C. Stokes spoke to the Conference reminding them that the North Carolina Christian Advocate was first published in 1855. He said there will always be a place for the printed page as a point of permanent reference for the matters printed thereon. Speaking for the changed format for the Advocate, he said we need to change our methodology to keep up with these changing times.

The report was adopted in full.

Council on Ministries: The report of the Council on Ministries was presented by N.W. Grant. He asked the Conference to turn to page 17 in the Book of Recommendations. He asked for and received Conference passage of the first three recommendations.

Board of Discipleship: Wallace Kirby brought the report of The Board of Discipleship asking first that Dewey Tyson bring the report of the Division of Evangelism, found on pages 21 and 29. The report was adopted. W.D. Sabiston, III, brought the report of the Division of Worship, page 22, items 78 and 79 in the Book of Recommendations and it passed. Christian White brought the report of the Division of Education, pages 18 to 20 in the Book of Recommendations. He brought a resolution concerning the Methodist Board of Education, Inc., submitted previously on mimeographed sheets. (See Resolutions).

The report and the resolution passed.

Camp Committee: Dr. Seaborn Blair was asked to speak about the work of the camp committee. He told about the work of the committee with autistic children. He also said sewer difficulties at Camp Don Lee have been overcome. He said a $20,000 challenge grant had been given by Mr. Bill Price of Burlington for special facilities at Camp Don Lee.

Presentation: A point of personal privilege was asked by Christian White to have Dr. and Mrs. C.P. Morris come to the stage for a special presentation of a memorial compass for Camp Don Lee and a Resolution of Recognition and Appreciation. (See Resolutions). Dr. and Mrs. Morris received a standing ovation by way of adoption of the resolution.

The report of the Division of Education was adopted in full.

Division of Lay Life and Work: Mr. Grier Garrick brought the report of the Division of Lay Life and Work, page 20 in the Book of Recommendations. The report was adopted.

Mr. Garrick brought a resolution in memory of W. Jasper Smith, expressing appreciation for his dedicated life. (See Resolutions). Following a moment of silence in his memory, the Conference adopted the resolution.

Layman of the Year: Dr. Ed Legates came forward to make the presentation of the Laymen of the Year Award. It was given to Mr. Grier Garrick, Conference Lay Leader.

Bishop Blackburn called Question 15 and asked for nominations for Conference Lay Leader. Grier Garrick was nominated and elected.

Chaplains Recognized: Chaplain Edwin Jones brought words of greeting from the Division of Chaplains and Related Ministries. The bishop invited all men who are actively serving as chaplains, either in the military or institutional situations, to come forward. Each introduced himself and explained his location. B.F. Meachem was elected President of the Conference Chaplains' Association for the coming year.

Appointment of New District Superintendents: Bishop Blackburn announced the appointment of new district superintendents: N.W. Grant, Burlington District; Harold Leatherman, New Bern District; and James H. Miller, Jr. Fayetteville District.

Recess: A fifteen minute recess was taken.

Memorial Service: Bishop Blackburn presided at the Memorial Service held at 11:00 a.m.

Dr. T. Marvin Vick led in prayer and Allan Porter sang. After the singing of the hymn, "Jesus the Very Thought of Thee", Bishop Blackburn asked the Conference Secretary, Kimsey King, to answer the question No. 40, "What ministers have died during the past Conference Year?" The list was read as follows: Benjamin Owsley Merritt, Morris Lyman Husted, Harold DeForrest Minor, Bishop Paul Neff Garber, Zebulon Vance Cowan, Charles Edward Vale, Isaac Shirley Richmond, William Graham Lowe, and George Hart Tyson. Then he asked, "What ministers' wives have died during the past Conference Year?" The Secretary answered as follows: Mrs. Margaret R. Dimmette, Mrs. Ellender Wilks Jones, Mrs. Hortense Duncan Long, Mrs. Gladys Newman Barbee, Mrs. Sallie Holmes Fisher, Mrs. Narvice James Swink, Mrs. Gladys Liner Coley, Mrs. Maxine Royal Warren, Mrs. Ila Coble, Mrs. Geraldine Stephenson, and Mrs. Gertrude Gleaves. Henry Lewis delivered the Memorial Address, "From Death to Life."

Following brief announcements, the benediction was given by Bishop Blackburn.

SECOND DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION

Tuesday, June 5, 1973

Conference Brotherhood: The annual meeting of the Conference Brotherhood was convened at 2:00 p.m. by James W. Hamilton. Joe Bostick gave the financial report. Mr. Bostick reported a balance of $3,198.19 in the First Union National Bank, Durham, North Carolina, with $8,165.71 in the Methodist Ministers' Credit Union.

John Cline moved the adoption of the nominating committee report: James Hamilton, president; Kelly Wilson, Jr., vice-president; Joe Bostick, secretary-treasurer. They were elected.

Conference Convened: The business session of the Conference was called to order at 2:30 p.m. by Bishop Blackburn. The opening hymn was "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name."

Constitutional Amendments: Bishop Blackburn called the attention of the Conference to the Constitutional Amendments, pages 51 and 52 in the Book of Recommendations.

James Coile moved that the rules be suspended and the bar of the Conference be the floor and speaker's platform for voting on the Constitutional Amendments. It passed.

Balloting on the proposed Constitutional Amendments at the request of Kimsey King, Conference Secretary, was postponed until Wednesday morning in order that a duplicated ballot might be prepared.

Dr. Fred P. Brooks, Jr. submitted a resolution to be considered Wednesday concerning the make-up of The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., Board of Trustees.

Greetings: Dr. Dennis Kinlaw, President of Asbury College, brought greetings.

Lake Junaluska: Waylon Cooke gave a report on Lake Junaluska.

Division of Stewardship: John Maides gave the report of the Division of Stewardship on page 21 in the Book of Recommendations. Item 67 was not voted upon but was deferred until the next meeting of the Division. Items 68, 69, and 70 were presented and Mr. Maides moved their adoption. They were adopted.

Frank Lloyd asked the question whether or not a specific month could be given for the stewardship workshops. Mr. Maides replied that this could not be done at this time.

Council on Finance and Administration: Charles Hubbard brought the report of the Council on Finance and Administration, pages 30-33 in the Book of Recommendations.

Mr. Hubbard requested the following changes:

Additional Recommendations
To Those in Book of Recommendations

Section III

Delete recommendation Number 9, page 32.

The following becomes Number 9:

9. The Council on Finance & Administration shall maintain an Emergency Fund equal to 3% of each current annual budget to be built upon the current Contingency Reserve of $99004.00. This fund shall not be subject to problems of budget shrinkage but is to be used only for emergencies.

Salaries, debts, rentals, college sustaining fund and the pension funding program were explained as examples of essential items which were not reduced when the several churches did not accept all of their askings, according to Mr. Hubbard. Mr. Hubbard asked that the Conference delete the last paragraph of Section VI, page 33, Book of Recommendations. It passed.

Murrell Glover moved that all salaries and all allowances of the district superintendents remain the same as the past year and not be raised. It was seconded by Wade Hawkins. The motion was defeated.

R.W. Pritchard asked a question about using the emergency fund for salary supplements.

Reginald Ponder moved the deletion of item 1 of Section III, page 31, Book of Recommendations. It was seconded by Arthur Phillips.

Malloy Owen spoke for the Ponder motion. The question was called; the Ponder motion carried and it was deleted. Mr. Hubbard moved a continuation of the present formula, seconded by John Maides. It passed.

Wilbur Jackson asked for clarification on the 5% increase in salary for District Superintendents. Mr. Charles McAdams made the explanation. Section III carried.

Mr. Hubbard offered this substitute for paragraph VIII, page 33, Book of Recommendations:

The Tentative Budget to be raised during the calendar year 1974 shall be the same as the 7-months budget, June 1 – December 31, 1973, adjusted to 12-months, with a 3% increase in the total budget. The increase will be distributed among the line items of the 12-months budget by the Council on Finance and Administration following budget hearings on June 27, at which time the Council will finalize the budget to be raised in 1974. Both budgets are printed under Report of Council on Finance and Administration.

Al Fisher wanted the matter explained that the churches might not necessarily have a 3% increase due to the change under discussion. The substitute for Section VIII carried.

Al Fisher moved that number 9, Section III, page 32, be deleted. It carried.

Section IV carried.

Section V carried.

Paul Edwards made the following motion: "I move that the Conference Treasurer include in his monthly financial district reports, for any given month, all monies received in his office by 8:30 a.m. on the 5th day of the following month." It passed.

Section VI carried.

Mr. Hubbard moved changes in section VII, page 33 (See Reports). His additions to the Supplemental Appropriations were moved, seconded and adopted.

Section VII carried.

Mr. Hubbard presented the Tentative Budget (Adjusted) (See addition to Section II of the Council of Finance and Administration Report) for 1974 and moved its adoption.

Langill Watson moved that the item for Campus Ministry in the 1974 budget be raised—be increased to the level approved for Campus Ministry for 1972-73 ($66,027.00). Bob McKenzie seconded the motion. He felt campus ministers' salaries would be reduced by 22% if the tentative 1974 budget were adopted.

Mr. Hubbard said other items were similarly decreased.

Clarence Warren spoke for the Watson motion.

Joe Coble asked a question about special item increases and said he felt other items would be out. He said the Methodist Retirement Home had already been out.

Bob McKenzie said he wanted to speak in principle to the Watson motion. He felt the Watson motion favored young people and urged adoption.

Paul Bunn said that the Division of Missions had been out and that he felt he could not support the Watson motion which would restore campus ministries and leave the Black and Indian mission work reduced.

Mr. Henry Goodwin, a reserve delegate, was given permission to speak on the motion. He wanted to know why the campus ministry was out. Mr. Hubbard simply said allocation of funds left the result as shown for campus ministries.

The Watson motion carried.

Kelly Ingram raised a question about the budget item for the Children's Home.

Motion: Kermit Braswell moved "that any item increased by the Annual Conference be paid if money is subscribed and paid by the local churches, otherwise that these increases be decreased before other items are decreased for this budget, 1974." The motion was seconded by Clyde McCarver.

Wade Goldston spoke against the Braswell motion.

Clyde Dunn spoke for the Braswell motion.

Mr. Henry Goodwin spoke against the Braswell motion.

David E. Daniel of Louisburg College spoke for the Braswell motion.

Milton Gilbert offered the following substitute to the Braswell motion: "that the increases made either by the Council on Finance and Administration or by vote of the Annual Conference, over either the previous budget or the proposed budget, be subject to the formula of the Braswell Amendment." The motion was seconded by Stanley Smith. It carried.

The Braswell motion carried.

Jim Coile called for a division of the house and a vote by orders. It was defeated.

Graham Eubank moved to reconsider. It was lost.

Jim Coile moved that there be a business session after the program tonight. It lost.

The Tentative Budget (Adjusted) was adopted. The extra Report of the Council on Finance and Administration as amended was moved, seconded and adopted.

New Chairperson: Mr. Ray Euliss, a lay leader, from Burlington was introduced as the new chairperson for the Council on Finance and Administration.

Presentation: Mr. Charles McAdams presented a plaque to Charles Hubbard for his work on the Council on Finance and Administration.

Methodist Foundation: The Methodist Foundation was represented by Mr. S.L. Gullledge, Jr., President of the Foundation, who brought a brief report.

Announcements: Kimsey King made announcements.

Benediction: The session was closed by a prayer offered by Bishop Blackburn.

SECOND DAY, EVENING SESSION

Tuesday, June 5, 1973

The Hour of Evangelism was held on Tuesday evening, beginning at 7:30 p.m., with Bishop Robert M. Blackburn presiding. M. Dewey Tyson led the service. The speaker was Dr. George H. Outen, Assistant General Secretary, Division of Evangelism, Worship and Stewardship, The Board of Discipleship.

The "Hour of Evangelism" was dedicated in memory of The Reverend George Hart Tyson, Sr., who at the time of his death, March 30, 1973, was Chairperson of Evangelism for the Goldsboro District.

THIRD DAY, MORNING SESSION

Wednesday, June 6, 1973

Holy Communion: The Sacrament of Holy Communion was served in Hensdale Chapel at 8:15 a.m. under the direction of The Division of Worship.

Conference Convened: The session opened with a prelude, "Now Thank We All Our God" by guest organist, Mr. Lewis Bruun.

Bishop Blackburn called the session to order promptly at 9:00 a.m. Hymn, 2, "O For A Thousand Tongues to Sing," was sung. Bishop Blackburn led a devotional based on verses from the seventh chapter of Matthew. This was followed by singing, "O Master, Let Me Walk With Thee."

Report of the Committee on Minutes: Horace Garriss made the report of the Committee on Minutes. It was approved.

Personal Privilege: Dr. Eubank asked for a personal privilege to present Bill Lowdermilk, Chairman of the Entertainment Committee for the Conference and Director of Public Relations for Methodist College.

Constitutional Amendments: The bishop called for consideration of the Constitutional Amendments.

No. 1972 - 7. No discussion.

No. 1972 - 8. Bob McKenzie spoke in opposition to the Amendment.

No. 1972 - 9. James Coile asked a question about equalizing ministers as well as lay members. Frank Lloyd asked a question about ministerial status for the purpose of equalizing lay and clerical membership.

No. 1972 - 10. John Cline said the amendment seemed reasonable and in keeping with the times, but the minister is a product of his Charge Conference where lay people far out-weigh the minister or ministers and he felt it would be unwise to pass this amendment.

Paul Carruth said he felt ministers, for instance, did not pass judgment on lawyers or beauticians; therefore, he did not feel lay persons should pass on the ordination of ministers.

Rufus Stark questioned whether the clergy is as distinct a professional grouping as that of lawyers or physicians and so forth.

Mr. Grier Garrick said the matters to which this amendment addresses itself seem to him to recommend themselves to the clergy alone.

No. 1972 - 11. No discussion.

No. 1972 - 12. No discussion.

No. 1972 - 13. No discussion.

No. 1972 - 14. Mr. George C. Burton, Lay delegate from Grace Church, Clinton, asked about the Province of Ontario shown in the Discipline but omitted from the printed amendment. Kimsey King answered by saying that the Constitutional Amendment, as printed in the Book of Recommendations, was submitted by the Secretary of the General Conference. James Coile made the observation that if the omission were due to clerical error, then the Judicial Council would likely rule the ballot invalid.

Ballot Taken: A written ballot was taken on the Constitutional Amendments.

Presentation: Mr. George Harrington asked for a special privilege to present Dr. Stacy Weaver with a walnut gavel and sounding block made from a tree on Currituck Sound.

Equitable Salaries: Walter McDonald recommended the following addition to the report on Equitable Salaries:

To Paragraph I, page 28, dealing with travel allowances for student pastors, add the following sentence:

One half of the travel allowance will be made available between September 1 and December 31 and the other half between January 1 and April 30.

The Commission requests permission from the Annual Conference to make such raises in minimum salary schedules for the Conference Year 1973-74, beginning January 1, 1974, as available funds may permit.

Mr. McDonald said he felt minimum salaries tended, in the minds of many churches, to be a ceiling rather than a floor. The report is found on page 27 of the Book of Recommendations.

Maness Mitchell offered the following amendment:

"I move that the present report of the Commission on Equitable Salaries, found on pages 27 and 28 of your Book of Recommendations, be amended as follows:

1. Strike all salary figures relative to the salary of full-time pastors from Section I.A., and strike all of Section I.B., leaving only Section I.A (without the salary figures) and Section II to the report.
2. In the place of the figures stricken from Section I.A, insert the following in Section I:

Full-time Pastors	1973 (7/12)	1974
One or more dependent children	$4,433	$7,600
Married	4,316	7,400
Single	4,200	7,200

3. Add to the end of the report:

The Council on Finance and Administration is hereby empowered and directed to make available funds necessary to implement the provisions of this report as it deems best, including the use of funds collected within the Conference year 1973 and 1974 in the Conference year in which they are collected."

David Moe seconded the motion.

Maness Mitchell discussed his motion.

Bob McKenzie asked how much money was under discussion in the Mitchell Amendment. Walter McDonald said this would be difficult to ascertain.

W.F. Elliott said he felt the Mitchell Amendment would tend to defeat the benefits of seminary education since an untrained man would begin at the same salary as a seminary graduate.

Wade Goldston spoke in favor of the Mitchell Amendment. He said he felt supplementary appropriations could be made to cover the necessary monies called for in the Mitchell Amendment.

Horace Garris moved the previous question. It was seconded by Milton Mann.

Point of Order: Rufus Stark raised a point of order that the tellers should receive this ballot. It was rejected by a voice vote.

The vote on the Mitchell Amendment was 274, for; 192, against.

Charles M. Litzenberger made a motion to amend the report to give a stipend for theology students — $7,000.00 for each year at seminary, or $21,000.00 for three years. It was seconded.

Mike Cash offered the following substitute to the Litzenberger amendment: "The Division of Ministry study the educational needs of the ministry with the intent of structuring an annual required program of study for lay pastors, associate members, and full-time Conference members in connection with Duke Divinity School and its Continuing Education Program." It was seconded by Reginald Ponder.

Jack Page made the motion to table all that is before us. It was seconded. The motion to postpone the Litzenberger Amendment and Cash Substitute indefinitely was offered by Mr. Page since the motion to table was out of order. It carried. The remainder of the report was presented. Al Fisher spoke against. Mr. LeGrand spoke for.

Marvin Vick asked for a show of hands of those who did not meet their acceptance and pointed out that extra money voted upon has to come from the Conference. The question on the total report was called and sustained.

A motion was made by Paul Bunn for a vote by orders. It was seconded. With 127 yes; 280 no, it lost, failing a one third majority and proper polling of the separate orders. Walter McDonald made a final statement on the Commission On Equitable Salaries.

The report on Equitable Salaries was voted upon. Kimsey King read the result: 208, for and 283, against. The report as amended failed.

Wade Goldston moved that another report by the Equitable Salaries Commission be given today. It was seconded and passed.

Greetings: Mr. H. Thornton Fowler of The Methodist Publishing House of Nashville, Tennessee, brought greetings.

Board of Trustees: Mr. E.M. Herndon brought the report of the Conference Board of Trustees. He said all staff members would have parsonages by the close of the Conference. He offered a resolution and a motion:

A RESOLUTION FROM THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES, NORTH CAROLINA METHODIST CONFERENCE:

I hereby move that the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church petition the North Carolina Commissioner of Insurance, John Ingram, for a hearing, and at this hearing, attempt to gain approval for the United Methodist Church Multi-Peril Package Policy insurance program promoted by the General Council on Finance and Administration so that member churches may be allowed to participate in the United Methodist Church insurance if they so desire.

MOTION BY THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES: That funds belonging to the Board of Trustees' Fund in Methodist Foundation, Inc., in the amount of $340,000. be transferred to the Reserve Pension Fund with the understanding that this fulfills the obligation of the Board of Trustees to the Reserve Pension Fund.

The report, resolution, and motion were moved, seconded, and adopted.

Statement on Black Colleges: Dr. Clayton Calhoun brought greetings from the Florida Conference and a statement on the Black colleges. He made an impassioned plea for continued support for these institutions. He pointed out that one-half of all Black medical doctors and dentists in the entire United States were trained at our United Methodist Black College, Meharry Medical College, in Nashville, Tennessee.

Resolution: Sidney Stafford offered a resolution honoring C. Wade Goldston. (See Resolutions).

Church of the Year Award: Troy J. Barrett and Rufus Stark made presentation by the Board of Global Ministries, Division of Missions. One award was made to a church of less than 500 members, Caledonia United Methodist Church. Jim Hardee is the pastor at Caledonia. Mr. Hardee said that at their Charge Conference this year they had 6 to recommend for a license to preach.

New Parish Development Award: A second award was presented to the North Raleigh United Methodist Church, pastor, Sidney Huggins, for "New Parish Development."

Board of Higher Education: Warren Petteway brought the report of the Board of Higher Education and Ministry. He asked that any basic changes in higher education be reserved until the report of the Bishop's Long-range Study Committee is made. (See Reports).

Lay Pastors' School: Dr. Robert Wilson brought a word from the Duke Endowment and Ormond Center and spoke about the Lay Pastors' School. The Reports were submitted for information. (See Reports).

Announcements: Announcements were made by Kimsey King. The meeting was adjourned with prayer by Bishop Blackburn.

THIRD DAY, AFTERNOON SESSION

Wednesday, June 6, 1973

Opening: Mr. Lewis Bruun, organist, played "Chorale" as a prelude for the afternoon session.

Bishop Blackburn asked the Conference to sing "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name."

Regional Commission on Campus Ministry: Langill Watson brought the report for the Regional Commission on Campus Ministry. The campus ministers put on a dramatic presentation entitled, "The First Third of Their Lives."

Division of Higher Education: Mr. Watson brought the report of the Division of Higher Education, Board of Higher Education and Ministry, page 34, Book of Recommendations. The first vote was on section III, pages 34-35, Book of Recommendations. It passed. Section I, page 34, Book of Recommendations was voted upon. It passed. It was recommended that November be designated as College Month and that November 25, 1973, and November 24, 1974, as College Sunday be approved. It passed. Item D was deleted by the reporting Division. Paul Carruth offered the following resolution:

"Resolved that the Conference direct that the Chairman of the Board of Higher Education and Ministry send appropriate message of support and appreciation for the appropriation of $200.00 per student at our church related colleges and universities to appropriate leaders of the North Carolina Legislative Assembly."

It was seconded. It passed. The report in full was passed.

Motion: Paul Carruth moved "that the rules of order of our Conference be suspended for the remainder of this session with respect to debate to allow the following stipulation: that there shall be no more than two speeches on each side of any motion and that each speech be limited to a maximum of five minutes." It was seconded.

Wade Goldston spoke against the motion to limit debate as stipulated in the Carruth motion. The question was called and sustained. The Carruth motion carried.

SEMAR: Vassar Jones made the report for SEMAR. Robert Pitzer, Executive Director for SEMAR (Southeastern Methodist Agency for Mentally Retarded), spoke. He said there are approximately 7000 mentally retarded United Methodist persons within the bounds of the North Carolina Conference and urged support of SEMAR programs.

Committee on Continuing Education: Herman Winberry brought the report of The Committee on Continuing Education. (See Reports). It was voted upon and passed.

Mr. Winberry noted that it was necessary to correct an omission from the Report of last year, which neglected to nominate two persons to the North Carolina Pastors' School Board of Managers, with terms to expire in 1975. He submitted the names of Paul Carruth and Francis Bradshaw, and then added that on page 3 of his mimeographed report the names of two persons to be nominated to terms to expire in 1977 were included: J.H. Bailey and S.D. McMillan. It was moved that these nominations be accepted. The question was called and sustained. The Conference accepted the nominees.

Greetings: Dr. Thomas Langford, Dean of the Divinity School at Duke University, brought greetings from the school.

Committee on Lay Worker: John Cline brought the report of the Lay Worker, page 41, Book of Recommendations.

Mrs. Grier Garrick, secretary of the Committee on the Lay Worker presented Robert H. Garrison to be certified as a Director of Business Administration and Henry Ross to be certified as a Director of Music. Christian White presented Mrs. Beth Downs to be certified as a Director of Christian Education. Bishop Blackburn officiated at the Service for Consecration for Full Time Lay Workers.

Joint Committee on Disability: The Rev. Clyde McCarver presented the Report of the Joint Committee on Disability pages 26-27, Book of Recommendations. It carried.

Resolution of Appreciation: A statement of appreciation for The Rev. Belton Joyner was given by Bert Fisher. (See Resolutions).

Pastors' School and Convocation: Al Fisher gave the report for the Pastors' School and Convocation. He said an exciting new dimension in Continuing Education would be "mini courses" offered through the Divinity School at Duke University. A minister-student dialogue will be a new feature of the Pastors' School and Convocation.

Division of Missions: Dr. Thomas Collins of the Board of Global Ministries presented Rufus Stark to bring the report of the Division of Missions, pages 23-24, items 95-111, Book of Recommendations. It carried. He expressed appreciation to Ernest Porter for his fine work in behalf of the Division.

Division of Ecumenical and Interreligious Concerns: Dr. Collins brought the report for the Division of Ecumenical and Interreligious Concerns for Mrs. R.L. Jerome, Division Chairperson, page 22, items 80-86, Book of Recommendations. He also recognized Collins Kilburn to bring greetings from the North Carolina Council of Churches. The report was approved.

Motion: Dr. Collins moved that the rules be suspended in order to distribute mimeographed sheets concerning matters of Conference entertainment. It carried.

Report of Ballot on Constitutional Amendments: Bishop Blackburn requested that the Conference Secretary, Kimsey King, read the results of the ballot on Constitutional Amendments taken Wednesday morning. Mr. King read the results submitted by the Chief Clerical Teller, L.R. Aills, and the Chief Lay Teller, M.F. Grantham. The tellers certified that the vote had been taken properly on a duplicated ballot form and that only those permitted to vote had been allowed to cast ballots, and that twenty-seven void ballots had been eliminated. Mr. King inspected the results of the balloting and certified the results to the Secretary of the General Conference as follows: Constitutional Amendment 7: 435, Yes; 23, No; 4 Abstentions. Amendment 8: 221, Yes; 245, No; 3 Abstentions. Amendment 9: 357, Yes; 97, No; 8 Abstentions. Amendment 10: 67, Yes; 394, No; 3 Abstentions. Amendment 11: 315, Yes; 147, No; 1 Abstention. Amendment 12: 399, Yes; 62 No; 7 Abstentions. Amendment 13: 413, Yes; 46, No; 5 Abstentions. Amendment 14: 421, Yes; 20, No; 21 Abstentions. Mr. King referred to the matter of the legality of Constitutional Amendment 14 referred to during the discussion on the previous day. He referred to page 36 of the 1972 Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church and the results of the Constitutional Amendment 1968-4, which answered the question that had been raised.

Commission on Enlistment for Church Occupations: Chester Brown presented the report of the Commission on Enlistment for Church Occupations. It carried.

Board of Church and Society: Charles M. Smith brought the report of the Board of Church and Society, pages 17-18, items 4-11, Book of Recommendations. He expressed the appreciation of the Board to John Meares for his outstanding efforts in its behalf.

Youth Resolution: A resolution by the Youth Delegates was presented by Tommy Wells, seconded by Robert Wallace. This was introduced for the consideration of the Conference. Jim Coile seconded it. The text of the resolution follows:

Resolution

Whereas: The Department of Transportation, Federal Aviation Administration, has issued Airspace Docket No. 72-SO-120, Establishment of Restricted Area "Notice of Proposed Rule Making," that would establish a restricted area, R-5315, in the vicinity of Cape

Hatteras, N.C., and

Whereas: North Carolina already has more restricted areas than any other state, over two million acres, and the U.S. Navy should be made to justify why existing restricted areas could not be used to provide pilots with controlled training in air combat maneuvering at supersonic speeds, and

Whereas: The proposed restricted area would make it virtually impossible to fly in any direction in the Engelhard-Cape Hatteras area, to properly patrol wildlife refuges and the vast timberlands and to permit flight access to Hyde and the southern part of Dare County, and would nullify the millions of dollars of Federal, State, local and private monies spent on industrial planning, and development, and

Whereas: The maneuvers to be conducted in this proposed restricted area would be hazardous to civilian aircraft. There will be sonic booms-harmful to wildlife, injurious to sea life, damaging to ships and annoying to persons in the area. Not to be overlooked are the facts that the exhaust of supersonic aircraft could have long-term environment effects on the upper atmosphere and will contribute to air pollution, and

Whereas: We as Christian people are called upon to be good stewards of God's creation.

Now Therefore Be It Resolved by the North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, 1973 at its regular Annual meeting does hereby strongly oppose the intent of Airspace Docket No. 72-SO-120 to establish a restricted area in the vicinity of Hatteras, Ocracoke and Engelhard, N.C.

Mrs. Theodore Rondthaler, lay delegate from Ocracoke, spoke in favor of the resolution. Bob McKenzie spoke in favor of the resolution.

Mr. Haig Iskyan spoke against the resolution.

The resolution carried.

Arthur Phillips brought the following resolution:

Whereas: the State of North Carolina will have a referendum on liquor by the drink, November 6, 1973, and

Whereas: the North Carolina Conference has historically taken the position of opposition to liquor by the drink, and

Whereas: the special report to the United States Congress by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare shows the abuse of alcoholic beverages to be the single greatest problem of drug misuse in America.

Therefore Be It Resolved, that the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, meeting at Methodist College, Fayetteville, North Carolina, June 6, 1973, record its opposition to liquor by the drink in North Carolina, and urges that United Methodists work for the defeat of liquor by the drink, November 6, 1973.

W.M. Ellis proposed the following amendment to the Phillips resolution:

"Further, be it resolved that the North Carolina Annual Conference express its support of the Christian Action League and encourage its churches to give financial support to the League in its crusade against liquor by the drink." Both carried.

Mrs. Jean Dorsett brought the following resolution from the Conference Board of Church and Society:

Whereas: The Christian Gospel impels us to active concern for human welfare and development; and,

Whereas: The ordering of priorities as expressed in the proposed national budget reflects diminished emphasis on programs directed towards education, health, and human welfare; and,

Whereas: Despite the signing of the cease-fire agreements, military-related appropriations have continued to increase by billions of dollars over the previous year's expenditures; and,

Whereas: In a time of a national energy and natural resources crisis, U.S. bombers continue to expend millions of gallons of fuel bombing Cambodia and Laos, contrary to the expressed wishes of the Congress, and many essential natural resources are daily being consumed by industries to produce military equipment; and,

Whereas: We affirm that Christ's reconciling and saving activity is continuing in the world and that He is calling His Church to cooperate in this work by exhibiting concern for all persons.

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That We send expressions of this concern to the members of our North Carolina Congressional delegation and to the President; and

That we urge all United Methodists in our Conference also to send expressions of concern to Congressmen and the President. It carried.

Charles M. Smith recognized Brian G. Gentle to bring a proposed motion from the Special Committee to Investigate Conference Investment Policies:

Whereas: The United Methodist Church has a traditional concern and commitment to the practice of exercising Christian ethical judgments in its investment policies (i.e.: not investing in the liquor trade), the Special Committee to Investigate Conference Investment Policies moves that the 1973 Session of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church direct the Methodist Foundation

1. To examine and evaluate its present investment policies and the beneficiaries of such investments giving mind to the worth of said investments, not simply in terms of capital gains, but also with standards that take into account whether or not such investments further goals consistent with the standards of the Christian Gospel as set forth in The Social Principles of The United Methodist Church,
2. To explore possible avenues by which Conference funds can be invested in North Carolina corporations and businesses involved in the development of this State (said investments would be employed in forwarding the social, and economic growth of this State and would also enable the Conference to better evaluate the ethical worth and fruits of its investments).
3. To make it the practice of publishing the complete investment portfolio to be available at the Annual Conference.
4. To report to the 1974 Session of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church how it has carried out this mandate.

The report of the Board of Church and Society was accepted.

Commission on Religion and Race: Preston Jones brought the report of the Commission on Religion and Race, page 25, Book of Recommendations. He also offered this supplement:

"Institutional Racial Inclusiveness

The 1972 Session of the North Carolina Annual Conference adopted the following proposed program: That a survey and study be made of all conference and related institutions, that recommendations be made to those institutions relative to progress in racial inclusiveness, and that a report of findings, recommendations and action be made to the Annual Conference in 1973 by this committee. Journal, North Carolina Conference, 1972, page 318.

A special committee of the Commission on Religion and Race made a study of programs in other annual conferences designed to achieve racial inclusiveness and decided that our institutions should be required to make their own self-study during the conference year 1973-1974 and establish their policies and objectives with reference to racial inclusiveness. Every agency reporting to the Conference in 1974 shall be expected to include in its report a summary of its study and its plans for the future, using an evaluation form provided by the Commission on Religion and Race."

Mr. Robert Carruth said the youth and young adult caucus favored the report and its supplement.

Philip M. Chance, Jr., lay pastor, spoke in favor of the report and its supplement.

The report and supplement carried.

Al Fisher moved a business session for 9:00 p.m. tonight. It carried.

Benediction: Charles Mercer pronounced the benediction.

THIRD DAY, EVENING SESSION

Wednesday, June 6, 1973

Hour of Missions: The Hour of Missions was held on Wednesday evening, beginning at 7:30 p.m., with Bishop Blackburn presiding, Rufus Stark led the service. Dr. David Flude of UMCOR was speaker.

Conference Convened: Following the benediction for the Hour of Missions, Bishop Blackburn called the Conference to order to resume the order of the day.

Division of Health and Welfare Ministries: Paul Edwards brought the report of the Division of Health and Welfare Ministries, page 22, Book of Recommendations. It was adopted. He also brought the report found on page 38, Book of Recommendations. It was voted upon by sections.

Section I was adopted.

Section II was adopted.

Section III was adopted.

John Young asked the question: "Has the Long-Range Planning Committee entered into any conversations with any other Conference?" Joe Coble said all plans have been cleared with the General Board in Evanston, Illinois.

Ed Smith asked a question about financing: "Wouldn't something comparable to present Conference allocations to our Home in Durham be needed for any new home that is built?"

Joe Coble said the Conference would probably always want to put some benevolent money into any new home to be constructed.

Mr. Smith moved that additional funds for the benevolent work of the new home(s) will be needed from the Conference Council on Administration and Finance. It was seconded by Herman Winberry. The motion passed.

Reginald Ponder moved the deletion of paragraph 2 of Section IV on page 39 of the Health and Welfare Ministries Report. It was seconded.

Bob McKenzie said he was in sympathy with the financial situation of the Conference but he felt that the Conference should continue to plan and expand for future needs such as additional facilities for our senior citizens.

Paul Carruth said he supported the Ponder motion because he felt that an essential part of a decision to build a new home necessarily involved a willingness to support it to the same degree as we support the present Retirement Home in Durham, and that we should not proceed without that commitment clearly understood.

Harold Leatherman said he served on the group investigating a new retirement home. He said he felt the investigating group carried out the mandate of the last Annual Conference and he was therefore opposed to the Ponder motion.

Frank Lloyd said he felt the Long Range Planning Committee had exceeded their authority in suggesting a third and a fourth home.

Joe Coble made the final statement for the Division of Health and Welfare.

A.D. Byrd offered the following substitute motion: that we approve a. of part 2 of Section IV of the Long Range Planning Committee report based on the action of Annual Conference last year and that we defer final action on parts b. and c. of part 2 of Section IV until the Annual Conference next year. It was seconded by Jack Page.

Willie Teague said he did not feel the Long Range Planning Committee had the right to tie the hands of the Conference by making it appear there was no way now to refuse to proceed with their recommendations.

Jim Bailey said he felt plans proceeded with to this date in Lumberton were done in good faith and should be honored.

Al Fisher referred the Conference to the 1972 Journal, page 290.

Point of Order: Jim Bailey called for a point of order on the grounds that last year this Conference voted to build this new home and empowered the Retirement Home Trustees to proceed.

Al Fisher again referred the Conference to the 1972 Journal, page 290.

Stan Smith said he wanted the Conference to recapitulate its actions. He said in effect the Campus Ministry funds were cut. He added that we are faced with fiscal responsibility. He favored the Ponder motion.

The question was called and sustained.

The Byrd substitute motion passed and became the main motion.

Langill Watson moved that the matter before us (2a., page 39) be tabled until such time as the matter can be presented to the Council on Finance and Administration and explained in financial detail. It was seconded by Troy J. Barrett. It lost.

Section IV through 2a. was adopted.

Section V was adopted with changes as noted: Part 3, Board of Trustees, Methodist Home for Children, 1976, Francis Bradshaw replaces J. Kern Ormond; 1977, Brooks Patten replaces Mrs. L.H. Erdman.

Methodist Home for Children: Worth Lineberger brought words of appreciation and greetings from The Methodist Home for Children. He said the Home would have a deficit of approximately $35,000 at the end of September of this year.

Methodist Retirement Home: Joe Coble brought the report of The Methodist Retirement Home.

Dr. Fred Brooks, Jr. presented the following resolution:

RESOLUTION ON THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE METHODIST RETIREMENT HOME

Be it resolved by the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church,

1. That the Conference direct the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Retirement Home Incorporated to amend its Bylaws so as to add to the ex-officio members of the Board an additional 3 ex-officio members elected by and from the residents of the Home, to serve without vote.
2. That the Conference recommend to the Trustees that this be implemented by electing one resident each year for a three-year term, so that the full complement of 3 will be reached in 1975. Any vacancies occurring among those elected should also be filled.

This resolution contains amendments to the original resolution which was submitted at the Tuesday afternoon session. Dr. Brooks explained that residents of the Home, if serving on the Board of Trustees of The Retirement Home, would cause a change in the tax benefits of the Home. However, residents can serve ex-officio.

The amendments were accepted. The Conference was then on the original motion.

Mrs. Pauline McCaskill spoke in favor of the resolution. The resolution was adopted.

Equitable Salaries: Walter McDonald brought the new report on Equitable Salaries:

EQUITABLE SALARIES—New Report:

I.	1974	1973
A. Full-time Conference and Associate Conference Members		7/12
One or more dependent children	$7600.	$4433.
Married	7400.	4316.
B. Full-time Lay Pastors
One or more dependent children	7000.	4083.
Married	6800.	3967.
C. Student
One or more dependent children	6000.	3500.
Married	5800.	3383.
Single	5600.	3267.

Travel — see page 28 as added to.

It was seconded.

Dr. Eric Krohne asked if student pastors' salaries were changed by the new report and the answer given was that their salaries were not changed from the original recommendations.

Horace Garriss said students had scholarship funds available to them not available to other full-time categories.

Dr. Eric Krohne asked the committee to redistribute its allocations.

Rufus Stark moved a substitute motion to add one dollar to every item in the new report which makes the report a different report and thus expands discussion of the matter. It was seconded.

Charles Mercer spoke against the substitute report offered by Rufus Stark.

J.B. Helms, Jr. said he favored a difference between salaries of lay pastors and full Conference members. He supported the Stark substitute motion.

Andrew Henry spoke against the Stark substitute.

Charles Davis spoke for the Stark substitute.

The question was called and sustained.

The Stark substitute lost.

James Coile spoke in favor of the new report as a good compromise.

Paul Bunn, vice-chairperson of the Equitable Salaries commission, defended the report.

The report carried.

Dr. Eric Krohne made the following motion:

"Whereas this session of the North Carolina Annual Conference has considered the 'Mitchell Amendment' (for equitable salaries); and Whereas that amendment can be seen as a threat to the attainment of professional excellence by the ministers of the North Carolina Annual Conference; and Whereas such a threat cannot be seen to be in the best interest of our Conference, I hereby move that this session of our Annual Conference recognize that all persons aspiring to the full-time ministry of The United Methodist Church need to successfully complete (at least) the standard curriculum of a recognized and approved seminary (such completion to be signified by receipt of a B.D. degree or its academic equivalent); and that it consider requiring that all such persons who have not yet completed these studies involve themselves immediately in either 1) such a seminary curriculum, or 2) in the recognized and approved course of study which—historically—has led to full membership in our Conference; and that until this level has been achieved, these persons shall be considered students—with salaries commensurate with that category; and be it further resolved that this motion be referred to the Division of Ministry for their study and consideration with a report of their findings to be submitted to the next session of the North Carolina Annual Conference." It was seconded.

Rufus Stark made a substitute that we refer the Krohne motion to the Division of The Ministry without prejudice. The Conference so ordered.

The full report as amended was moved and adopted.

The session was adjourned by Bishop Blackburn.

FOURTH DAY, MORNING SESSION

Thursday, June 7, 1973

Love Feast: Beginning at 9:00 a.m. the traditional Love Feast was observed with M.W. Lawrence and Leon Russell presiding. They were assisted by E.R. Shuller, Grady Dawson, A.E. Brown, Bill Crowe, D.W. Charlton, and C.J. Andrews.

Conference Convened: Bishop Blackburn called the Conference to order.

Committee on Minutes: Horace Garris reported that the minutes of the Annual Conference had been corrected and typed, through the Wednesday afternoon session. He moved their adoption. They were adopted.

Committee on District Conference Records: Lawrence Lugar said that records of 11 of the 12 districts have been examined and approved. The report was adopted.

Committee on Entertainment: Dr. Thomas Collins brought the report of the Conference Committee on Entertainment.

Dr. Stacy Weaver extended the invitation to the Conference to meet at Methodist College next year. The invitation was accepted by the Conference.

Dr. Collins presented the following report of the Committee:

North Carolina Annual Conference Entertainment Committee

"We express our deep sense of appreciation to Methodist College for serving so acceptably as our host again for our Annual Conference session.

Pursuant to the responsibilities assigned to this Committee we offer the following recommendations for adoption by the Annual Conference:

1. It is recommended that Annual Conference be held at Methodist College and N.C. Wesleyan College on alternating years (held at Methodist College until Wesleyan has an auditorium) except at such times that a local church wishes to host Annual Conference as a part of a special celebration in the life of that church.
2. It is recommended that the cabinet designate a district each year on a rotating basis as the host district which will be responsible for music, ushers, registrars and other related items.
3. (a) It is recommended that beginning in 1974 each charge underwrite the food and lodge expense of its lay delegate(s) and clerical member(s) to annual conference.

(b) It is further recommended that where hardships are occasioned by this recommendation that the Conference Committee on Entertainment, on the recommendation of the district superintendent, seek financial arrangements for those delegates and members.

If these recommendations are accepted by the Council on Finance and Administration, the Cabinet and the 1973 session of the N.C. Conference, the implementation procedure will have to be worked out. Two ideas were put forth in this meeting. (1) The cost of meals and campus lodging should be included in the letter of invitation to the 1974 Annual Conference, (2) the first 620 people requesting campus housing will be accommodated in the dormitories; all others will be responsible for securing their own lodging. If campus housing is requested, it will be for the entire conference."

Walter Feltman moved the following: "I recommend that the recommendation of the Entertainment Committee be tabled and a new committee be appointed to present a new approach to the problem." Bill Wells seconded the motion. The question was called and sustained. The motion lost.

Milton Mann moved that the word "music" of point 2 of the report be deleted. It was seconded. The question was called and sustained. The amendment lost.

Bill Wells moved that item 3 be deleted from the report. It was seconded.

Marvin Vick spoke against the Wells motion.

The question was called and sustained.

The motion carried.

Willie Teague offered as a substitute for section 3(a): "It is recommended that, beginning in 1974, each charge which has a budget in excess of $25,000 underwrite the food and lodging expense of its lay delegate(s) and clerical member(s) to Annual Conference." The question was called and sustained. The motion lost.

The committee report was moved. The motion was called and sustained. The report, as amended, carried.

Questions 39, 41, 44: John Cline brought questions 39, 41 and 44 to the Conference. They were approved. (See Condensed Minutes). John Cline commented that Question 43 could not be answered this year and recommended that it be referred to a special committee composed of the Secretary of the Cabinet, Chairperson of the Division of Ministries, Chairperson of the Board of Pensions, Director of the Conference Council on Ministries, and the Conference Secretary. It was so ordered without discussion.

Board of Pensions: Norwood Jones brought the report of the Board of Pensions. (Pages 46-47, Book of Recommendations.)

Report I, section A was approved. Section B was approved. Section C, 1-5 was approved (6-7 were dropped by the Board and did not have to be voted upon).

Report No. I was approved as a whole.

Report No. II was approved as a whole.

Report No. III was approved as a whole.

Report No. IV was approved as a whole.

Mr. Jones brought the matter of Special Appointments to the Conference. It was approved, referring to a mimeographed supplement and the previous remarks of John M. Cline and the Conference Secretary. He moved the adoption of the entire report. It was adopted.

Insurance Committee: Mr. Jones brought the Insurance Committee Report, page 40, Book of Recommendations. He added this recommendation:

We recommend that, for those persons who are under age 65, and whose Blue Cross Blue Shield Hospital Insurance premiums are paid for by The Board of Pensions, that their benefits be increased to coincide with the benefits of the active ministers group.

The changes are:

1. Change from the Extended Benefit Coverages to Major Medical Benefit.
2. Change the room allowance from $32.00 per day, to pay for full coverage of a semi-private room, or an equivalent amount for a private room.

This recommendation, the Group Term Life Insurance Plan, and the Blue Cross Blue Shield Hospital Insurance, page 40, were approved. The section titled "Miscellaneous" page 41, Book of Recommendations was approved.

The entire Insurance Committee report was adopted.

Retired Ministers Recognized: Norwood Jones led the ceremony for the ministers who are retiring. (See Condensed Minutes, Questions 45-47).

Resolution: Tommy Faggart offered this resolution:

Whereas the Conference's budget cannot be logically crystalized until all areas of the church have given their reports—let the report of the Council on Finance and Administration be received after all committees having claims upon the budget have presented their reports to the conference.

James Coile, speaking for the committee, said the Committee on Conference Rules would accept the resolution.

Special Study Committee: William K. Quick of the Special Study Committee gave a report on the job descriptions of the positions of the Conference Secretary and Statistician. The report was adopted. (See Reports).

Conference Statistician: D.D. Traynham gave the report of the Conference Statistician. It was moved by Langill Watson and seconded that the figures be received without reading. This was done.

Resolutions and References: The Committee on Resolutions and References report was brought by Herman Winberry. It was adopted. (See Resolutions).

Moving Day: Charles Mercer made a report as secretary of the Cabinet. He moved that moving day be Thursday, June 14, 1973. He reminded the ministers who are being transferred that they will be responsible for the coming Sunday's service in their new appointments.

Nominations: Mr. Mercer presented the report which gave answer to questions 16, 17, 48, and 54, and made nominations to various Boards and Agencies. The report was adopted.

Registration: Ray Gooch brought a report on Conference registration. It was submitted as information. There are 678 clerical and 458 lay delegates officially registered, making a total registration of 1136.

Committee on Pastoral Care: Report of the Committee on Pastoral Care was brought by Bill Sherman. The report was adopted. (See Reports).

Commission on Archives and History: Frank Grill brought the report of the Commission on Archives and History. J.D. Jones also spoke to the report. The report was adopted.

Committee on Communications: John Hobbs made a statement concerning the work of the committee on communications.

Committee on Interpretation: Reginald Ponder made the report of the Committee on Interpretation as information only.

Committee on Church Architecture: Kelly Wilson, Jr. brought the report of the Committee on Church Architecture. The report was adopted.

Methodist Information: William K. Quick brought a report as Director of Methodist Information. The report was received by voice vote.

Recognition: William K. Quick also offered a resolution of thanks for the work of N.W. Grant as the first Director of the North Carolina Conference Council on Ministries. The resolution was adopted. (See Resolutions).

Methodist Ministers Credit Union: Maness Mitchell brought the report of the Methodist Ministers Credit Union. It was submitted for information.

Financial Statement: Mr. Charles McAdams brought a final statement on finances.

Committee on Investigation: Kimsey King moved that N.L. Jones as chairperson and J.K. Ormond as vice-chairperson be officially elected as leaders of the Committee on Investigation. It was seconded and adopted. As Conference Secretary, he called all further questions of conference business and moved adoption of the Book of Recommendations, as amended, in its entirety. The Conference so ordered.

Minutes Approved: Horace Garriss reported that the Conference minutes through 10:00 a.m. had been corrected and typed and moved their adoption. They were adopted. Garriss also moved that Conference approval be given in advance for the remainder of the minutes through the reading of the appointments and the benediction subject to his approval. It was granted.

Reading of Appointments: Bishop Blackburn read the appointments for the Conference Year 1973-74.

Closing: The hymn, "God Be With You 'Till We Meet Again," was sung.

Benediction: The benediction was given by Bishop Robert M. Blackburn, bringing to a close the 1973 North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church.

BENJAMIN OWSLEY MERRITT 1884-1972

Brother Benjamin O. Merritt ended his earthly ministry to God's people in joyous acclamation of the Scriptures. Leading a Bible discussion group in First Church, Cary, on the Sunday before his death, "Brother Ben" as he was affectionally know, lifted up the words of Paul as recorded in the 27th Chapter of the Book of Acts—the chapter under consideration—and declared them to be, as it was for Paul, the basis and strength of his ministry, "For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve." Brother Ben died four days later, September 7, at Rex Hospital in Raleigh.

It was in this spirit and faith that Brother Ben Merritt entered the ministry of the Methodist Church in 1917, when he was admitted into the Conference at Greenville and began an active pastorate of nearly forty years. It was in such a faith and spirit that he served his people on the Rougemont Circuit, Orange Circuit, Milton Circuit, Ingold Circuit, Chadburn, Mt. Tirza, North Gates, Ahoskie, Tar River, Graham-West Burlington, Snow Hill, Robbins, Hertford, Cary and Bailey. Following retirement in 1957, Brother Ben and Mrs. Ethel returned to Cary where he continued to serve as an associate and spiritual leader, exemplifying again and again his simple faith in "the God whose I am, and whom I serve."

Such a faith had its beginning for Brother Ben through godly parents, a Christian home, and the nurture of a small rural church. Born on October 29, 1884 to James Benjamin Merritt and Lyneous Rackly Merritt, he spent all of his childhood and youth in the Sampson Country area between Clinton and Ingold. The Epworth Church, on the Clinton Circuit, was his early church home and contributed much to his final decision to enter the ministry, a contribution Brother Ben never forgot and mentioned again and again throughout his ministry. It was here that he came to know "the God whose I am, and whom I serve."

Following the completion of high school at Clinton, Brother Ben worked in his native area for a short while before finally answering the call to the ministry. He prepared himself for the ministry at Trinity College and Emory. He was ordained Deacon in 1919 and Elder in 1921.

It was while serving in Chadburn that he met Miss Ethel Goodyear, a native of South Carolina who was teaching school in Chadburn, and married her on November 11, 1922. To this marriage of almost fifty years two sons were born, Wilbur G. Merritt of Rocky Mount and Benjamin O. Merritt, Jr., of Fayetteville. These, along with four grand-children, provided Brother Ben a great source of joy, inspiration, and happiness throughout his years and a constant source of encouragement and strength in his ministry. His and Mrs. Ethel's parsonage homes were marked by this same faith and spirit—"the God whose I am, and whom I serve."

Brother Merritt was noted for his great knowledge and love of the Scriptures and the evangelistic fervor and spirit of his preaching. He was in constant demand as a revival speaker during his entire ministry. In recent years, his knowledge of the Scriptures made him in much demand as a teacher and leader of Bible Study classes and groups. And even though he had periods of bad health through many of his retirement years, he was again and again renewed unto usefulness by "the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve."

It was in this triumphant faith and spirit that funeral services were conducted for him on Saturday, September 9th at the First United Methodist Church in Cary by Reverend Jack W. Page, Raleigh District Superintendent, the Reverend Wade Goldston, long-time associate and friend, and the Reverend James G. White, minister. It was in the words of Charles Wesley that he was laid to rest from his labors at Raleigh Memorial Park:

"Servant to God, well done!
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last."

—James G. White, Jr.

MORRIS LYMAN HUSTED

Morris Lyman Husted was born in Tarrytown, New York, July 21, 1898. He died November 11, 1972.

His higher education was received at West Virginia Wesleyan College, Washington and Jefferson College, The University of Pittsburgh and Western Theological Seminary.

When he was only fourteen years of age, he knelt at the altar of his home church and dedicated his life "to full-time Christian service." Six years later he became pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Church, Athens, New York.

On January 10, 1924 the young pastor returned to this church and married Catherine June, who shared fully and faithfully in his ministry.

For thirty years he served in the New York and Pennsylvania Conferences. In 1943 he enlisted in the Military Service and was assigned as a Chaplain in the United States Army Air Force, where he served for more than three years.

In 1953 he transferred to the North Carolina Conference where he held the following Pastorates: City Road, Henderson; St. John's Durham; Trinity, Rockingham; and Stedman. He retired in 1962. After retirement he served as Associate Pastor of Duke Memorial Methodist Church in Durham until October, 1972. In December 1968 he celebrated a golden anniversary of service as a Methodist Minister.

For ten consecutive years he sang "How Great Thou Art" at the close of the North Carolina Annual Conference. He was a gifted preacher. He loved people, lived fully, and laughed often. His youthful enthusiasm, buoyant optimism and winsome manner endeared him to all. Even in his long illness of fifteen months' duration, he fought bravely and cheerfully. He never lost his faith or hope. At the time of his death he was Pastor Emeritus of Duke Memorial United Methodist Church. His funeral service was conducted at Duke Memorial Church, Durham on November 11, 1972, by the Reverend Charles Spence Hubbard. Interment was in Raleigh Memorial Park.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Catherine June Husted, one daughter, Mrs. David E. Van Fleet, Durham, and three sons, Eston A. Husted, Rockester, Minnesota; Wayne D. Husted, San Francisco, California; and Ronald E. Husted, Poughkeepsie, N.Y.

At the end of his memoirs, this stanza from the pen of Charles Wesley seems appropriate:

"Servant of God, well done!
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last."

—Warren B. Petteway

BISHOP PAUL NEFF GARBER
1899-1972

Paul Neff Garber was born at New Market, Virginia, July 27, 1899, the son of Samuel and Alice (Neff) Garber. He received the A.B. degree from Bridgewater College, Virginia, the L.A. and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Pennsylvania, and did post graduate work at Crozer Theological Seminary. Also, he received many honorary degrees from various educational institutions. For a total of five years, he was an instructor of history at the University of Pennsylvania, Brown University, and an assistant professor of history at Duke University.

He married Orina Winifred Kidd, August 21, 1927, who died July 18, 1959. On April 27, 1963, he married Nina Fontana of Geneva, Switzerland, who survives. Other survivors are a sister, Mrs. Willie Hite, Timberville, Virginia, three neices, and two nephews.

He died in a Geneva, Switzerland, hospital on December 19, 1972, following surgery. A funeral service was held in the Cremation Chapel of Geneva at 11:30 a.m., December 22. The Rev. Mr. Hauzenberger, pastor of the United Methodist Church of Geneva, conducted the service, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Gebhart and the Rev. Dr. Sherlock. A memorial service was held in Edenton Street United Methodist Church, Raleigh, North Carolina, December 22, 11:00 a.m., with Bishop Robert M. Blackburn, Raleigh Area, presiding. Eulogies were given by Bill Price for the laymen and Chancie D. Barclift for the clergy. Later, in a family service, his ashes were interred in the family lot in the Bridgewater, Va., cemetery, at 4:00 p.m., March 28, 1973.

He was ordained to the ministry in the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in 1926, and, when Duke University opened its School of Religion, in that same year, he became its first professor of church history. In 1928, he became its registrar and in 1941 its dean. It was from this deanship that he was elected a bishop in 1944.

He was assigned to the Geneva Area, made up of ten countries in Europe and North Africa. In spite of the war conditions there, he went immediately to begin his work. He served this area until February 1951, when, upon the failing health of Bishop Walter W. Peele, he was assigned to the Richmond Area, of which the North Carolina Conference was a part. In 1964 he was assigned to the newly created Raleigh Area. Thus, he presided over the North Carolina Conference from February 1951 to July 1968. During that period he held eighteen regular sessions of the conference and several special sessions.

The phrases "the Garber era" and "the miracle conference of American Methodism" are not misnomers but are quite appropriate for his tenure of leadership and service. Many statistics justify these epithets. The following data give full credence to same. The number of pastoral charges increased 88%; the church membership, 23%; and total money raised 152%. The Retirement Home in Durham and the Headquarters Building in Raleigh were built; several Camps across the conference were developed; and other advances, too numerous to detail, were made. In fact, he fully supported every area of the work of the Church but the two outstanding emphases of his leadership were Christian Higher Education and Church Extension. He gave encouragement and guidance to the establishment of two new colleges, Methodist College in Fayetteville and North Carolina Wesleyan College in Rocky Mount, and to the expansion of historic Louisburg College in Louisburg. Approximately eighty new churches were organized during his administration. Not all of these churches have grown as expectation projected, but most of them are on a solid growth basis and many of them are now strong churches. Doubtless, it would be well within the bounds of truth to say that no bishop in modern Methodism officiated at more ceremonies for ground breaking, cornerstone laying, consecration and dedication of church buildings, than did Bishop Garber while presiding over the Richmond and Raleigh Areas.

Following retirement in 1968, he returned to Geneva, under the assignment of the Council of Bishops, to write the history of European Methodism, and at the time of his death it lacked but a year's work. He was an eminent church historian, who not only studied and taught the history of the church in all of its details and drama, but, what is more important, through his love of the church and his labors in it, he made church history by adding to her long line of splendor many chapters rich in achievements and abounding in kingdom fruits.

He had a positive outlook on life and preached and practiced contagious optimism and hopefulness. He often quoted the late Dr. William Preston Few, a long time president of Trinity College and Duke University, as saying, "If one has a good cause, somebody will help him." History validates the truth of this dictum.

He had a strong body and his energy seemed unlimited. He scarcely ever had a physical ailment. Great was his stamina for work and, like John Wesley, he and leisure parted company early in life. He had a spartan discipline for mental and physical toil. On the rare occasions that he had to miss an appointment, because of some indisposition, he was greatly embarrassed and apologetic.

Of a humble spirit, he was readily accessible and approachable. All felt at ease in his presence. When preachers and laymen talked to him about appointments, they left the meeting, feeling that their desires and requests would be granted, if he could possibly do so. Just to talk to him reduced anxieties and inspired confidence. He was unusually patient and had a large measure of kindness. He tempered justice with mercy and compassion. He was always sensitive to the needs of others. He was uncommonly generous in giving of his finances to needy individuals and good causes, even to the extent of denying himself.

He loved people and found much pleasure in being and working with them. In fact, most of the illustrations in his sermons had to do with persons he had known and with whom he had worked in many parts of the world. He was beloved by ministers and laymen alike for his brotherly spirit and his unfailing graciousness. His indefatigable labors inspired others to a more faithful and constant discipleship. His usual salutation to a congregation was "my dear brothers and sisters." This was more than a polite customary greeting. It came natural to him to say it, for he had a firm conviction that brotherhood must be experienced and that the primary need of the world is for redemptive love to be practiced in all the relationships of life. He exemplified John Wesley's example of "a warm heart and a trained mind." It is doubtful that past generations have produced many persons who excelled Paul Neff Garber in full outflowing of spirit and complete commitment to eternal causes. To a large degree, it can also be said of him that "The color of the ground was in him, the red earth;

The smack and tang of elemental things."

His life span of seventy-three years took him from the rich soil of the valley of Virginia to the towering peaks of the majestic Swiss Alps. In his home-going there has been left in the lives of countless thousands "a lonesome place against the sky."

His love for his Saviour was genuinely expressed in words and deeds. He lived in the contemplation of the immensities of the greatness of God. Now, that his choice spirit has been released from its tenement of clay, he doubtless knows more fully the meaning of the affirmation of the refrain of one of his favorite hymns,

"Then sings my soul, my Saviour God to thee;
How great thou art, how great thou art!"

If we would see his monument in the North Carolina Conference, we need only to look around us and across the conference at the accomplishments of his dedicated labors among us. He lives in the hearts and minds of the more than two-hundred-thousand laymen in whose memories love and gratitude are enshrined.

"God calls our loved ones,
But we lose not wholly
What He hath given;
They live on earth
In thought and deed
As truly as in His heaven."

ZEBULON VANCE COWAN 1905 – 1973

Zebulon Vance Cowan, son of William E. and Ida Cavanaugh Cowan, was born in Swansboro, Onslow County, North Carolina, November 28, 1905. He passed away on January 10, 1973 at Route 1, Trenton, North Carolina. Burial was in Westview Cemetery, Kinston, North Carolina.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Dorothy Hugins Cowan; a daughter, Mrs. Ray (Daphnie) Taylor of Route 3, Wake Forest, North Carolina; a son, Stanley Cowan, Route 5, Wetumpka, Alabama; one sister, Mrs. Robert Eakins of Burgaw, three brothers, Paul of Watha, Thomas and Allen Cowan of Burgaw; eight grandchildren. The funeral service was conducted from Howard and Carter Funeral Chapel, in Kinston, North Carolina, January 12, 1973, by the Reverend Robert Rattz and the Reverend John D. Long.

Brother Cowan entered the Methodist Ministry in 1942 and was appointed to Carver's Creek. Other appointments following were: City Road – White Memorial, Henderson; Pasquotank, Littleton Circuit, Clark Street, Rocky Mount; Milton, Goldston and Shady Grove. He retired in 1965 due to failing health.

Brother Cowan possessed many excellent qualities. One, he was a giant in faith, faith in God and in people; a giant in love, love for God, the church and humanity; a giant in listening and understanding when someone was in trouble. The Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi so beautifully pictures the life of Brother Cowan:

"Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace.
Where there is hatred, let me show love.
Where there is injury, pardon.
Where there is doubt, faith.
Where there is despair, hope.
Where there is darkness, light.
Where there is sadness, joy.
O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek
To be consoled as to console,
To be understood, as to understand,
To be loved, as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive;
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
And it is in dying, that we are born to eternal life."

—John D. Long.

CHARLES EDWARD VALE

Charles Edward Vale, Jr., born in Wilmington, North Carolina, July 25, 1908, knew early the poignance of the spiritual "Sometimes I Feel Like a Motherless Child," for he lost both his father, The Rev. Charles Edward Vale, and his mother, Hattie Lewis Vale, before the age of ten. His father's family had come from England to Rhode Island; his mother grew up in Vermont.

They met and married in North Carolina, where his father worked as a photographer for several years before his admission to the North Carolina Methodist Conference. His father sang in the first conference quartet. Although they were as family for only a few years, his father's fine singing voice and artistic skill as a photographer, his mother's love of music, her intellectual self-discipline as a teacher, and the strong religious values they both shared were to be their son's true heritage as long as he lived.

They were conscientious parents, but never stern. Pictures survive of an enormous sand castle which his father built him at Trenton, and his waking and sleeping in their gentle household were frequently accompanied by classical music. After his father's premature and sudden death, he took care of his invalid mother until her death, drawing upon her tremendous spiritual reserves in this time of hardship. Orphaned so young, and with not one relative nearby to share his grief, he won through to a spiritual acceptance and understanding of death which few attain until late in life. It is typical of him that the intensely personal meaning of "Sometimes I Feel Like a Motherless Child" became in his sermons transformed into the universal and deeply felt yearning for God, for a spiritual home.

Written on the pages of many of his sermons like a motto are the words, "Seek ye the Lord while He may be found; call ye upon Him while He is near." He answered the question of Psalms 42:3, "Where is thy God?," in this manner:

God is a spirit. But Spirit is personality without the hindrance of a body to make it earthbound and spacebound. Rather it is life let loose. God as an infinite spirit is a personality that is everywhere. He is personality in the highest possible degree. Hence He is loving, intelligent, active Spirit.

For Charles E. Vale life was a whole; the intellect, the emotions, and the soul could not be divided. The sermons which he loved to write and to deliver bring together literature, the history of civilization, theology, the experience of daily living, and above all the struggles and inquiries and deep needs of the individual soul.

He was reared after his parents' death in the home of The Rev. A.J. Parker, also a member of the North Carolina Methodist Conference. He attended Randolph-Macon Academy, Weaver College, 1927-1929; and Duke University (then Trinity College) and the Duke Divinity School, 1929-1933. He sang in the Glee Clubs of both colleges. Though he had a fine tenor voice, and loved to sing, he was called to preach. He was admitted to the North Carolina Methodist Conference in 1933, ordained a deacon in 1935, and ordained an elder in 1937. He served Dunn, 1933-1934; South Camden, 1934-1936; and Murfreesboro, 1936-1942. A circle at Murfreesboro bears his name, and in Murfreesboro in 1942 he married Etolia Stribling, originally from Spartanburg, South Carolina, who was then teaching English literature at Chowan College. While they served Zebulon-Wendell, from 1942-1946, Kathryn Vale was born in 1943. He served Hookerton, 1946-1948; and Chadbourn, 1948-1953, literally following in his father's footsteps, for his father had served this charge before him. He served Rose Hill, 1953-1957; Duke's Chapel in Durham, 1957-1959; Norlina, 1959-1961; Beech Grove, 1961-1962; and Goldston, 1962-1966. He was a Mason and an active member of the Rotary Club, and took an active interest in scouting. He retired in 1966.

He left this life on January 30, 1973. His funeral service was held at Jonesboro United Methodist Church, at 11:00, on February 1, 1973. The memorial tribute was delivered by The Rev. Virgil E. Queen. Assisting in the service were The Rev. Clingan Capps, pastor; The Rev. James McCallum, Superintendent of the Sanford District; and The Rev. W. Stanley Potter. The Rev. Reginald Ponder accompanied the family. The interment service was held at Friendship Baptist Church in Spartanburg, South Carolina.

He loved life, loved plans and dreams. His last years were filled with a spirit of joy; joy in the birds outside his window, in animals and plants, in his grandchildren and new friends, and in his interest in Indian archaeology. Cared for and comforted by his wife, he bore his long illness with great patience and always in a spirit of hope. In his sermon on immortality, preached before the conference in 1956, he quoted the words of a song he loved well, "I tell you, they have not died. Their hands clasp yours and mine." With one hand he would reach for the past, to preserve its true values, and to meet the hands which reached toward him there; with the other he would reach for the future, for he loved learning and discovery, he loved questions and teaching and searching better than certainties.

He never thought of death as ending anything. In this spirit of hope he continued to plan and dream. In his last period of illness and confinement he busied himself with sketches of a boat. Though he knew he could never go on actual waters, the plan bore him through days of pain toward the completion and fulfillment in which he believed. He knew that we must build before we can voyage; that we must voyage in order to find what we build completed. Among his last words to his wife were, "make sure we build it right." We must believe that He will.

—Kathryn Vale Livermore

ISAAC SHIRLEY RICHMOND

Isaac Shirley Richmond was one of those persons who lived and labored so quietly and modestly that his true greatness was obvious only to those who knew him well. His was a self-effacing greatness, like the child of whom Jesus spoke when He was asked by His disciples, "Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?" To which He replied: "Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven."

It was my joy to know Brother Richmond long and intimately. We often preached together, prayed together, and shared together our deep spiritual needs and aspirations. Once when I revealed to him my struggle with fears, he gladly told me of how he had found a deeper triumphant faith in reading the devotional book by Dr. E. Stanley Jones, "Abundant Living." Such a witness inspired me and gave me renewed faith and confidence.

When I was honored by being asked to have a part in Brother "Ike's" funeral, I chose as a text the words of Genesis 5:24: "And Enoch walked with God; and he was not, for God took him." Ike's walk with God began in "a heart strangely warmed," continued in simple faith, joyous gratitude, humble service, and royal love. Although he suffered much during some of the years of his life, he ended his walk with God here on earth in a quiet and blessed peace. Now we are confident that he reigns in eternal happiness with the redeemed of the Lord.

Brother Richmond was born in Martin County, Kentucky, the child of Lewis C. and Arminta Crum Richmond, June 11, 1896. He later came to North Carolina and graduated from Trinity College in 1918. He also attended Yale University Divinity School, graduating there in 1926. He married Nannie Mack Brown and from this loving union were born a son, Robert, who died in 1953, and a daughter Elda, who is now Mrs. Elda K. Edwards of Virginia. Mrs. Richmond died in 1956, and three years later Ike married Ida Myrtle Geddie, who is still living in Kinston, N.C. and who watched over him with unusual tender love and care during his latter years of sickness until death.

The first pastoral appointment Brother Richmond served was in Kermit, West Virginia. He then came to the North Carolina Annual Conference, where he served as pastor with distinction over a long span of years. Among his North Carolina Conference appointments were Lake Landing, Oxford Circuit, Grifton (with Edwards Chapel and Sharon), Erwin-Angier, Webb Avenue in Burlington (which he served for nine years), City Road Church in Elizabeth City, and Hertford. After officially retiring, he served as Visiting Minister for Queen Street Church in Kinston for the years of 1958-1962.

Death came quietly and peacefully to Brother Richmond in Kinston on January 31, 1973. A fitting memorial service was conducted in the Queen Street United Methodist Church by the pastor of that Church, Brother Harold Franklin Leatherman, assisted by the writer of this memoir. His body was tenderly laid to rest in the Community Cemetery of Pinetops, N.C.

There is no finer way to conclude this memorial than to quote the words of Brother Offie Hathaway, a dear friend to Brother Richmond. He said to me on the day of Brother Richmond's funeral: "I never knew a better man than he."

"For all the saints, who from their labors rest,
Who Thee by faith before the world confessed,
Thy Name, O Jesus, be forever blest.

WILLIAM GRAHAM LOWE 1887 – 1973

William Graham Lowe was born in Windsor, North Carolina on December 20, 1887. Following several years of declining health while a resident of The Methodist Retirement Home, Brother Lowe passed into the "Lilly Land of Tomorrow" on March 23, 1973.

Funeral services were conducted by the Reverend Dr. Joseph Coble of the Retirement Home and Reverend James McCall, Pastor of the Aurora Appointment. Brother Lowe was buried in the Aurora Methodist Church Cemetery beside his wife, Elva, who preceeded him in death just one year and four months.

Billy Lowe was ordained a minister in 1914 and received his first appointment in The Methodist Church while still in the uniform of the United States Army, having served as an Army Chaplain during World War I. He graduated from Duke University (Trinity), Durham, North Carolina.

On December 28, 1920, Billy was married to Elva Strickland and they lived together and served God until they were separated by her death on January 9, 1972. Our Heavenly Father blessed this lovely couple with three children, two by birth and one by adoption. The children's names are: Jane Blair Hollowell of Holly Ridge and Elizabeth Ann Faulkner of Annandale, Florida. The adopted son is Thomas Edward Lowe of Aurora.

This faithful man of God and his family served the Master and The Methodist Church for thirty-nine years as an active traveling minister and parsonage family.

Billy Lowe was thankful for every appointment he ever received and felt that he was never worthy of the privilege to serve. He sought that "perfection" in his personal life that he vowed he would seek after on his day of ordination.

The Lowes served Henderson, Battleboro, Whitaker, Plymouth, Aurora, Swan Quarter, Winfall, Trenton, Shallote, Council, Pink Hill, Scott Hill, and Oriental.

It was the writer's personal privilege to have been closely associated with Mr. Lowe during my first four years, as his minister. He was a good man, a devoted husband and father, an honorable citizen of the community, a true and faithful friend to everyone, and a shining example of a Christian.

I am sure that those communities and congregations where he served are better and stronger because W. G. Lowe was their pastor and lived among them. He not only loved Jesus and tried to preach the Word, but he lived the Christian life as he felt led by the Lord. His firm conviction was "the spirit of the Word 'and' the only thing to do with an enemy was to make a friend of him."

Because of declining health, Brother Lowe lived his last years in the care of our Retirement Home with friends he had known in years gone by. His life was a blessing to all who knew him. On March 23, 1973, the Master called and Billy Lowe departed this earth to be with his Lord.

GEORGE HART TYSON, SR. 1924-1973

George Hart Tyson, Sr., was born in Pitt County, North Carolina, August 17, 1924, of humble but distinguished parents, the late Reverend and Mrs. Jack Tyson. After completing high school in Pikeville, he graduated from Duke University with an A.B. degree, and then in 1955 from the Duke University Divinity School with a B.D. degree. He served in the United States Armed Forces during a part of the period of World War II. On March 27, 1949, he was married to Julia Kimball Fisher of New Bern.

George grew up within the Free-Will Baptist Church but followed his father and mother into The Methodist Church. He was admitted as a probationary member of the North Carolina Annual Conference at Burlington in 1952, was ordained a deacon in 1953 and an elder in 1955. His first appointment was as assistant pastor of the Yanceyville Charge. Thereafter he served as pastor of the following Charges: Clinton-Circuit; Glenwood-Trinity, Rockingham; Pine Forest; Bailey; Lake Waccamaw; and Edgerton Memorial, Selma. Wherever he served, he was deeply loved and appreciated for the Christlike man he was and for the remarkable gifts and graces he brought to the ministry.

Doctors diagnosed George as having a serious blood disease as early as 1965 but, thanks to medicine and prayer, death did not come to him until March 30, 1973. He died at the Duke Hospital early after midnight, following several months of suffering from acute leukemia. Funeral services were conducted from Edgerton Memorial United Methodist Church by his District Superintendent, Reverend Albert F. Fisher, and the pastor of St. Paul United Methodist Church of Rocky Mount, Reverend C. Wade Goldston. His body was laid to rest in the same cemetery where the bodies of his father and mother rest, the Westwood Cemetery, Carrboro, N.C. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Julia Kimball Tyson; three sons, George Hart, Jr., Marvin Earl, John Horton; one daughter, Katherine Kimball; one sister, Mrs. Joel Hackney; and five brothers, all of whom are also Methodist ministers: The Reverends Dewey Tyson, Roanoke Rapids; Tommy Tyson, Goldsboro; Earl Tyson, Scottsville, Virginia; Vernon Tyson, Wilmington; and Bobby Tyson, Elizabeth City.

Although George was only 48 years of age at his death, he lived a full, abundant life. Quantity of time was denied him but not quality of life. His was a gentle spirit, a loving heart, and a scholarly mind, the latter being attested to by his remarkable library. He was in great demand as an evangelist, but he excelled especially as a pastor-preacher. He was a good shepherd, a humble servant, and he preached the unsearchable riches of Christ Jesus with penetrating insight, lively enthusiasm, and in the power and demonstration of the Holy Spirit. Consequently, his congregations, responding lovingly to his good example and leadership, were built up in faith, hope, and love.

It was my good fortune to know George as I have known few men. We shared together our struggles and our victories, our fears and our hopes, our experiences and our theology. Although 14 years his senior, my soul was knit to his, even as Jonathan's was knit to David's. What our Lord said of Nathanael, I could say of George, that he was a person in whom was no guile. His large host of friends would also say the same, and even much more. Words simply cannot describe the love we who knew him had for him, nor the great debt of gratitude we owe him. He belongs among those of whom Jesus said: "If any one would be first, he must be last of all and servant of all."

Although George's early death leaves us all with heart-rending questions, we take consolation in the fact that he himself faced his end trusting in the good God whose he was and whom he served. He regretted greatly to leave his family which he loved so deeply, but his faith in God was strong and serene to the very last. So, encouraged by his example of confidence in His Saviour, we dare to say triumphantly with the Apostle Paul: "For now we see through a glass darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known." We also echo the words of the song-writer, Frank L. Hosmer:

"We cannot think of them as dead who walk with us no more
Along this path of life we tread; they have but gone before.
The Father's house is mansioned fair; beyond our vision dim
All souls are His and here or there, are living unto Him.
And still their silent ministries within our heart have place,
As on earth they walked with us and met us face to face.
Ours are they by an ownership not time nor death can free;
For God has given to love to keep its own eternally."

—C. Wade Goldston

MRS. MARGARET ROBERTSON DIMMETTE
1893-1972

Margaret Pauline Robertson Dimmette was, in the words of Proverbs 31:10(KJV) "a virtuous and worthy woman." She was born in Stokes County on April 1, 1893, the daughter of Powell Winston Robertson and Katie Cora Tilley. She was educated in public and private schools and taught in the public school before and after her marriage.

Margaret P. Robertson married the Reverend Joel Walter Dimmette on May 28, 1913. She was "a good wife . . . far more precious than jewels." Proverbs 31:10(RSV). Walter and Margaret had a mutual love for each other and trusted in the God they worshiped and their fellowman they served. She was a helpmate to him as teacher, musician, administrator and in countless other ways.

Margaret was not only a good wife, but a devoted mother and homemaker as well. "She looked well to the ways of her household, and did not eat the bread of idleness. Her children rose up, and called her blessed; her husband also, and he praised her." Proverbs 31:27, 28(KJV). From this love-match came five children and twelve grandchildren. Pattie, now Mrs. Inman U. Townsley, with her husband who was also a United Methodist missionary, spent twenty years in the Belgian Congo. The Reverend Mr. Townsley is now with the Board of Missions and they live in New York City. William A. Dimmette is deceased. Joel Powell Dimmette, an Engineer with Western Electric Company, lives in Greensboro, North Carolina. Dr. Robert M. Dimmette, a pathologist, is in San Diego, California. Dr. James E. Dimmette, a gynecologist, is practicing in Dallas, Texas. Devoted to their children, she and Walter made the necessary sacrifices to see each of their children through school and college. They cared for the physical, mental, social, emotional and spiritual needs of their off-spring. The four of the five now living are working and serving to lift mankind and to be lifted by their fellowman.

This virtuous woman was a good wife and a devoted mother because first of all her entire life was deeply rooted in God. "A woman who fears the Lord is to be praised." Proverbs 31:30(RSV). She was "saved by faith in Jesus Christ," as she put it. She sought and received the guidance of His Holy Spirit and passed this guidance on to the others on the charges and in the communities where they served. Margaret had inner spiritual resources that sustained her in her daily tasks and an outgoing interest that expressed itself in concern for others beyond the family circle.

Walter retired in 1957. He and Margaret bought a home in Cary, N.C. and lived there close to their friends the Rev. and Mrs. B.O. Merritt until Walter's death in 1966 (See 1967 JOURNAL, pages 162-3). While retired at Cary, N.C. she was active in the church and in teaching the Philathea Sunday School Class. She was a life member of the Women's Society of Christian Service. Margaret lived on for awhile in Cary before moving to the Methodist Retirement Home, Durham, N.C.

She died at the Methodist Retirement Home on June 4, 1972, the day before the North Carolina United Methodist Annual Conference convened in Durham. She had been in declining health for several years while a resident at the Methodist Retirement Home.

Funeral services were conducted at First United Methodist Church, Cary, by the Reverends James White, Pastor; Jack Page, Raleigh District Superintendent, Joseph Coble, Administrator of the Methodist Retirement Home and Troy J. Barrett, former Pastor and now Minister, Jarvis Memorial United Methodist Church, Greenville, N.C. Margaret was buried beside her husband in Greensboro, the Rev. Joseph Coble in charge. We believe their souls are with Him in that mansion.

John Greenleaf Whittier sums it up when he says:

The dear Lord's best interpreters
Are humble human souls;
The Gospel of a life like hers (or his)
Is more than books or scrolls.

—Troy J. Barrett

MRS. ELLENDER WILKS JONES
1891-1972

Martha Ellender (Ellie) Wilks was born and reared in Robertson County, Tennessee, in the towns of Cedar Hill and Springfield, the fourth of fifteen children born to Sarah Jane and John Lewis Wilks. Her birthdate was November 22, 1891. She was educated in the schools of the County and at Radnor and Boscobel Colleges in Nashville, Tennessee. She was interested in music from an early age and had training in piano, voice, and organ for many years.

She was teaching music and taking organ lessons at Ruskin Cave College near Dixon, Tennessee, when she met and married Horace Carroll Jones. They went to live in Atlanta where he pursued his education, including seminary at the Candler School of Theology. Ellie, too, took courses at Emory University and at Candler. During their years in Atlanta, two children were born: Martha Carroll (now Mrs. J.W. Allen) and Horace Creighton. Ellie found real joy in the rearing of her children. She showed her love through affection and discipline.

Horace held a number of pastorates in and around Atlanta, and later, in many other places. Wherever he was sent, throughout the years, Ellie was always active in the work, using her musical and other talents and training wherever it seemed appropriate. During the years of ministry, she continued teaching music: piano, voice and organ. She also taught in Sunday Schools and was active in the Women's Society of Christian Service. For several years she was Spiritual Life Chairman for District V of the W.S.C.S. The life of a minister's wife is never an easy one. There are many places she must fill, and there are things she must not do. Always she must be a servant—a servant of Christ and His people. The ministry of the Joneses was no exception. Their experiences were varied. Much of their service was in humble places where considerable sacrifice was required. Together they served with fidelity and effectiveness in these Conferences: North Georgia, Memphis, Holston and Western North Carolina.

Ellie died June 24, 1972 and was buried in Restlawn Memory Gardens in Raleigh, North Carolina. At the memorial service the Reverend Jack Page eulogized her in musical terms. In speaking of her humble and quiet manner of life, he said, "She was never a Wagner but always a Bach." The Reverend Clyde McCarver quoted from Sullivan's "Lost Chord," ending with:

It may be that Death's bright angel will speak in that chord again,

It may be that only in Heaven I shall hear that grand Amen.

At this point, he said, "Be still—(He waited several seconds and then added)—She has heard it."

—Gladys Wilks

1898-1972

Hortense Duncan Long was born July 31, 1898 at Hardware, Fluvanna County, Virginia. She was the second of three children born to Robert W. and Lucy John Duncan, and at the age of seven she moved to Pelham, North Carolina.

She completed most of her High School work at Danville High School in Danville, Virginia; she attended Blackstone College, and it was from this college in Blackstone, Virginia that she received the Associate in Arts Degree in 1918; she completed a course in music at Randolph Macon College in 1921. From Duke University she received her A.B. Degree in 1930 "with highest honors," having earned membership in Phi Beta Kappa. She was eager to better equip herself for service to her family and humanity and following this urge she completed a course in typing and shorthand at Weldon Business School. In 1953 she earned her Master's Degree from the University of North Carolina in Greensboro.

She was married to the Reverend J.O. Long, a member of the North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Church on June 21, 1921. To this union three children were born: John O. Long, Jr., the oldest child, lost his life in 1956 while serving as a test pilot in the United States Navy; Duncan Long, the second child, died in 1942 while a student at Duke University. Jeanette, the youngest child, is married to Paul S. Davenport, Jr. There are four grand-children.

Hortense Duncan Long was a serious student of the Bible, and she maintained a keen interest in Church History. She taught in the public schools of North Carolina for many years; her teaching career began in Milton in 1918, and she retired from active work with the public schools in 1965. Her last work was as general librarian of Caswell County Schools. This lovely and talented woman was a devout Christian, and she gave unselfishly of her time and talents in the churches and in the communities where she and her preacher husband were appointed. She taught in the Church School, sang in the choir, played the piano and organ, and was active in the Women's work in each of the churches they served. She was a true helpmate for her husband, and their home was a place of shelter and joy and love to which her tired preacher-husband could always come at the end of a full and tiring day to "mend the tangled threads of care." Truly she was a lovely, good, and virtuous woman, and her husband and daughter "rise up and call her blessed."

Jeanette said this about her Mother: "Mother was a vivacious, joyous person all her life. Always she brought cheer, enthusiasm and laughter wherever she went. This I say, because it is easy to remember only the last two very sick years of her life and forget all the other years when she was so strong and well and filled with a contagious radiance. Even in the time of pain and suffering, she never lost courage, and her faith in the Lord Jesus did not falter. Undergirding her whole life was a wholesome sense of humor." Her faith, courage and poise were put to the acid test in the death of two sons; she was tested as gold is tested in the fire, and from this cauldron of grief, she came out as pure gold.

In one of her devotional books was found two stanzas copied in her own hand from a poem by Alfred Tennyson:

Stong Son of God, immortal love,
Whom we, that have not seen thy face,
By faith, and faith alone embrace,
Believing where we cannot prove.
Thou wilt not leave us in the dust;
Thou madest man, he knows not why;
He thinks he was not made to die;
And thou hast made him: thou art just.

These beautiful words of faith written by Tennyson became her own affirmation of faith as she shared all of the appointed joys and griefs of life, all of the successes and failures that went into the fabric which was her life.

It was a privilege of this scribe to visit this noble soul in her home and in the hospital during the last two years of her life, and her attitude of quiet reassurance was a benediction to all who came to see her. Only God and Hortense Duncan Long knew the pain she endured. Yet, in all of her pain she was brave, and she brought comfort to those who came to comfort her.

Her "summons came to join the innumerable caravan that moves to that mysterious realm, from whose bourne no traveler returns" on July 6, 1972. The funeral service was conducted by her pastor, the Reverend Wilford D. Wise, and this writer in the Apex United Methodist Church. She is survived by her husband, the Reverend J.O. Long of Apex, a daughter, Mrs. Paul S. Davenport of Apex and a brother, F. Henry Duncan of Pelham, North Carolina. She was buried in the cemetery at Apex.

MRS. GLADYS NEWMAN BARBEE
1900-1972

Mrs. Gladys Newman Barbree was born August 7, 1900 in Sampson County. She passed away on Friday, August 11, 1972. Her body was placed to rest in the Clinton Memorial Park, Clinton, North Carolina. Services were conducted by the Reverend John S. Paschal and Dr. J.E. Garlington. She was the daughter of the late Mr. & Mrs. Marshall J. Newman. She is survived by her husband, the Reverend Carl Barbree, one of our very finest ministers, two daughters, Mrs. Leo LaJoie of Fort Lauderdale, Florida and Mrs. James W. Gray, Jr., Norfolk Virginia, and four grandchildren.

The ability of this lovely lady to make friends of those whom she met and especially of those who knew her as the pastor's wife, was unusual.

Gladys was characterized by a happy and optimistic personality that radiated cheer in whatever group she was a member. Her innate love of beauty prompted her to seek—and find—beauty not only in music and nature but in the lives of the people with whom she came in contact.

Gladys was a graduate of Woman's College, of the University of North Carolina in Greensboro. She was a gifted pianist having studied with Edwin Hughes, a well known teacher of New York City. She also did graduate work at Columbia University.

For many years she taught music. During the more than four decades of her husband's active ministry, Mrs. Barbree lived in various towns and cities in the North Carolina Conference, including Bahama, Elizabethtown, Clayton, Roxboro, Enfield, Bethel, Plymouth and Pittsboro.

She never sought recognition but served in humility. She didn't just like people, she loved them.

Mrs. Barbree and her husband had retired at the 1972 session of the Annual Conference. They came to Clinton to look for a home to purchase. The home was purchased and they signed the deed on Thursday. On Friday morning about eleven o'clock she lay down to rest for a little while. Soon after this she slipped away to be with her many friends who had preceded her and to be with her Heavenly Father.

Her family can feel with the Psalmist that, "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning." The words of the wise man were never more true than when he said: "The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil. She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life,—her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her."

—J.E. Garlington

MRS. SALLIE HOLMES FISHER
1897-1972

Mrs. Jesse T. Fisher (Sallie Holmes) was born January 21, 1897 in Franklin County, North Carolina. She was married to Jesse T. Fisher on December 24, 1922. They became the parents of three sons and one daughter, Lucy Rebecca, who died in infancy. Death came to Sallie on November 18, 1972 in a hospital in Wilmington, N.C., where she had been admitted six days before. Though her health had not been good for several years, she had maintained an active interest in her home and church life until she was hospitalized.

The funeral service was held at the City Road United Methodist Church in Henderson on November 21 and burial was in the Elmwood Cemetery. Ministers conducting the services were the Reverend Charles H. Mercer, Superintendent of the New Bern District, and the Reverend E.H. Overman, Pastor of the Belgrade-Tabernacle Charge. She is survived by two sons, Robert of Richmond, Virginia, and Jesse, Jr. of Athens, Georgia. A third son, Graham, preceded her in death. His family lives in Norfolk, Virginia.

Jesse and Sallie Fisher were active members of the City Road Church when the call came to continue their Christian ministry through the ministry of The Methodist Church. In 1946 they moved to Hatteras where he had been appointed to serve as pastor. Here began a new avenue for ministry which continued for more than twenty-six years and led them along many interesting and exciting paths across eastern North Carolina. Thirteen of these years were spent in the New Bern District where they served at Salter Path, Williston, and Pollocksville, their appointment at the time of her death. In each of these communities in which they have lived they are remembered and loved by many people whose lives have been blessed by their ministry.

Sallie was a very kind and gracious individual. She was a genuine person who preferred a simple style of life. She was never concerned with buying a field or planting a vineyard but she did keep her eye on the doings of her household and did not eat the bread of idleness. In her quiet and unassuming manner she made a powerful Christian witness. Those of us who know her do "extol her for the fruit of all her toil, and let her labours bring her honor in the city and in the country." (Proverbs 31:31)

MRS. GERALDINE EARLY STEPHENSON
1906 - 1973

Geraldine Early Stephenson was born in Bertie County, North Carolina on October 25, 1906. She died February 21, 1973 at Roanoke-Chowan Hospital in Ahoskie, North Carolina following a long illness. Her funeral was held February 24, 1973 at Aulander United Methodist Church. Burial followed at the Aulander Cemetery.

Mrs. Stephenson was the widow of the Reverend A.L.G. (Bud) Stephenson, who was a member of the North Carolina Annual Conference for about 21 years. He served pastorates at Center Hill, South Camden, Stumpy Point, Rocky Mount and Gaston.

Mrs. Stephenson is survived by three children; Mrs. Emma Francis Herring of Virginia, Mrs. Cecelia Ann Beck of California and Louis Early Stephenson of Aulander, N.C. She is also survived by her mother, Mrs. Emma Sumner of Aulander, N.C.

At the time of her death, Mrs. Stephenson lived in Aulander, N.C. She was a member of the Aulander United Methodist Church and the United Methodist Women, which she served as treasurer for ten years.

MRS. NARVICE FRANCES JAMES SWINK

Mrs. Narvice Frances James Swink, daughter of Samuel and Louise James, was born August 18, 1920, in Pineville, Mecklenburg County, North Carolina. She died December 14, 1972, in Richmond Memorial Hospital, Rockingham, N. C. Following the funeral service, conducted by Dr. J. V. Early, District Superintendent, Rev. W. C. Lewis, and Rev. W. Hoyt Cheek, her body was laid to rest in the Richmond Memorial Park, near Rockingham, N. C.

From the age of seven, when her parents moved from Pineville, Narvice stayed on with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Johnson, to continue her education in Pineville High School, from which she was graduated in 1938. She continued her education in King's Business School, Charlotte, N. C. From there she returned to Pineville to be the secretary of her grandfather. On November 5, 1941, she was married to Lionel Clyde Swink in Elizabeth City, N. C. To this union three children were born: a daughter, Frances Ann, and two sons, Lionel Thomas and James Clyde.

Narvice is survived by her husband, Lionel Clyde Swink, pastor of Central United Methodist church, Laurinburg, N. C.; one daughter, Mrs. Frances Ann Hill, nurse at Sea Level Hospital, Sea Level, N. C.; two sons, Lionel Thomas Swink of the Chemical Abstract Service, Columbus, Ohio, and James Clyde Swink, high school teacher, Pittsboro, N. C.; two grandchildren, Lionel Patrick Hill and Lela Marie Hill, Sea Level, N.C.; her mother, Mrs. Louise Tally, Rockingham, N. C.; three sisters, Mrs. Hubert Blanton, Waxhaw, N.C. Mrs. Gilbert Moore, Charlotte, N.C., and Mrs. Billy Smith, Pineville, N. C.; and one brother, Chandler James, Daytown, Texas.

Following World War II, in which Lionel served in the U. S. Navy, the Swinks moved to Rockingham, N. C., where in 1959 Lionel gave up a profitable meat business to enter the Methodist Ministry in the North Carolina Conference. It was at this point that Narvice entered a new phase of her life as the wife of a Methodist Minister. However, she was well qualified for this new life. For a number of years she had been active in the work of the Methodist church serving in many helpful capacities: teacher of children and young adults, president of the local W.S.C.S., teacher of mission study courses in the Fayetteville District, District President and Recording Secretary of the W.S.C.S. All of this experience, along with many other talents, she used with love and effectiveness in support of her husband's work as a minister.

In addition to being a loving and helpful wife, a devoted mother and home-maker, a faithful church worker and beloved neighbor, she found time to take the necessary courses to pass the State Board of Examiners and become a Licensed Practical Nurse. Then, to top off her many accomplishments, in January, 1964, after passing the required courses with excellent grades, she became a Licensed Local Preacher in the Methodist Church. Thus, she became well equipped to carry out her Lord's command to go and preach and teach and heal. All of these talents without reservation and in faithfulness, she dedicated to and used for her Lord and her fellow man in loving service.

It has been my pleasure, privilege and spiritual benefit to know and be associated with Narvice for the past ten years, six of which I served as her district superintendent. It was my joy to issue and sign her Local Preacher's License in 1964. She cherished that license most dearly. She not only kept it renewed every year, but she lived up to all the requirements and responsibilities of a Licensed Local Preacher, assisting her husband in every way possible, filling his pulpit when he was sick or absent. She preached the Gospel with sincerity, joy, simplicity and great effectiveness; and was much beloved by all to whom she ministered. To me one of the most amazing and inspiring things about Narvice was the fact that she did all of this work for her Lord, her family and her church courageously, cheerfully, lovingly and uncomplainingly, while enduring much suffering from an unyielding cancer with which she has been struggling for the past fourteen years. Although this cancer required major surgery, eighteen different periods of confinement in the hospital and ninety-seven cobalt treatments, she continued her work in the church until only a few days before her death. Certainly, the only explanation one can find for such courage, faithfulness, cheerfulness and loyalty in the midst of such physical suffering and adversity is the fact that in the presence of her Lord she found joy and inner peace; in His limitless power she found adequate strength, and in His abounding grace she found sufficiency for all her needs. A short time before her death she said to a friend, "Including my health, I couldn't change places with any woman in the world" Surely, for Narviche the words of St. Paul are most fitting when he said, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give to me at that day." To this I would like to add in the words of Charles Wesley:

"Servant of God, well done! Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won, and thou art crowned at last."

MRS. GLADYS LINER COLEY 1916–1973

Gladys Liner Coley (Evelyn Gladys Liner) was born on March 29, 1916, near Hillsborough, North Carolina, the eldest daughter of Ewell and Elma (McDade) Liner. From childhood her associations were bound to the people and places of North Carolina.

A member of the Hillsborough Methodist Church, she was active in the Sunday school and in church-sponsored youth groups. She held offices in the Epworth League in the mid-1930's and worked in the district organization.

Following her graduation from Hillsborough High School (1933), she entered High Point College and completed a two-year secretarial course in 1935. There she was active in the Christian Endeavor and the Nikanthian Literary Society and served on the student council.

Returning to Hillsborough, she worked for the Bonner D. Sawyer law firm for many years. In 1967 she became a self-employed consultant.

On August 10, 1937, she married the Reverend Herman T. Coley, a student at the Duke Divinity School and pastor of the Eno Methodist Church. During his brief ministry, they stimulated interest in the small church, particularly among the youth. Following an extended illness, he died in Hillsborough on August 18, 1940.

She remained in Hillsborough and continued to work in the church. During the 1960's — as a memorial to her husband — she placed an engraved bronze plaque in the pastor's study of the Eno Methodist Church and furnished the room.

She became an active member of Eastern Star Chapter 180 in 1938 and held a number of offices in the Order. In 1946-1947 she was Worthy High Priestess of the White Shrine of Greensboro.

Death came suddenly on Thursday, January 4, 1973, at her home in Hillsborough. Final services were conducted at the Walker's Funeral Chapel on Sunday, January 7, 1973, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The Reverend Herman Ward, pastor of the Hillsborough United Methodist Church, officiated, and the Reverend Key Taylor, a former pastor of Eno Methodist Church, assisted at the graveside service. Burial was in the Hillsborough Town Cemetery.

Survivors are four sisters: Mrs. Bruce Cannady (Barbara) and Mrs. Howard Jones (Dallie), both of Durham; Mrs. Eric Gooch (Janie) of Raleigh; and Mrs. Wayne Martin (Carol) of Oxford; two brothers: Swain Liner of Hillsborough, and Maj. Cornelius Liner of the Armed Forces, and her father and stepmother, Mr. and Mrs. Ewell Liner of Hillsborough.

Following her death, a local writer concluded an essay with this tribute: "Like William Temple, the great Anglican, Gladys Liner Coley believed that:

"To worship is to quicken the conscience
by the holiness of God,
To feed the mind by the truth of God,
To purge the imagination by the beauty of God,

To open the heart to the love of God,
To devote the will to the purpose of God.'

She accepted the gift of life and gave back the gift of love."

MRS. MAXINE ROYAL WARREN

Mrs. Maxine Royal Warren, daughter of Langford Paul and Bertie (Blake) Royal, was born in Cumberland County, Route 1, Stedman, North Carolina, on December 25, 1925. She graduated from Stedman High School and received diplomas from National Photo Coloring School of Chicago, Illinois, and National Landscape Institute, Flower Arrangement and Floristry, Los Angeles, California, through Home Study Courses. She died February 2, 1973 when her car collided almost head-on with another automobile, which crossed her path on a rain-swept U. S. Highway 1, a mile south of the Vance County community of Kittrell. Employed by J. C. Penny Co. for more than twenty years in display, she was enroute to work in Raleigh, North Carolina when the accident occurred about 8:10 A.M. on Friday.

Funeral services were conducted in the Chapel of Jernigan-Warren Funeral Home in Fayetteville, North Carolina by the Reverend Jack Page, superintendent of the Raleigh District, the Reverend Graham S. Eubank, superintendent of the Fayetteville District, and the Reverend R. C. Hamilton, present pastor of Bethany United Methodist Church, of which Maxine became a member at the age of nine, and served faithfully until her departure. Just recently she and her husband, the Reverend H. Robert Warren donated hymnals to her home church. During the funeral services Earnest O. Geddie, former music teacher of Maxine's, played some of her favorite hymns, among them being a long time favorite "Beyond The Sunset" and "How Great Thy Art". Interment was in LaFayette Memorial Park, Fayetteville, North Carolina on Sunday, February 4, 1973.

On September 15, 1963 in Bethany Methodist Church, Route 1, Stedman, North Carolina, Maxine became the bride of Henry Robert "Bob" Warren of Fayetteville, North Carolina; who the following year joined her church by letter from List Baptist Church in Laurinburg, North Carolina. Receiving License to Preach "Bob" and Maxine were appointed in the fall of 1964 to Parkton, North Carolina, where he became Pastor of Parkton Methodist Church, his first pastorate. The Reverend Warren attended Methodist College, Fayetteville, North Carolina, Pembroke State College, Pembroke, North Carolina, and Duke Pastors' School, Durham, North Carolina. He was ordained to the office of Deacon on August 26, 1969 and into full connection and ordained Elder June 5, 1972.

From the Parkton Charge we have this tribute: "Time spent in the community was limited, due to full time employment in Fayetteville, North Carolina, but Maxine endeared herself to those who knew her. A person of great artistic ability she rendered an invaluable service to our church by assuming responsibility for the altar flowers. Almost single-handedly she performed this service for the three and one-half years they served the church. It might be twelve o'clock on Saturday night or even Sunday morning before the arrangements took form, and quite often the makings had been gleaned from the roadside, but when the church hour arrived, not only were there attractive altar arrangements attesting to her love of God's beauty and her own creativity but there was often an inspirational worship center in the vestibule to help set the mood for worship. At the end of the service Maxine was always at the side of her husband to shake hands and let each one know she cared."

Their second appointment was to Lumberton, North Carolina, where they served Asbury and Pineview Churches for over three years. From the Lumberton Charge we received the following; "Max", as she preferred to be called was a person of good Christian character, gentle and kind, attractive in appearance, and able to see beauty all around her. She was active in Pineview Woman's Society of Christian Service, serving as President for two years, during which time she used her many talents and abilities on projects of improvements in and around the church. We were blessed to have had her pass our way. As she went about her duties always with a smile, lightly she touched with beauty our lives for awhile."

Their next move was to Norlina, North Carolina, where the Reverend Warren is presently serving Jerusalem and Zion Churches. From Jerusalem-Zion United Methodist Charge we quote: "Privileged to know Maxine for only a short time, but for this period we can truly say that the verses of Proverbs 31: 10-12 apply to her life. She was a virtuous woman, a faithful church member, interested in her husband's work and the work of the Methodist Woman's Society. She and her husband were a devoted couple. One had to be with them but a short time to be aware of this. 'Truly the heart of her husband did safely trust in her.' We are grateful for the time we were associated with Mrs. Warren and thank our heavenly Father for her life, brief though it was."

She labored with distinction by the side of her husband, yet she was a strong person in her own right. She was quiet, charming, very feminine, and richly endowed with a spirit of gentleness that reached out to everyone she met. All who knew her will long remember her love for others, and her church; her talents of poetry, art and creatativity; and her quick wit which made it a joy to be in her presence. She had depth of faith, breadth of experience, and height of accomplishment. Yet the simplicity of her trust and faith in God was almost mystic. The story is not yet told, nor can it be adequately done. It is impossible to recapture her captivating smile, her encouraging tones, her optimistic outlook upon life, and her persistent faith. As said by one of her close friends, "She lived more in forty-seven years, than many will live in eighty years." It would be impossible to evaluate the quality of such a life, to estimate her influence for good, to measure the help she furnished her husband, her family and others.

Here is a story of a devoted loved one, a consecrated Christian, an example of goodness and Godliness, a happy homemaker, a dedicated public worker, and a faithful friend. The effect and influence of her life will go on for years yet to come.

She is survived by her husband, the Reverend Henry Robert Warren, Norlina, North Carolina; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Langford Paul Royal, Stedman, North Carolina; five sisters, Mrs. George W. (Juanita) Horne, Mrs. Boyd (Corenna) Cain, Fayetteville, North Carolina; Mrs. James (Wanda) McMillan, Wade, North Carolina; Mrs. Herbert (Lloyd) Shaw, Lakeland, Florida; and Miss Patsy Royal, Stedman, North Carolina; two borthers, Paul and David Royal, Stedman, North Carolina.

We shall miss Maxine very much, but let us not mourn too deeply. Rather let us give thanks to God for our sister and her good work for our love and fellowship.

To us left behind Maxine would say:

I am Home in Heaven, dear ones; oh, so happy and so bright!
 There is perfect joy and beauty in this everlasting light..
 All the pain and grief is over, every restless tossing passed;
 I am now at peace forever, safely Home in Heaven at last.
 Did you wonder I so calmly, trod the Valley of the shade?
 Oh! But Jesus' love illumined every dark and fearful glade.
 And He came Himself to meet me in that way so hard to tread;
 And with Jesus' arm to lean on; could I have one doubt or dread?
 Then you must not grieve so sorely, for I love you dearly still:
 Try to look beyond earth's shadows, pray to trust our Father's Will.
 There is work still waiting for you, so you must not idly stand;
 Do it now, while life remaineth — you shall rest in Jesus' land;
 When that work is all completed, He will gently call you Home;
 Oh, the rapture of that meeting, Oh, the joy to see you come!

MRS. ILA HARKEY COBLE
1881 - 1973

Mrs. Ila Harkey Coble was born in Weddington, North Carolina, August 22, 1881, the daughter of J. I. and Lavica H. Harkey.

On May 16, 1907 she married the Rev. Thomas Coble, who was just beginning his ministry in the Western North Carolina Conference. In 1921 he was transferred to the Eastern Conference and remained until 1926, at which time he retired because of his health. At that time they moved the family to Durham so that the five children could attend Duke University.

Ila Coble was a great asset to her husband in his ministry as they worked together for the glory of God. She combined her family and the church and they were one. She played the piano for the many functions that were carried on with the activities of the church. While in the Western Conference they served the Hickory Circuit, Maiden, Bethel, Flat Rock, Lenoir County, Davie, Elk Park and Dobson; in the Eastern Conference they served Youngsville, Bath, Old Trap and Hatteras. The Rev. Mr. Coble died June 20, 1946.

Ila Coble was a faithful member of the Duke Memorial United Methodist Church of Durham, N.C. She was a member of the Lillie Duke Bible Sunday School Class and received several awards for perfect attendance. She also took part in the missionary circles.

Her faith carried her through many trials all through life and especially during her illness when she was forced to give up her home and move to a nursing home. She spent the last two years at the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham where she died suddenly February 6, 1973. She was buried next to her husband in Annex B of Maplewood Cemetery in Durham, N.C.

She is survived by five children: James B. Coble and Edgar M. Coble of Durham, Thomas S. Coble, Jr. of Memphis, Tenn., Mrs. Fern Coble Culbreth of Charlotte, N.C., and Mrs. Elizabeth Coble Whaling of Ridgefield, Conn. There are eight grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

There is no better tribute to her than to say that she lived a long life of service and devotion to her husband, family and church.

MRS. GERTRUDE L. GLEAVES
1891-1973

Mrs. Gertrude Letterlough Gleaves was born in Maxton, North Carolina, on May 25, 1891, the daughter of Osborne and Elizabeth (Owens) Gleaves. Her early years were spent in Robeson County where she received most of her formal educational experiences.

She was married to Benjamin Franklin Gleaves, who entered the Christian Ministry shortly after this union. During the years of her husband's pastorate and until her health failed, Mrs. Gleaves worked faithfully and willingly as a minister's wife. She traveled to various localities in the North Carolina Conference working with her husband and influencing his successful ministry. She especially enjoyed working with the Woman's Society of Christian Service and with the Minister's Wives. Following her husband's death in August 1958, she maintained a home in Maxton and was a faithful member of her home church, St. George United Methodist.

In failing health for several years, death came to her on Tuesday, May 1, 1973 at the Scotland Memorial Hospital in Laurinburg, North Carolina. Funeral service for the deceased was held at St. George United Methodist Church in Maxton on Saturday, May 5, 1973 with O.M. Graham, officiating, assisted by S.L. Townsend. Her body rests next to that of her husband at the McLeod Cemetery in Maxton, N. C.

The loss sustained by the death of Mrs. Gleaves has been felt keenly throughout the community in which she lived as well as in other places in the North Carolina Conference.

The mother of ten children, she is survived not only by three sons and two daughters, but by sixteen grandchildren and fifteen great-grandchildren.

—O.M.Graham

GROUP A: AGENCY ANNUAL REPORTS FOR 1972-1973

THE COMMITTEE ON CHURCH ARCHITECTURE

Though church construction in the 1970's has not achieved the rate of the 1960's, it is nevertheless a very significant factor, particularly for the church of small membership. Many of these congregations are in need of either new or improved facilities, but face the greater need of professional guidance not only in building design but also in programming and stewardship. The Conference Committee on Church Architecture, made up of representatives from various agencies and districts, seeks to provide direction whereby some of the needs can be met.

The Review Committee serves in the capacity of evaluating preliminary architectural designs for any and all local churches, district Boards of Church Location and Building, the Division of Missions, and The Duke Endowment.

The Conference Committee is engaged in a cooperative project of preparing guidance materials for local committees, district Boards of Church Location and Building, and conference agencies.

At the Annual Joint Meeting March 5, 1973 emphasis was placed on local church financing. Mr. Edward A. Sövik, architect and churchman, spoke on "Alternatives to Church Building."

Programs for 1973-74 include a fall meeting, Monday, December 3, 1973, in Raleigh, district and/or cluster meetings, and the Annual Joint Meeting at the Duke Divinity School, Monday, March 4, 1974.

THE COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

Let us begin anew to remember things done long past that we might do more memorable works for others to remember after we are gone.

A. The Commission on Archives and History held two day-long meetings this year featuring a program as well as a business session. Mr. Don Lennon, Curator, Manuscript Collection, East Carolina University Library, Greenville, North Carolina, spoke on the importance of the preservation of ministerial and church related manuscripts. Dr. Allen D. Watson, Assistant Professor of History at U.N.C. at Wilmington spoke on "The Institutional Background of Methodism in North Carolina." These meetings were held at Whitakers Chapel and historic Rehoboth Church in Washington County.

B. An event of statewide significance was the North Carolina Methodist Bicentennial held at Currituck Courthouse on September 28, 1972 where, in spite of a severe rainstorm, over three hundred people gathered to help celebrate the two hundredth anniversary of the first Methodist sermon preached in North Carolina by Joseph Pilmore. Keynote speakers were Dr. Frederick E. Maser, executive secretary of the World Methodist Historical Society from Philadelphia and editor of Joseph Pilmore's Journal and Bishop Herbert Bell Shaw of Wilmington, North Carolina, resident bishop of the First Episcopal District of the A.M.E. Zion Church. In addition to these, Bishop Robert M. Blackburn, S. Curtis Gray, and Reverend G. Robert McKenzie, Dr. Frank Baker, Dr. William K. Quick and the Reverend R. Norman Knight also took part in the program of celebration which was further enhanced by an excellent concert of religious and patriotic music by the Northeastern High School Band from Elizabeth City. It was an enthusiastic tribute recognizing this historic event and was patronized by many supporters from every district in the North Carolina Conference and the Western North Carolina Conference Commission on Archives and History. Your Commission chairman served as chairman of the program committee.

C. The Commission has answered many requests during the year for information of an historic nature and been represented at several historic celebrations including the 175th Anniversary Pageant on November 12, 1972 at Grace U.M. Church, Wilmington, North Carolina.

D. The Commission has contributed information and photographs of the Green Hill House and Whitakers Chapel, the two national Methodist shrines within the Conference, for a sixteen page brochure depicting all shrines to be made available at each historic location. These brochures are being prepared by the General Commission and will be available toward the end of 1973 as hand-out pieces to visitors at each shrine.

E. Nearly a dozen new local church histories were turned in to the Commission this year. Methodists are urged to write their own church histories to be deposited in the Commission archives. District conference records will also be collected for deposit at the same place for the convenience of researchers. Churches celebrating special anniversaries during 1974 are urged to contact the Commission for assistance in helping to celebrate such events. There are two representatives of the Commission in each district for this purpose.

F. The Commission continues to seek a place in the Methodist Building at Raleigh as a repository of archives and history.

G. A list of deceased ministers of the Methodist Protestant Church has been prepared for inclusion in the 1973 edition of the Conference Journal along with those of the other two branches of Methodism which merged in 1939.

H. The Commission has continued to support the monthly preaching services and special celebrations held at Whitakers Chapel and Rehoboth Church. Members of the Commission have participated in these services from time to time this year.

I. The first step was taken this year to make plans to celebrate the bicentennial of the Carolina Circuit in 1976. This was the first circuit established for North Carolina and had Edward Dromgoole, Francis Poythress, and Isham Tatum assigned to the new region. This event will correspond with the National Bicentennial to be held the same year.

J. It has been an exciting beginning for the new quadrennium and great interest was shown by the twenty-eight members of the Commission.

THE BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

The purpose of this board, according to paragraph 955 of the Discipline, "shall be to relate the gospel of Jesus Christ to the members of the Church and to the persons and structures of the communities and world in which they live . . . Prime responsibility of the board is to implement the Social Creed."

We have sought to carry out this mandate through several means, including promoting the observance in each local church of World Order, Drug and Alcohol Concerns, and Human Relations Sundays as well as "Trick or Treat" for UNICEF and support for the Black College Fund.

Our tradition of close cooperation with other agencies, Conference as well as non-Conference, continued as we participated in the North Carolina Council of Churches Commission on Social Ministries, the State Council on Social Legislation, and a coalition of groups sponsoring the North Carolina State Fair Peace Education Booth. In addition, several of our members took part in the multi-agency Learning Center at Lake Junaluska, our president serves as secretary of the Southeastern Jurisdiction Association of Conference Presidents, Boards of Church and Society, and our board coordinated the delegation from our Conference to the SEJ Consultation on the Bishops' Call for Peace and the Self-Development of Peoples. Two of our officers and our staff person attended Focus '73, a training experience for Church and Society leaders conducted by General Board staff in Washington. A major portion of our budget was made available to our Youth Council Legislative Affairs Project, and we cooperated with Global Ministries in promoting the distribution of "Call to Action," a packet containing 1972 General Conference policy statements. We were very pleased to have the Summer R&R Executive Board choose a study of our United Methodist Social Principles as one of the priority items in its 1973 curriculum.

Finally, we wish to record our thanks to John M. Meares for his excellent services as staff person for our board, especially in his work with our seminars on the Church and the Mentally Retarded, held in cooperation with the Division on Health and Welfare Ministries, and for his exceptionally fine job of directing the 1973 Adult Study Tour to New York and Washington in which 34 adults and 12 teenagers participated.

REPORTS OF THE DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS A COMPOSITE REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENCY

Graham S. Eubank, Cabinet President

This is the third Annual Conference session in which we have sought to present the report of the District Superintendents in a summarized form. Brother Charles H. Mercer, Secretary of the Cabinet, has presented the reports for the last two sessions of the Conference.

This report cannot provide accurate and detailed statistical information since the reports from which we provide this summary are taken from reports sent in to the District Superintendents early in May. The statistical information will be provided by the statistician whose report is taken from the pastors reports, number #1, and #2, that were submitted to him before the end of the Conference year. Some of these reports were brought to the statistician upon arrival at the seat of the Conference.

MEMBERSHIP: Six of the districts have reported a net gain in membership, three reported losses, and three did not report a gain or a loss. Reports from which this information was received indicates that we have received 3,684 by Profession Of Faith, 4,949 by Transfer of Membership, for a gross total of 8,527 new members received. Information provided by the District Superintendents indicates that we will have an increase in membership. The Raleigh District leads in reporting an increase of 774 members, poor second is the Fayetteville District reporting an increase of 137 members. Other districts reporting an increase are Burlington, Durham, Elizabeth City, and Wilmington.

COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES: Most of the District Superintendents have reported that the Council on Ministries in their districts has been meeting regularly and these Councils have been planning and developing programs for the districts and assisting local churches in developing programs for special needs.

STEWARDSHIP: The Conference Treasurer's monthly reports have shown an increase in giving to the church. The churches have been more systematic in their support of the single figure, and other apportionments. When the books are closed for this year, the Treasurer's report should show a much higher percentage of acceptances paid than in previous years. Most of the specials have received stronger support and the Treasurer's report on April 26th reported more total giving for the General Advance, Specials, One Great Hour of Sharing, World Wide Communion Offering, Methodist Student Day, Race Relations, $10 Club, College Capitol Funds, Conference specials, and one new offering, Human Relations Day. Sub-district workshops were held in all of the districts of the Conference in January, for the purpose of training in Every Member Commitment programs for local churches. The pastors and Lay people of our Conference deserve a real commendation for the growth in Christian Stewardship indicated in the Treasurer's reports.

KEY '73 AND EVANGELISM: Reports indicate that approximately 80% of the churches of the Conference have participated to some extent in the Key '73 emphasis. Churches in some areas have united with other denominations with special programs in evangelism services, youth programs, and Bible studies. Most of the larger churches have divided into small neighborhood groups for Bible study. We urge that the churches continue to share in either local or united efforts as scheduled by the Key '73 General Committee.

TRAINING OPPORTUNITIES: There has been an increased interest in training programs and opportunities provided by the Conference, the districts, and local churches. Laboratory and teacher-training programs have been available for church school workers and teachers. Leadership development courses in local churches or in clusters of churches have received better participation. Pastors have supported seminar work shops and special councils designed for them within their own districts and in areas where more than one district participated. The first Council On Ministries and Administrative Board Lab in the Conference was conducted jointly by the Rockingham and Sanford Districts. Opportunities for training and development of leadership have been provided for all age groups.

LAY ACTIVITIES: The Conference Lay Leader and the Conference Division of Laity have been involved in sub-district, district, and Conference workshops and retreats for the Laity of the Conference. Lay rallies were held in all twelve districts with excellent attendance and participation.

WOMEN OF THE CHURCH: The women of the Conference have had a very busy year in restructuring two organizations into one organization for the women's work according to the plans approved by the General Conference of 1972. Preparation was made in the local churches and the districts and finalized by the women of the Conference by a Conference-wide assembly at First Church in Wilson on Saturday, May 26, 1973. The United Methodist Women replaces the Women's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild.

SPECIAL MINISTRIES: The Robeson County Church and Community Center is still the largest program in special ministries provided in the Conference. The special beach and resort ministries continue to increase. These are located in Elizabeth City District, New Bern District, and the Wilmington District. These ministries are interdenominational.

BUILDINGS AND IMPROVEMENTS: All of the District Superintendents report improvements in church property, including church buildings and parsonages. Some have built new sanctuaries, new educational buildings, or other new facilities.

BURLINGTON DISTRICT: Several church buildings and parsonages have been repaired and renovated during the year. Saxapahaw has renovated its educational facilities. Hebron Church is planning to erect a new parsonage soon, and it is anticipated that this church will complete all of its indebtedness soon and hold dedication services. The Efland parsonage has been renovated.

DURHAM DISTRICT: This district reports $620,407 spent on new sanctuaries, one new educational building, two new parsonages, and renovation and repairs on others.

ELIZABETH CITY DISTRICT: This district reports widespread improvement during the year in church buildings and parsonages, including an addition of one bedroom to the district parsonage. Mt. Hermon on the Creswell Charge and Sharon on the South Mills Charge have built new educational buildings. Others have added air conditioning, repainted, etc.

FAYETTEVILLE DISTRICT: A Task Force on an Urban Ministry for the Fayetteville Metropolitan Area, under the leadership of Wallace Kirby has made real progress. Dr. William Tyson, who heads up the Atlanta Urban Ministry, spent part of a week in Fayetteville indicating areas which should be included and types of programs which would be effective. Plans now call for Dr. Tyson and a staff of ten from his program in Atlanta to visit Fayetteville for a week-end training session sometime in the fall. A number of churches have been involved in repairing and renovating church buildings and parsonages. Bishop Blackburn has dedicated the new parsonage for the Clinton Circuit. The Lillington Church which was extensively renovated a few years ago was dedicated by Bishop Blackburn in December. Haymount Church has built a new parsonage for its Associate Pastor. There are some other churches which have paid off all indebtedness and will be dedicated when Bishop Blackburn can work this in his schedule.

GOLDSBORO DISTRICT: This district reports a number of churches which have repaired and improved their church property including parsonages. Salem and Mt. Carmel Churches have had dedication services of new educational buildings during the year. The superintendent reports that the biggest improvements have been an increase in the practice of Christian stewardship with strong support for acceptances and payments of single figure and other apportionments.

GREENVILLE DISTRICT: The superintendent reports that a total of $509,421 was spent on buildings, debts, and repairs. Grifton Church has built a new sanctuary, and Holy Trinity is completing a new educational building. Woodington and Bethany Churches are building new educational buildings. Providence Church has been moved from its former site and relocated in Chocowinity, and two trailers are being used temporarily for services. The Greenville District United Methodist Missionary Society has raised $8,000 since Christmas and this money will be directed toward Holy Trinity, and Chocowinity projects.

NEW BERN DISTRICT: The superintendent reports that a new $200,000 educational building has been built at Richland and a new organ installed in Trinity Church, Jacksonville. A number of churches have been involved in repairs and renovations of the church properties. All indebtedness will soon be paid off on Atlantic, Maysville, and Midway Churches. All indebtedness has been paid off on the St. Peters, Queens Creek, Beulahville, and Riverside churches ahead of schedule. Many of the churches have plans for new buildings. One of the highlights of the year was the Bicentennial Celebration in October. Another is the success of the Pamlico Parish which includes all the churches in Pamlico County.

RALEIGH DISTRICT: It appears that the number one achievement in the Raleigh District has been the number of people received in the church during the year: 1,636 members for a net gain in membership of 774. This leads all of the other districts by far! Churches have paid $554,200 on principal, interest, and indebtedness on buildings. The first unit of the new West Raleigh Church has been completed and is now being used. First Church: Cary has launched a $275,000 building and renovation program. Westover purchased a new parsonage. Many churches have made major improvements on buildings with repairs and renovations. These include Horne Memorial, Middleburg: Cokesbury, and Union Chapel. Millbrook held a consecration service at the formal opening of the new educational building. Bishop Blackburn has dedicated a new educational building at Franklinton and Wesley Chapel has added a new fellowship hall. Bishop Blackburn dedicated a church at Gillburg. The Bishop also dedicated parsonages at Knightdale and Mt. Zion.

ROCKINGHAM DISTRICT: This new district in the Conference includes Richmond, Scotland, and Robeson Counties. Red Springs: Rhyne Memorial has completed a major remodeling project. Caledonia has completed a new educational building. Rockingham: First Church has made extensive repairs and renovations. Pleasant Grove and Beaver Dam paid off all indebtedness on their new church building. Central Laurinburg and Ellerbe Churches have paid for their parsonages. Dr. Early has been very successful in organizing this new district, which involves the District Council On Ministries, Sub-districts, and other district programs designed especially to unite the district as a working unit of the Conference.

ROCKY MOUNT DISTRICT: The churches of the Rocky Mount district have raised $332,868 for buildings and improvements during the year. A new organ has been installed in Scotland Neck Church. Repairs, renovations, and air conditioning systems are among some of the projects which have taken place in the Wendell, Calvary, Littleton, and Clark Street churches. The Middlesex and Rosemary churches have paid off all indebtedness, and Bishop Blackburn dedicated the Rosemary Church building. Nashville Church secured a new parsonage which has been dedicated.

SANFORD DISTRICT: This district has also experienced considerable improvements in church property. Major improvements have been made at Candor, Siler City: First, Southern Pines, and Pinebluff. Major parsonage improvements have been made at Carthage, Broadway, Jonesboro Heights, Pittsboro Circuit. Union Grove has completed a new church building. Steele St. Church is being relocated on a new site and the new building will soon be completed. Steele St. has secured a new parsonage. New educational buildings are under construction at Aberdeen and Poplar Springs. Bascom's Chapel Church building is about ready to begin. Mt. Carmel Church is planning a new building. The new superintendent of the Sanford District has been very busy getting involved in evangelism, stewardship, and directing other programs in the district.

WILMINGTON DISTRICT: A number of churches have completed payment of all indebtedness on new buildings and these have been dedicated during the year. These include Lake Waccamaw, Carolina Beach, Burgaw, Wesley on the Reigelwood Charge, Bethesda, and Shiloh on the Bolton-Shiloh Charge. A projected building project will begin soon at Shiloh on the Town Creek Charge. Additional classrooms have been built at Zion on the Town Creek Charge, and the building has been brick veneered. Improvements have been made also at Burgaw, Fifth Avenue, Hallsboro, Centenary, as well as Mishop Springs and Peace Churches on the Whiteville Charge Circuit. Grace Church observed its 175th anniversary with special programs and projects involving the church during the entire year.

This has been a year of getting acquainted with the new Bishop and his family. We commend Bishop and Mrs. Blackburn for their visiting of the parsonage families in all twelve districts. This is an outstanding accomplishment in the short time in which the Blackburns have been here, especially when we realize that this involved visiting over 500 parsonages. Bishop Blackburn and his family came to North Carolina from Orlando, Florida, and he has traveled through the Conference preaching and dedicating churches and participating in a number of other special events. He attended all twelve district lay rallies and most of the District Conferences. Bishop and Mrs. Blackburn know almost all of our pastors and their wives by their names. It has been a pleasant year as well as a challenging one to try to keep up with the new Bishop.

The Cabinet has experienced remarkable cooperation by all the superintendents and this was especially evident in the Cabinet meetings when appointments were considered and made. The entire Cabinet hopes and prays that all pastors and families will be happy in their appointments and that all of the pastoral Charges will receive their pastors gladly and that working together they will make great progress in God's work during the ensuing year.

BURLINGTON DISTRICT Edgar B. Fisher, Superintendent

Much has been accomplished in the Burlington District during this Conference year. A fine spirit has prevailed among both pastors and lay people. The entire program of the Church has been emphasized.

MEMBERSHIP AND EVANGELISM: The district has received 393 members on profession of faith, 243 by certificate of church membership from other Methodist Churches, 137 from other denominations, making a total of 703 members received during this Conference year. Twenty-seven charges have made a net increase of 197 members; thirteen charges had a decrease of 90 members; five charges remained the same in membership as the previous year.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION: Many participate in the work of Christian Education. Training schools for church school workers are held. Many attend "R and R" each summer for the purpose of receiving training.

WOMEN'S WORK: The United Methodist Women number close to 3000 members. Much constructive work is being done.

LAY ACTIVITIES: Our lay people are active; 760 attended the district lay rally. The no-silent pulpit program was observed.

BUILDINGS AND IMPROVEMENTS: Saxapahaw United Methodist Church has spent approximately $40,000 in renovation of the educational facilities. Hebron United Methodist Church is making plans to erect a new parsonage soon; the indebtedness on the Hebron church plant soon will have been paid, and dedication of the beautiful church plants should occur within a few months. The Efland parsonage has been renovated. Webb Avenue-Trinity United Methodist Church has approved plans for its new building, and it is anticipated that construction will start within the near future. Saint Luke's church plant was dedicated during the year, all of the indebtedness on this plant having been paid in full.

FINANCES: A good financial record has been made again this year by the district. Last year the district paid its Single Figure Acceptance 100.1%; it is anticipated that the record this year should be almost as good, for it is believed that each charge will pay its acceptance in full. Considerable increases are being made in pastors' salaries and in Single Figure Acceptances for the new conference year.

GRATITUDE: The district superintendent is deeply grateful for having had the privilege of serving as superintendent these last six years in the Burlington District. He appreciates so much the wonderful spirit manifested by both clergy and lay people during this time. The Burlington District gives every indication of having a bright future.

DURHAM DISTRICT

Chancie D. Barclift, Superintendent

The report of the 50 charges, consisting of 70 churches, of the Durham District for the 1972-73 conference year shows that much progress was made in many areas. This report is made possible through the diligent work of pastors and more than 23,000 lay members.

MEMBERSHIP: There was a slight increase in church membership.

FINANCES: The district paid 99.2% on its acceptance of $323,231 on the Single Figure Asking.

LAY LIFE AND WORK: The attendance at the Lay Rally was 1204, making it a highlight in the work of lay activities. The work of the United Methodist Women and the United Methodist Youth Fellowship gave evidence of solid achievements.

BUILDING PROJECTS: Oxford Church — educational building completed.

Oxford Circuit: Hermon Church — fellowship hall in the planning stage.

Rougmont Church — educational building in the planning stage.

Durham: Calvary Church purchased new parsonage.

Durham: St. Paul Church purchased new parsonage.

We have gratitude for the goodness of God and the guidance of His spirit in kingdom accomplishments.

ELIZABETH CITY DISTRICT

G. Robert McKenzie, Superintendent

This has been a good year for the pastors and people of the Elizabeth City District, as we have seen much improvement in many areas of our work. Of particular interest is the excellent manner in which our District Council on Ministries has planned for ministry and mission in the district and beyond. Our report is but a summary; yet it could not be made without giving large credit to a great number of individuals.

MEMBERSHIP: A total of 440 persons were received into the membership of the churches. This coupled with the losses, represents a slight decrease, but when seen in conjunction with the fact that the area continues to lose population, we have done well in this regard. One hundred and ninety-nine persons were baptized.

FINANCES: We are working toward full acceptance of the Single Figure by all charges in the district. We note an increase over last year and the district now accepts 88.46% of its asking. The charges have paid 99% of their acceptances for the year. Of particular interest is the response to General Advance Specials which amounted to almost $11,000 for the year. Giving is up in Ministerial Education Funds also. Salaries have been increased over $21,000 (for a full year) and this response is most gratifying. In excess of $125,000 has been expended for debts, buildings, and improvements.

BUILDING IMPROVEMENTS: Improvements are noted in the following charges: An educational building is under construction at Mt. Hermon, Creswell Charge; Sharon Church, Currituck Charge has paid for its educational building and it is ready for dedication; Buxton and Hatteras Churches have air conditioned, and Frisco has installed siding; the parsonage at Hertford has been renovated both inside and outside; the parsonage at Newland-Grace has been painted and repaired; the parsonage on the North Gates Charge has undergone extensive repairs; a fellowship hall is under construction at Sharon Church, South Mills Charge; and an addition has been made on the district parsonage.

BEACH MINISTRY: The Beach Ministry at Kitty Hawk continues to flourish and serves nearly 50,000 persons each summer. There is the expectation that this ministry will expand and we look forward to an even larger beach ministry in the other areas of the district.

APPRECIATION: This report could not be made without the fine service of the pastors and lay persons within the district and I wish to take this opportunity to express my sincere gratitude to each and every one of them. This year marks a turnover for the district, with sixteen charges receiving new pastors; in all but one case, these pastors will be coming from other districts and conferences.

The prospects for the Elizabeth City District are very good and we all look forward to a fine year of continuing service to the people and churches in the area, all of which is done to the Glory of God and in the name of Jesus Christ.

FAYETTEVILLE DISTRICT Graham S. Eubank, Superintendent

The first year of the restructuring of the Fayetteville District was an excellent year. Robeson County was removed by the Annual Conference in 1972 and was placed in the new district. Sampson County was removed from the Goldsboro to the Fayetteville District. The pastors and lay people of the district deserve a great deal of credit for what they accomplished during the year of 1972-73. Their superintendent was absent quite a bit during the year due to illness; yet the work prospered.

FINANCES: The District led every month during the year in percentage of payment of single figure acceptance as reported by the Conference Treasurer. When Conference convened on June 4, every church in the Fayetteville District had paid 100% of its acceptance. The total paid by the churches in the district was $259,804.26 for 100%. Other payments: Ministerial Education: $13,511.00, Inter-denominational: $313.00, Hour Of Sharing: $1,292.73, World Wide Communion Offering: $1,405.26, Student Day: $725.26, Race Relations: $875.32, General Advance Specials: $7,655.62, Conference Advance Specials: $3,692.66, UMYF Fund: $754.35, $10 CLUB: $3,760.00, College Capitol Funds: $901.00, Camps: $200.00, Reconciliation Fund: $308.00, for a total sent to the Conference Treasurer of $295,198. The financial report was really exceptional and the credit goes to the pastors who led the way and the response of the Laity who supported the financial program.

KEY '73 AND EVANGELISM: Almost all of the churches have been involved to some extent in the Key '73 program. Several denominations in downtown Fayetteville cooperated in the Key '73 emphasis including Roman Catholic, Episcopalian, Presbyterian, Baptist, and Methodist. Other churches cooperated in the neighborhood areas of Fayetteville. Churches of Dunn cooperated with Reverend Sidney Boone, Chairperson. This was supported by the Dunn Chamber of Commerce, and the emphasis met with great response. It seems to me that more churches were involved in Bible Study courses during the year then in preceding years and most of the churches will continue to support Key '73.

MEMBERSHIP: There was a net gain in church membership during the year. An official figure will be provided in the Journal statistical report.

TRAINING OPPORTUNITIES: A number of training sessions have been held for vacation church school workers and leadership development programs. Three sub-district training sessions were held on The Christian Stewardship and Every-Member-Commitment Program. Most of the churches have cooperated with the total program of the church.

LAITY: This is under the leadership of Mr. L. Stacy Weaver, Jr., who served his first year as District Lay Leader. The district was involved in sub-district and district programs and the District Lay Rally was well supported with Bishop Blackburn as speaker.

WOMEN OF THE CHURCH: The women of the church have been busy restructuring the women's work in the church. The two organizations, Women's Society of Christian Service, and the Service Guild, have been replaced with the United Methodist Women. Much interest has been shown in this change and most of the churches held celebrations which were the official restructuring services.

COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES: The District Council On Ministries has been effective in planning and setting up Task Forces and receiving reports on their work.

BUILDINGS AND IMPROVEMENTS: Quite a number of churches have been involved in building improvements, both of church property and parsonages. The Clinton Circuit new parsonage was dedicated in November by Bishop Blackburn. Mt. Moriah on the Hopewell-Mt. Moriah Charge has completed payment of indebtedness on the fellowship hall which will be dedicated in the fall. Lillington Church completed payment on extensive enlargement and renovation which were completed a few years ago and dedicated by Bishop Blackburn in December. Other churches have completed indebtedness on property and are planning dedicatory services. On the Marners Charge, Woodside Church has remodeled its sanctuary and built a new fellowship hall. Cool Springs Church has just begun construction of a new fellowship hall. Bathabra Church on the South River Charge has completed an educational building and Halls Church on the South River Charge is remodeling and brick veneering the entire church building. Spring Lake Church dedicated new memorial stained glass windows.

Many other things could be written about the Fayetteville District. The Conference must keep an eye on Cumberland County's growth and have some long-range plans to provide adequately for the religious and spiritual needs of the people of the county. It is moving rapidly toward becoming an urban county.

PERSONAL APPRECIATION: I regret that this is my last report of any nature that I will be expected to make to the Annual Conference. I was incapacitated much of the year due to illness which forced me to be removed from the itinerant system of appointments at Conference. I am very grateful to my church. It has been good to me. I am also grateful to the people that I have been able to serve as pastor and leader. As I assume another relationship in the church, I am very thankful for all my friends and those who have cooperated and supported the program where I have served. To my fellow pastors in the Conference, I am also indebted and grateful for the relationship which we have had as co-laborers in the work of God. I am grateful for my many friendships. I pray that this Conference will be an outstanding Conference and always support the work of Christ within its bounds and in its outreach beyond the confines of the Conference boundaries. We must be kept aware that the primary concern of the church is people and going all out and witnessing for Christ and thus leading more people into that relationship with Him. Thank You and May God Bless You All.

GOLDSBORO DISTRICT A.F. Fisher, Superintendent

It is a thrilling opportunity to make the report for the Goldsboro District to the North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. The year has been a great one for the District with many exciting and positive advancements being made. This report will numerate just a few of them.

LICENSING TO PREACH: Of singular significance was the Licensing to Preach of two young men: Mark Hodges Kennedy, Jr., who is a student at Asbury College; and Kelly Johnson Wilson, III, who will be entering the Duke Divinity School this year, and who is serving the Browning-Smith Charge. These young men offer great promise for our Conference in the services of our Lord.

FINANCES: The Goldsboro District has had a marvelous year financially. The Charges of the District accepted over 97% of the Fair-Share Asking, which was the highest percentage accepted in the Conference. The District also accepted $7,065 for Ministerial Education, $1,980 for Black Colleges, $2,885 for the Lake Junaluska Fund, and $193 for the Interdenominational Cooperation Fund. While the special funds were not underwritten in toto, excellent increases were made across the District.

Perhaps the most notable financial achievement of the year was that the Goldsboro District paid out 100.2 per cent of its Askings. This was the highest percentage paid in the Conference. It also represented the third year in a row that the Goldsboro District has paid 100 per cent of its Acceptances for the year. This is the first time that this has happened in the North Carolina Annual Conference in over twenty years.

There was in this year a positive response in increased salary support of the Pastors. The total salary support for next year for the Goldsboro District is $341,379. There is no more important concern than the concern of the churches for their pastors expressed most significantly through increased financial support.

MEMBERSHIP: It has been a fruitful year in the total added to the rolls of the churches. Our pastors report 293 people received on Profession of Faith, and an additional 372 by transfer of church letter, thus a total of 665 have been added to the rolls of the District. There has been a net loss in the District, however, because some of the churches have revised their rolls this year. There were 111 Infant Baptisms, and 196 Adult Baptisms in the Goldsboro District this year.

BUILDING DEDICATIONS: There were two Dedication services this year involving educational facilities. The Salem Church dedicated its educational building and the Mt. Carmel Church also dedicated an educational building.

RENOVATIONS: There have been a number of significant renovation programs. The parsonage at Providence was renovated on the inside after a fire partially destroyed the house. The renovation makes it one of the loveliest parsonages in the District. The parsonage at Seven Springs was also renovated on the inside. Church building renovations included work at Kenansville, St. Joseph in Pikeville, Indian Springs and Zion. A total of $215,463 was spent for new buildings, improvements on buildings and indebtedness.

DEDICATION OF PASTORS AND LAY PEOPLE: This report would be incomplete without again calling attention to the marvelous support of the pastors of the District. We have not had stronger leadership in the Goldsboro District than we have had this year. The result has been a great spirit among the pastors. I am thankful that we have been together this year.

It is also essential that a word of commendation be given to the lay people in the District. Without their commitment to the connectional church this report could not be made. The United Methodist Church is ably represented in this area by our lay people who have truly been God's witnesses in this place in these times.

GREENVILLE DISTRICT

Howard M. McLamb, Superintendent

MEMBERSHIP AND EVANGELISM: We received 757, including 306 by profession of faith.

FINANCES: Pastor's salaries increased $20,663, or 6.5% with 36% of the 40 charges sharing in the increase. Single Figure payments for 1972-73 were 99.1% of acceptance.

BUILDING PROGRAMS: Grifton entered its new $200,000 sanctuary. Holy Trinity's first unit will be occupied this summer. A fellowship hall at Woodington is under construction. The Robersonville parsonage has been renovated at a cost of $10,000. Tarboro: St. James has bought a new parsonage at a cost of $53,000. Williamston has renovated the sanctuary. Hobucken has renovated the sanctuary and installed new pews. Lane's Chapel has renovated the sanctuary.

In the planning stage: Pinetops, a new sanctuary; Temperance Hall, a new fellowship building; Bethany (Kinston Ct.), a new fellowship hall and renovation and brick veneering the sanctuary; a first unit for the new Chocowinity church which is now using trailers; renovation of the sanctuary and brick veneering the building at Noble's Chapel.

CHURCH EXTENSION: The Greenville District United Methodist Society continues strong in its support of smaller churches in getting needed facilities and new churches as there is opportunity. Pledges and gifts since Christmas have totaled more than $8,000. Support has been given to Bethany (Kinston Ct.), St. Mark's, Chocowinity, Macedonia, Holy Trinity, and Belhaven. We expect to build the first unit at Chocowinity this conference year.

A SINCERE THANK YOU: We have wonderful preachers and laymen in the Greenville District. We have teamwork and enthusiasm and a sense of mission in our worship, service, and Kingdom building. We give the credit to the preachers and lay people for the fine work of the Greenville District during the past year.

NEW BERN DISTRICT

Charles Mercer, Superintendent

Many competent and devoted workers have labored faithfully within the New Bern District during the Conference Year 1972-1973. Some of the results are very evident and can be recorded with gratitude and enthusiasm. Some seeds have been planted and their development will enrich the future. Other meaningful results are known only to God and the individual lives in which His grace has been efficacious.

MEMBERSHIP: We have received 318 new members on profession of faith and 458 by transfer. 126 infants have been baptized and added to our preparatory rolls.

BUILDING IMPROVEMENTS: Many churches continue to improve their physical facilities. The Richlands Church has almost completed a new educational building at the cost of about $200,000. Trinity Church, Jacksonville, has installed a new organ at the cost of $40,000. The Churches of the District have spent $109,173 on renovation and repairs. Four churches have paid off all indebtedness during the year? namely, St. Peter's, Queens Creek, Beulaville, and Riverside. Three other churches have already made definite plans to complete their indebtedness before the end of 1973. They are Atlantic, Maysville, and Midway. $226,362 has been paid by the Churches of the District on indebtedness and interest during the year. Churches now in the process of planning new buildings are Clark's, Salter Path, Harkers Island, Marshallberg, and Franklin Memorial.

SPECIAL PROJECTS: Many events of special significance have occurred in the Churches of the District. Among them are the following:

1. Trinity Church, Jacksonville, has received 146 new members.
2. Bridgeton Church experienced a 20% growth in attendance.
3. Several churches have organized effective youth choirs.
4. Centenary Church, New Bern, had her Bicentennial Celebration in October, 1972.
5. St. James Church, Newport, had a very successful Easter Arts Festival which included a musical program, an arts and crafts exhibit, and a one-act play.
6. The three churches of the Trenton Charge have engaged effectively in Charge planning.
7. Most churches have been involved in Key '73.
8. The Bogue Banks Ministry continues as an effective ecumenical effort.

FINANCES: The response of the churches as they plan for next year has been excellent. Most churches have increased all budget items and all churches have increased some Conference items. Pastor's salaries have been increased by $21,000. and connectional items by about the same amount.

Reports from all churches indicate the spirit is good and the attitudes of the membership are excellent. We have kept the faith!

RALEIGH DISTRICT

J.W. Page, Superintendent

The following report of the Raleigh District for 1972-1973 is the record of achievement of 55 active ministers, several ministers serving special appointments, and 25,650 laymen. This report represents 9 fewer charges than the 1971-1972 report. When the new Rockingham District was set up at the 1972 Annual Conference, the Raleigh District lost the following Charges: Henderson: First, City Road, White Memorial; Tabernacle, Rehoboth-Harris Chapel, Holly Springs, Fuquay-Varina, Wendell and Zebulon. The Single Figure Acceptance for 1972-1973 represents a 17.2% increase over the preceding year, and the ministers' salaries represent a 5% increase. For the Conference year 1973 (7 months), the following increases have been accepted by the Charges of the Raleigh District: Single Figure 6.2%; ministers' salaries 10.5%.

RALEIGH DISTRICT COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES: the program of the Raleigh District was planned carefully in each area by the District Council on Ministries following the plans presented by the Conference Council and considering the concerns of the local churches. Rev. O.L. Hathaway, staff representative assigned to the Raleigh District, gave great leadership.

BOARD OF THE LAITY: Mr. Bruce Hargrove, the Lay Leader for the Raleigh District, gave wise leadership in the program of the Laity in the District and in the Conference. The Lay Rally in February was planned and carried out, and Layman's Day was observed in October. Methodist Men, Stewardship and Eevangelism claimed the attention of the Lay Leader. Plans have been made for Summer R & R., and the National meeting of the Laity at Purdue University this Summer. The Lay and Clerical members of the Annual Conference met at Hayes Barton Church on Sunday, May 20th to study The Book of Recommendations for the Annual Conference.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN: Under the inspiring leadership of Mrs. J.O. Watson, District President, the Women have had several celebrations on the local, sub-district and district levels in making the change from Women's Society of Christian Service to the new organization, UNITED METHODIST WOMEN. The Raleigh District is proud of its women for their great programs of service and inspiration and realizes that without them, our Raleigh District record would not be what it is. Mrs. Alton P. Tripp is the new District President, and she is already "in harness" and pulling her share of the load. "Good to have you aboard, Louise."

CONFERENCE COUNCIL LAY REPRESENTATIVE: The lay representative on the Conference Council on Ministries is Mr. L. Merritt Jones. Mr. Jones is an outstanding member of Hayes Barton United Methodist Church, the Chairperson of Board of Trustees of the Methodist Home for Children, and a valuable and hard-working member of the Board of Pensions. He has given sound guidance to the District Council on Ministries, and for all his help in so many ways we are in his debt.

A TRIBUTE TO THE MINISTERS AND THE LAITY: this has been a very productive year for the Raleigh District, and the credit must be given to the dedicated laymen and ministers who by their work and sacrificial service made it all possible. My sincere appreciation is hereby expressed to each one who had a part in making the Raleigh District report what it is. Let us not tarry in the land of reflection for the old year is gone, and the new year is upon us. Let us kneel in prayer for the guidance and help of God, and then, let us rise with renewed vigor and be about the task of our Father's Kingdom in the new conference year. In the new year let us pray for each other.

HAPPENINGS IN THE RALEIGH DISTRICT 1972-1973:

1. N.C. CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE has been presented to each charge in the District: 11 Charges send the Advocate to each member of the Administrative Board. There has been an over-all increase in subscription.
2. Cary: First: has launched a $275,000.00 building and renovation program and plans to purchase a house for $22,000.000.
3. Louisburg Church: provides free housing for Franklin County Child Development Center for mentally retarded children.
4. Clayton: Horne Memorial: extensively repaired and redecorated the church and installed a new organ this year at a cost of $15,000.00.
5. Franklinton: Bishop Blackburn dedicated the new Education Building. Wesley's Chapel has added a lovely fellowship hall.
6. Gillburg: Bishop Blackburn dedicated the new Church on Sunday night, May 20, 1973. It was three years to the day from when the old church burned until the new Church was dedicated.
7. Knightdale: The lovely new parsonage at Knightdale was dedicated by this year by Bishop Blackburn.
8. Middleburg: Extensive repairs and redecoration was done at the Cokesbury Church.
9. Mt. Zion: Bishop Blackburn dedicated the lovely and comfortable new parsonage. The church has been air conditioned.
10. Millbrook: held the consecration service and formal opening of their new Educational Building.

1. North Raleigh: completed the first unit of their church and started worship there in March; Bishop Blackburn and several other ministers held the formal opening and consecration service in April. North Raleigh United Methodist Church bought a new parsonage and the minister moved into it in April.
2. Raleigh: Wesley Memorial: paved the parking lot. This is a great improvement.
3. Raleigh: Westover: purchased a lovely new parsonage in May.
4. Raleigh: Wilson Temple: The United Methodist Men received the Bishop's Award.
5. Union Chapel: The church was brick-veneered and other repairs and redecorations were accomplished. Several repairs and redecorations were done at the parsonage.
6. Raleigh: Wynnwood Park: Because of a very generous gift, new pews have been added to the church.

These are some of the things that have been done this year in several of the Churches of the district, but in a very real sense each church and each minister is to be commended for the fine work done this year.

ROCKINGHAM DISTRICT Joyce V. Early, Superintendent

The new Rockingham District was formally organized at a special district conference which was held in Laurel Hill on Sunday afternoon, July 23, 1973. The large attendance of 277 reflected a deep interest on the part of preachers and laymen alike. Trustees were elected, a district budget of $11,000 adopted, and a Council on Ministries set up. This tri-racial district has had an unusually good year. We are grateful for the good cooperation of these wonderful people.

CHRISTIAN NURTURE AND EVANGELISM: A total of 679 new members have been received of which 388 were by profession of faith. Present total district membership is 15,924. Our pastors baptized 179 infants. A second Confirmation Lab was held at Prospect Church with twelve pastors participating. A Pilot Lab for Council On Ministries Chairperson-Chairperson of Administrative Boards was held jointly with the Sanford District, the first to be held in the conference.

A Conference Training session was held for Consultants to small churches. Eight of our pastors received this training and have assisted some of our smaller churches with good success. A spiritual-life retreat for pastors was held with Dr. A. Purnell Bailey, leader.

The churches have given emphasis to Key '73. Inter-faith meetings have been held, Bible studies held, and plans for future work together made.

BUILDING PROJECTS: Rhyne Memorial, Red Springs, completed its remodeling project at a cost of $56,000.00. The Duke Endowment and the Conference $10 Club, together with the congregation gave generously toward this work.

A long-dreamed-of education building for Caledonia Church was realized. The cost was $47,000.00 with only $12,000.00 due. This small church has raised $35,000, including $4,500 from the Duke Endowment. Caledonia was selected to receive the Church of the Year Award for churches under 500 membership.

An $80,000.00 Education Building was completed at Rowland with a balance due of only $20,000.00. This welcome addition will be consecrated for use this summer.

DEBTS PAID: Pleasant Hill on the Pleasant Hill-Ashpole Charge paid in full. Sandy Plains debt on Education Building paid. Central, Laurinburg: parsonage debt liquidated. Ellerbe: parsonage debt paid. Laurinburg: First: a $65,000.00 note against its property paid. Laurinburg: Galilee Charge: Beaver Dam Church note paid, and building dedicated in November 1972. Rockingham: First: $100,000 improvement to property completed.

BUILDINGS PLANNED: Lumberton, Chestnut Street: plans for a new Youth and Education Building

Beauty Spot: plans to improve sanctuary and acquire a nearby school building for church uses.

Ledbetter: has acquired land and plans to build an Education Building.

Salem: is remodeling Church and adding an education building.

Ashpole: planning purchase additional land and build a new church.

Hickory Grove: plans soon to start on education building.

Philadelphus: has purchased a building site for a new church.

DISTRICT FINANCES: The district has been in second place all year in the percentage paid monthly on the Single Figure acceptances. The charges have accepted 97% of the amount asked of them for the seven months year. This is an increase of 7.8%. Twenty-nine charges have reached or exceeded their Fair Share Quota, and the Rockingham District has exceeded the Fair Share by $7500.00! Only 7 of the 9 charges did not accept an increase, and four of these had already reached their Fair Share. Thirty-nine charges accepted their apportionment for the Black Colleges and the others will receive an offering for this cause. The district accepted $9,203.00 on an asking of $11,613.00 for Ministerial Education; and $513.00 on an asking of $757.00 for the Interdenominational Cooperation Fund.

PASTORS' SALARIES: The salaries for our pastors have been increased by $21,746.00, or 6.5%. All but six charges increased the salary.

MINISTERIAL RECRUITS: Eighteen young men have answered the call to the Christian Ministry this year! These are from the following churches: Caledonia 6; Rockingham, First, 4; Chestnut Street, 4; Pee Dee 2; Hamlet, First 1; and Mt. Olive 1. Three of these will be in seminary this fall, serving student appointments.

LAY ACTIVITIES: A large number, 757, attended the Lay Rally in Laurinburg, and a total of 644 attended the district conference in Lumberton. A Lay Speakers' training session was held with Charles McCullers, leader. Three sub-district stewardship seminars were held with 147 attending.

The Rockingham District has had a wonderful year. The spirit of Christian brotherhood and good will is very evident. We are grateful for the labors of the consecrated laypersons and pastors who have made this such an outstanding year.

ROCKY MOUNT DISTRICT

Paul Carruth, Superintendent

The Rocky Mount District added 231 souls to the life of the Church by profession of faith, and 378 by transfer of their Church letters. A total of 634 additions may seem modest for a District of 19,000 Methodists, but these are bright signs of promise in some communities where population growth is minimal. Wendell added thirty names to her membership, a number larger than that of the past five years combined.

BUILDING PROJECTS: Man is a builder and gives the sign of the value of his faith to him in the religious buildings he erects. The Rocky Mount District raised $332,868.00 for building and improvements during 1972-1973. Several notable additions were made to our properties. On October 12, services were initiated in a beautiful new church at Scotland Neck. Complete renovation of the Wendell church has been accomplished. The construction of the Shiloh church is under way. Calvary church has installed and paid for a new heating and air conditioning system. Littleton has carried out extensive repairs to interior and exterior of the church, and has painted the interior. Middlesex has raised the necessary amounts to retire the indebtedness on the church ahead of schedule. Spring Hope expects to complete the retirement of the new parsonage indebtedness this summer. Nashville has paid for and celebrated the dedication of the new parsonage. The indebtedness of Rosemary church for the educational facility has been removed, and the building has been dedicated by Bishop Blackburn. The bishop has also dedicated the remodeled church at Evansdale, the educational building at Black Creek, and the church of Hawkins Chapel. Clark Street has improved the church property and installed a new heating and air conditioning system in the parsonage. The District has approved the construction of a new district parsonage. A lot has been purchased, and upon the final completion of plans and specifications, it is anticipated that a contract will be let by the time of the meeting of Annual Conference.

KEY '73 PROJECTS: Property is of value only as it enables the Church to carry out her mission to evangelize and nurture mankind in our Holy religion. Signs of this labor are seen in the reports relating to Key '73. Methodist in the northern part of the district led in an ecumenical, interracial Key '73 preaching mission. This effort prompted reports that this Key

'73 venture was the most important event in the life of a number of our churches. Other cumenical services and involvement in community projects are reported from Baily, Bethesda, Halifax, Hawkins-Tabor, and Zebulon. These projects range from the provision of a hut for scouting to the conduct of a literacy class for persons deficient in reading skills. Projects to involve persons across racial lines have taken place in increasing numbers across the district with varying success. Drug abuse projects have ranged from a district seminar to elevate the skills of pastors in relating effectively to such problems, to local community education projects sponsored or led by Methodist people.

Youth ministry has received considerable attention, and First Church, Roanoke Rapids reports the tripling of this ministry this year. Youth choirs, youth retreats, projects led by youth are seen as a growing achievement in such ministry.

Not the least of the district work relates to work with senior citizens. The formation of retired citizens social groups in local churches, regular visitation projects by members to nursing homes, and a project in which nursing home persons are brought, even in wheel chairs, to the church on a regular basis, to participate in worship are indications of serious involvement with the elderly.

In this time when the Church School is being criticized, it is good to report that at Whitakers, a Key '73 Class of young adults has been formed, and has engaged itself in recruiting and attendance activities which have brought the attendance record to its highest level in five years. Wendell has experienced a doubling of attendance in church school attendance this year. Teachers from over the district have participated in the preparation for "Living Bible Series" which begins in the near future.

We regret we have not accomplished more. Our stewardship of our resources and opportunities is still deficient in many ways. But, in the words of one pastor, "We have survived and experienced growth." For this, we praise God; and with His help, we hope to bring Him greater honor with reports of our stewardship when another year is past.

SANFORD DISTRICT

James H. McCallum, Superintendent

The Sanford District has had another good year. All charges involved in the change of the District's boundaries have heartily supported the District programs. I am eternally grateful to those persons who wrote to me and those who visited the parsonage, stating their support to me and of the work of the District. The pastors and the laity have been most helpful.

MEMBERSHIP AND FINANCES: There has been a total of 429 persons added by profession of faith. Ninety-six per cent of the Single Figure Acceptance has been paid and 89% of the Single Figure Asking has been accepted. The salaries of the pastors have been increased by 9%.

CHRISTIAN NURTURE AND EVANGELISM: The Council On Ministries has greatly supported the District and Conference programs. Two Stewardship Emphasis Workshops were held. The Lay Rally was largely attended and those attending heard Bishop Blackburn and our Conference Lay Leader, Grier L. Garrick, speak. T. Roy Phillips, Lay Leader, Mrs. C.P. McMillian, President of the United Methodist Women, and Reba Allred, President of the United Methodist Youth Fellowship, have led their respective groups in a marvelous manner. More than 1,500 persons heard our Missionary Speaker during the week of her itinerancy. Sixty-seven Lay Speakers supplied the pulpits during the "No Silent Pulpit" period. These wonderful Lay Speakers fulfilled 142 engagements, speaking to an average of 40 per congregation. There has been a Workshop for the Vacation Church School, the Children's Choir, and the "Our Living Bible Series."

BUILDING PROJECTS: A new parsonage has been purchased by the Steele Street congregation and the new church building will be completed by early fall. The Union Grove Church building has been completed. The following are now being renovated with additions: Poplar Springs, Pinebluff, Candor, Southern Pines, Siler City: First, and Troy: Trinity. A Service of Dedication has been held for each of the following: Center Church Parsonage, Biscoe Church Education Building, and Hickory Grove Education Building. Several other charges have improved their physical plants. The District parsonage balance is $9,781.83.

This has been a very good year for the Sanford District and I am certain that greater achievements are yet to be accomplished. We march on in God's name.

WILMINGTON DISTRICT

W.J. Neese, Superintendent

I am profoundly grateful for the spirit of cooperation and the diligent and enthusiastic service of many dedicated Christian — laity and clergy alike — within the bounds of the Wilmington District. On their behalf, I am pleased to make this report to the North Carolina Annual Conference.

MEMBERSHIP: Pastors' reports indicate that we received a total of 811 members during the year. 263 of these were received by profession of faith, 379 by certificate of transfer, and 169 from other denominations. Losses reached a total of 732: by certificate of transfer, 244; to other denominations, 92; by death, 150; and by withdrawal and by charge conference action, 246. We had a net gain of 79, and there are 15,219 members in the district at present.

7,940 persons were reported as being enrolled in the church schools of the district, and there was an average attendance of about 4,455. There are 19 United Methodist Men's groups with a total of 504 members. There are 1,851 members in 55 societies of the United Methodist Women. United Methodist Youth Fellowship groups number 48 with a total of 791 members.

FINANCES: Salaries promised to pastors by the charges of the district during the year just past amounted to $307,677, and practically every pastor received his salary in full. Salaries promised for the coming year on a 7 months basis amount to $191,887, or $328,940 if extended to 12 months. Single Figure Acceptances this year amounted to $187,120. Most of the charges paid their acceptances in full, although four or five failed to do so. Acceptances for the coming year amount to $135,162 for 7 months, or $205,233 if that figure were extended to 12 months.

BUILDING PROJECTS: New parsonages have been built this year at Dublin and Wilmington; Oleander.

Indebtedness has been paid in full on the following buildings: Carolina Beach: St. Paul (dedicated October 8, 1972); Burgaw Educational Building (dedicated February 4, 1973); Lake Waccamaw (dedicated April 1, 1973); Tabor City: St. Paul (dedicated May 20, 1973); Riegelwood: Wesley; Bethesda (Old Dock); and Shiloh and the sanctuary carpeted at Pleasant Grove (Dublin); sanctuary in process of renovation at Burgaw; sanctuary renovated at Wilmington: Fifth Avenue; extensive renovation and repairs to the fellowship hall, kitchen, and class rooms at Centenary (Harrells); renovation and repairs to Mishop Springs and Peace churches (Whiteville Ct.); and central heat, air conditioning, and new carpeting at Hallsboro.

Projected building programs include: a new sanctuary building at Shiloh (Town Creek) additional class rooms and building to be brick-veneered at Zion (Town Creek); and a new sanctuary building at Wilmington: Pine Valley

SPECIAL PROJECTS: Yaupon and Long Beaches, Carolina Beach, and Wrightsville Beach are involved in very effective resort ministries under the sponsorship of the Cape Fear Area Resort Ministries — C-FARM.

Grace Church in Wilmington observed its 175th Anniversary this year with several very interesting and well-planned events.

The Greater Wilmington United Methodist Ministry was organized this year and is serving well as an agency of inter-church cooperation. We expect this organization to provide a means of achieving unity among our churches and a coordination of our program and mission.

In my opinion we have had a good year, and credit is due the good people of the Wilmington District.

Committee on Church School Ministry

A look at some statistics will reveal that a shift in leadership development is underway in the North Carolina Annual Conference. It appears that we are moving away from large-scale training events (tri-district, district, sub-district) to local church and cluster group meetings. The following report illustrates this trend:

1. During the year, two Confirmation Laboratories for Pastors were held (Rockingham and Durham Districts) reaching a total of 17 leaders-in-training. Last year five such laboratories were held reaching 55 leaders-in-training. The conference goal of every pastor receiving this training has not yet been reached.

2. Two other laboratory enterprises were held during the year with seven churches taking part, the same as last year.

3. Four Christian Workers' Schools have been held this year with the best success achieved in the Burlington District (233 enrolled). Across the conference, 65 churches were involved in such schools with 318 persons enrolled (including the Burlington School). Last year, 9 Christian Workers' Schools reached more than 70 churches, with no total enrollment available, but surely greater than this year.

4. The shift in leadership education is best seen when we look to local church and cluster group workshops. Last conference year, 11 workshops involved more than 175 local church leaders. This year, 18 such training events have reached 19 different churches and a total of 378 persons, double the number from last year. These figures do not include attendance at 29 adult curriculum workshops to introduce the new "Adult Bible Series" held in April and May and reaching between 600 and 900 local church leaders.

5. Other training events held during the year have been: An interdenominational INSTRUCT-TEACH Workshop with 30 persons in attendance; an orientation workshop for new pastors and D.C.E.'s reaching 30 persons; a consultation on working with local church Councils on Ministries and Administrative Boards, held at Galilee United Methodist Church in Laurinburg; a one-day training session for consultants to churches of small membership involved 18 potential consultants; a pilot Council on Ministries/Administrative Board Laboratory-type Training Session was held April 5-7 at First United Methodist Church, Pembroke, involving sixty persons from nine churches in the Rockingham and Sanford Districts and eleven persons in a Seminar for Prospective COM/AB Laboratory instructors held in connection with the Lab; three persons attended the Seminar for Prospective Laboratory Leaders at Lake Junaluska; seventeen persons from our conference received training in labs at Lake Junaluska; twenty persons participated in the Learning Center at Lake Junaluska; four local church building consultations were held.

Vacation Church School Workshops: Workshops were held in each district reaching approximately 800 workers.

Children's Curriculum and Music Workshops: Pilot plan given in Raleigh and copies of the plan were distributed to other districts.

Cassette Tape Series: Copies of the "Communicating the Faith with Children" cassette tape series have been circulated among the district coordinators of children's ministry. Districts encouraged to purchase a set.

Children's Choir Festivals: Detailed plan for festival sent to musician and district coordinator in each district. Decisions on the festivals are made within the districts.

Infant and Child Day Care: A packet of materials on day care is prepared and available to persons requesting it.

Learning Center and Leadership School: Materials on these experiences at Lake Junaluska were distributed.

Recognition of Persons in Teaching Ministry in the Local Church: A list of suggestions has been prepared and mailed to local church coordinators and in the pastors' coordinated mailing.

Section C
Committee on Youth Ministry

Trail Hike: 18 persons took part in last summer's experience.

Camping Ministry: 10 participated in Aquatics Camp at Camp Kerr Lake. Approximately 750 youth were involved in other conference camps.

A.C.S.: Attendance at the 1972 A.C.S. was 325. The theme "Give . . ." was developed with the help of the guest resource person, the Reverend Howard Hanger of Atlanta.

United Nations-Washington Study Tour: 41 Senior High youth took part in this experience in March.

Explore Weekend: 18 youth participated in this vocations weekend opportunity . . . almost double last year's number.

Group Dynamics for Youth Committee: Members of the Conference Committee on Youth Ministry held a retreat at the Pee Dee River to learn how to work in a group and how to get the job done.

Conference Youth Rally: About 2,000 youth attended the rally at Duke University where the theme "Just A Celebration" was developed.

R & R: The 1972 R & R offered a course in youth ministry. Youth were on the planning committee to give some youth voice to the planning.

Local Church Study Tours: The conference staff gave help to four groups in planning for their own Washington and/or United Nations Tours.

Scholarship Funds: The Council on Youth Ministry made scholarships available for Black and Indian youth to enable them to attend summer opportunities.

Church Wide Studies: Each local church was urged to get the youth involved in church wide studies.

Counselor-in-Training: The Council on Youth Ministry recruited counselors-in-training for the Camps for the Mentally Retarded. Response was good.

Junior High Workshop: 166 attended this event held on the campus of North Carolina Wesleyan College.

Seniors High Workshop: 223 attended this workshop at North Carolina Wesleyan College.

Youth Music Workshop: 56 attended the second Youth Music Workshop held at Methodist College.

Youth Responsibilities: As further Youth Involvement Series come off the press information has been sent to local churches. Each district selected two persons to attend the North Carolina Annual Conference as youth/young adult representatives.

State Government Study Tour: 45 attended this first experience to learn more about the State Legislature.

Shared Time Religious Instruction: A task force was appointed to study the opportunities already offered and to attempt to begin shared time in at least one designated area. The task force is still working on this.

Trick or Treat for UNICEF: Encouraged local churches to "Trick or Treat for UNICEF".

Guidance Center: Held at North Carolina Wesleyan College.

Bishop's Meeting with Young Methodists: These were held in Raleigh, Greenville and Fayetteville.

Youth Evangelism: Local churches have been urged to involve youth with Key '73. Training workshops were held; 1,800 attended Key '73 Youth Festival.

Youth Service Fund: Local churches are urged to promote Youth Service Fund. District Youth Councils were urged to promote YSF at district rallies.

Family Camp was held at Camp Don-Lee August 19-25 with 217 children, youth, and adults in attendance for the two sessions.

Increased interest is being shown in ministries to young adults. A workshop on young adults ministries will be held at Camp Don-Lee June 8-10, 1973.

Many local churches and clusters of churches have conducted teaching/learning workshops or the development of adult leaders.

A workshop was held for conference leaders on Introducing the "Our Living Bible Series." District and area workshops were held for local church adult leaders to introduce the "Our Living Bible Series." This new series will be available to the local church beginning September, 1973. The series is a study of the whole Bible, covering every major idea, every major event, and every major personality in the Bible.

Committee Report

There are currently forty-one workers in Christian education in the North Carolina Annual Conference. Four are Ministers of Education; twelve are Directors of Christian Education; one is an Associate in Christian Education; and twenty-four are Educational Assistants.

This year, for the first time, educational workers new to our conference participated in the "Orientation Workshop for New Pastors" held this past summer.

It is a recognized fact that these workers are concerned about the work of Christ and the Church in our conference. Their activity has been vital in directing or teaching in many of the Leadership Development Enterprises held in our conference to help equip persons for ministry.

We encourage more churches to employ full-time workers in Christian education as an effective way of improving their educational ministry. All churches employing education workers should support their ministry in every way.

We encourage local churches, District Councils on Ministries, and the Conference Council on Ministries to call upon these Christian educators for assistance in fostering the educational process and in the training of leaders.

Section G
 Committee on Camping Ministry
 Dr. J. S. Blair, Jr., Chairperson

1. The 1972 Summer Camp program attendance was 2,559, up about 900 (54%) above 1971. This increase was due to greater activity at Kerr Lake, Rockfish, and Chestnut Ridge. Camp Don-Lee has been operating near capacity in the summer for a number of years.

2. The 1972 use of the four camps by groups other than resident summer camp totaled 6,224. This significant feature in this figure is an increase of 400 persons in one-night and two-night retreat groups over the previous year.

3. Family Camping at Kerr Lake will take on new dimensions because of the new Family Camp Area this year. The new bath house is dedicated to Edenton Street United Methodist Church in recognition of their participation in the Camp Crusade. About 15 tent-trailer sites and a beautiful playground area will be part of this addition to our Methodist Camp on Kerr Lake.

4. Our North Carolina Conference camping opportunities for the handicapped are enhanced because of a Mental Health grant of $20,000. This special program at Chestnut Ridge is providing training for parents, teachers, and student teachers, as well as camping experiences for the handicapped.

5. The American Camping Association, through its Fund for the Advancement of Camping, made a second award to our camps this year. Their incentive grant of $250 will go toward the production of a film to report on our camps for the mentally retarded.

6. Another milestone in our conference camps in 1972 was the granting of Accreditation to Chestnut Ridge by the American Camping Association. Camp Don-Lee's Accreditation was also renewed this year. This means that the camps conform to the high standards set by ACA.

7. At Camp Rockfish the new Day Use Area is under construction and will be opened this summer. Featured in this area will be the new Pavilion donated by the Chestnut Street Church in Lumberton.

8. A resident manager has been added at Camp Rockfish which has strengthened the program for retreat and day use groups.

9. A matching-challenge grant of $20,000 was given to Camp Don-Lee this year by Mr. Bill Price of Burlington toward a new Staff House Retreat Center. The Committee on Camping Ministry has been given authorization to seek to secure the matching funds from individuals and groups.

10. The other major development at Camp Don-Lee this year was the addition of a new central sewage disposal system at a cost of approximately $20,000.

11. Our conference was represented at the American Camping Association Convention in tsburgh this year by Reverend R. Keith Glover, Coordinator of Camping Ministry, and Reverend David Lupton from the Camp Don-Lee staff. It was there that the incentive grant was made to our program for the mentally retarded.

12. For the first time in history, the ACA National Convention will be held in the South in February, 1974. The North Carolina Conference is represented on the Program Committee by Reverend R. Keith Glover.

13. Camp Chestnut Ridge was host to a Camp Staff Training Workshop in May sponsored by the North Carolina Council of Churches Leadership Development Committee.

14. Camp Rockfish was host to a Day Camp Workshop for planners and leaders in Church Day Camps.

15. Two exploratory canoe trips were conducted down the Cape Fear River and its tributaries: North Hope River, Haw River, and Rockfish Creek. Two similar trips are planned for this year.

THE COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS

The committee has examined the district records for eleven of the twelve districts and we find them to be in order.

We recommend that the most current records be placed at the front of the binder for easy access.

We recommend that the official binders for District Conference Records be used by those districts not now using them.

THE DUKE ENDOWMENT

June 1, 1972 - May 31, 1973

Almost one-half of the Methodists in the State of North Carolina are members of United Methodist Churches located in rural communities (Less than 1,500 population). Upon these Methodists, individuals and congregations, rests a responsibility, not simply to maintain buildings and organizations in order to survive, but to be engaged in a dynamic mission. The Duke Endowment is pleased to be a member of the team, composed of the local rural church and the district and conference agencies, that pools resources for this joint effort.

Specific attention is being given to the development of strong rural pastoral charges, long-range planning, continuing education, and the development of lay leadership.

THE COMMISSION ON ENLISTMENT FOR CHURCH OCCUPATIONS

The need for additional ministers, directors and ministers of education, deaconesses, ministers of music, missionaries, inner-city workers, volunteer service personnel, teachers in higher education and workers in many other areas of the church's work continues to be an acute challenge to the church. With so many professional and industrial concerns competing for the best of our youth and the most talented graduates of our colleges, the church faces ever increasing competition for dedicated young people and second career people to fill the vacancies in the church.

It is to these needs that the members of the Conference Commission on Enlistment for Church Occupations have addressed themselves this year. This has been in the following ways:

1. Feeling the great importance of recognizing MINISTRY SUNDAY in the local church, letters of urgency went out to each minister stressing the value of their sincere treatment of this opportunity to tell others about full-time service for Christ. The third Sunday in September was recommended to them.
2. The Commission for several years has kept a central filing system on those persons interested in the pastoral ministry and other church employment. This past year this file has been totally revised and brought up to date.
3. The opportunity was presented to every sophomore, junior, and senior in this Conference to attend the Testing and Guidance Clinics held two week-ends, March 9-10 and March 30-31, at Wesleyan College in Rocky Mount. Although the final report was not immediately available at this reporting time, more could and should have been tested to discover those latent possibilities which God has given to each person.
4. A brochure on "VOCATION AND CHURCH CAREERS" was made available to all District and Conference ministers who desired one. These are of great value in counselling with anyone wishing to settle on a church career.
5. Reports are being gathered even now concerning the many scholarships and aid given through the offerings received at all the Lay Rallies held throughout our Conference. These offerings are to be used for this purpose only.

Argel H. Payne, Secretary

COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE ENTERTAINMENT

We express our deep sense of appreciation to Methodist College for serving so acceptably as our host again for our Annual Conference session.

Pursuant to the responsibilities assigned to this Committee we offer the following recommendations for adoption by the Annual Conference:

1. It is recommended that Annual Conference be held at Methodist College and N.C. Wesleyan College on alternating years (held at Methodist College until Wesleyan has an auditorium) except at such times that a local church wishes to host Annual Conference as a part of a special celebration in the life of that church.
2. It is recommended that the cabinet designate a district each year on a rotating basis as the host district which will be responsible for music, ushers, registrars and other related items.

If these recommendations are accepted by the Council on Finance and Administration, the Cabinet and the 1973 session of the N. C. Conference, the implementation procedure will have to be worked out. The first 620 people requesting campus housing will be accommodated in the dormitories; all others will be responsible for securing their own lodging. If campus housing is requested, it will be for the entire conference.

W. P. Lowdermilk, Secretary

THE DIVISION OF EVANGELISM

In the area of evangelism, this has been a new and exciting year in our North Carolina Conference. The excitement has come through Key '73, and the multiple opportunities it has offered the local church to express its evangelistic mission. But this report will focus upon the highlights of our involvement, with attention being given to the special events that have made our participation significant.

1. All District Directors participated in the Key '73 orientation and training program at Lake Junaluska last August in preparation for presenting Key '73 to the local churches in our Conference.

2. Team leaders, made up of our Division members, introduced Key '73 to our Conference in the fall of '72. The introduction was at the District level, involving pastors, and leaders in evangelism in all local churches.
3. Early in January of '73, all pastors submitted to Bishop Blackburn reports of their church's involvement in Key '73, and listed the activities in which they were to be engaged. Out of these reports there emerged a consistent pattern of involvement that seemed to characterize most of our churches, and that participation was as follows:
 - a. The organizing of viewing and discussion groups for the Key '73 telecast, "Faith in Action."
 - b. Wide participation in the Phase I Noon Prayer Call.
 - c. Wide observance of Launch Sunday on January 7, 1973, and the special covenant service connected with it.
 - d. Extensive studies of Luke-Acts Bible study series during Lent of '73.
 - e. Cooperative and community-wide preaching missions.
 - f. An ecumenical Youth Festival in Memorial Auditorium in Raleigh in March of '73, involving many denominational youth groups within the bounds of our Conference.
4. Reverend Jimmy Bass, Coordinator of Youth Ministries for our General Board of Evangelism, conducted leadership conferences with pastors, youth counsellors, and leaders, in the Raleigh, Fayetteville and Greenville Districts.
5. The Division will continue to give leadership and guidance to the Conference in Key '73, and in evangelism in general, during the 1973-74 Conference year.

The Division gratefully acknowledges the faithful service of the late Reverend George Hart Tyson, who at the time of his death was an active member of this Division, and extend our love and prayers to his family.

The Division recommends the reappointment of the Reverend Tommy Tyson, and the Reverend Joseph H. Kinkle, as Approved Evangelists for the 1973-74 Conference year, and express our deep appreciation for their ministries.

M. Dewey Tyson, Chairperson

THE METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC., 1972-73

The past year, our 18th, has again reflected a generally favorable performance. Estimated annual income is now in excess of $190,000. During the past year we have again experienced a rather weak equities market — and a stronger than average fixed income market. Interest rates on new fixed income investments continue to improve. This has encouraged a slight shift in our investment policy as follows:

- (1) More attention to performance on individual companies and industries within the equity sector,
- (2) A consolidation of fixed income securities into $100,000 units - making possible advantageous trading opportunities as the market dictates, and
- (3) A more aggressive build-up of our real estate portfolio in the 8½% income range and above.

All of these adjustments should reflect a continuing improvement in our overall performance and disposable income during the coming year.

S. L. Guiledge, Jr. President

THE REGIONAL COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

With a newly constituted membership for the 1972-1976 quadrennium the Regional Commission, joining the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Annual Conferences in higher education and in campus ministry, has sought to strengthen its existing ministries. In addition,

It has been working with representatives of other denominations in a two-pronged effort (1) to find ways of combining ministries and (2) to establish a clearer understanding of the goals and modes of these ministries. Members of the Commission participated in a two-day consultation with denominational leaders and United Ministries in Higher Education personnel at Charlotte in February, 1973.

The great work in the Commission's area of responsibility has been done this year, as in all years, by the campus ministers. Given the mountainous task of influencing our populous campuses, they work with all too little support from the church at large and with inadequate funds for implementing their creative programs. Local congregations are urged to invite these ministers to visit their people and interpret the work they are doing.

Our campus minister staff for the year has included: William T. Brown, A&T State University; Manuel Wortman, Appalachian State University; Cathy Carlson, Duke University; Dan Earnhardt, East Carolina University; Robert G. Murray, North Carolina Central University; J. J. Juren, Pembroke State University; Neal McGlamery and Sheryl Scrimsher, North Carolina State University; Robert L. Johnson and Susan K. Dunn (Program Associate), UNC-Chapel Hill; David Frye, UNC-Charlotte; Douglas Camp, UNC-Greensboro; George C. Weekley, Western Carolina State University; Mark S. Rose, Winston-Salem State University, Wake Forest, Salem, North Carolina School of the Arts.

William T. Brown, longtime minister at A&T State University has submitted his resignation to accept the presidency of Martin Luther King, Jr. University.

A chief work of the Commission this year was the sponsorship of The Bishops' Conference on Higher Education in June, 1972. With a theme "The College-Related Church", the conference explored the interrelationships between higher education and The United Methodist Church in North Carolina. A product of the meeting was the establishment of two Conference committees that also join as a state-wide committee charged with examining the commitments of the two Conferences in higher education and making recommendations of a strategy for the future. The committees have been constituted and have begun their work.

One new venture is being undertaken in 1973-74 with the addition of UNC-Wilmington to the list of institutions being served. Several denominations, including The United Methodist Church, will undertake the support of one campus minister.

The Regional Commission is grateful for the support of the two Conferences and urges that this support be maintained and strengthened. Our campus ministers work with a student population of more than 100,000! The Challenge to the church was never greater!

II. Report of Division

Following the organizational meeting of the Division June 24, 1972, the Division met three additional times during the year. One of these meetings was held at Louisburg College following a visitation of North Carolina Wesleyan and Louisburg Colleges. The final meeting was held at Methodist College following a visitation of the college.

The following actions were taken by the Division: Recommended a plan for the distribution of the College Sustaining Fund; Deferred action on recommending Sustaining Fund appropriation to Bennett College beyond December 31, 1973, subject to an evaluation of the effect of the Black College Fund; Deferred action on recommendation that it study the relationship of the conference to Greensboro College, High Point College, and Duke Divinity School with reference to continued support from the Sustaining Fund until the "Bishops' Joint Study Committee" has had further deliberation; Recommended that the conference endorse a program of scholarships to be provided by local churches for its students attending our three conference colleges; Recommended that the conference employ a liaison person to develop a closer relationship between local churches and our colleges; To effect a change in the charters of our three conference related colleges to reflect the changes in nomenclature respecting the successor agency or agencies of the former Methodist Board of Education, Inc.; Took action requesting the District Superintendents to contact their pastors requesting them to contact their legislators asking for their support of the proposal before the State Legislature to increase the assistance to North Carolina students in private colleges and universities to the level of $200 per year per student; Recommended that each local church observe November as College Month and November 25 as College Day.

We are pleased to report that the Emergency Appeal Offering for Bennett College, Greensboro, North Carolina, taken in local churches November 5, 1972, was a great success. The total amount reported to the Conference Treasurer, as of April 29, 1973, was $9,818.63. Our conference will also receive credit in this amount for the Negro College Advance, making a total of $32,052.86 for the three-year period.

THE METHODIST HOME FOR CHILDREN, INC.

PART I - REVIEW OF THE YEAR 1972-1973

1. Services to Children and Their Families

During the fiscal year ending September 30, 1972 the Home cared for a total of 190 children for a total of 47,766 days of care. Of this total, 160 were in residential care on the campus in Raleigh; four in Foster Homes; 13 in Mothers Aid; 13 in Post High School Education. During the same period 44 children were admitted and 67 were discharged. The case-workers processed 57 applications during the year. A number of additional families were assisted with counseling in their efforts to solve their problems and were helped to make plans for the children which did not require their admission to the Methodist Home.

2. Summary of the Year's Events

During the Conference year now coming to a close the Home has operated under the five-year plan of action which was adopted in 1971. Much effort has been devoted to the improvement of the administrative process and procedures and to planning for the future.

One of the important administrative changes has been the development of the team (unit) concept in our residential services. This has involved the separation of the social work functions into two areas. One area is the social work needs of the children already in care and their families. The other area is the preparation of applications for admission and the supervision of the non-residential services such as Foster Homes, Mothers Aid and counseling with families having problems related to their children. The result is that the child care personnel who live with children day by day and the social work personnel who work with these same children are pulled together in a Team with a Coordinator; and this group of people act together rather than separately. Residential Services has been organized into three teams. This Team arrangement as one great advantage. It coordinates the work of the several disciplines (child care, social work, education, etc.) Under the supervision of one person (Team Coordinator) and expedites decision making. It provides - (1) Coordinated planning, (2) Coordinated action, and (3) Unified delivery of services to the children.

In anticipation of many important decisions that must be made in the near future, the President of the Board of Trustees has appointed a Task Force on Goals which is presently busily at work. The Task Force has as its purpose "to assess and examine the goals and objectives of the Methodist Home for children in the light of the rapid changes taking place in the social and economic conditions in our society." Until the Task Force has completed its work and made its report, the Trustees have declared a moratorium on new buildings and the purchase of property.

For a number of years Wachovia Bank and Trust Company has served as the fiscal agent for the Methodist Home for the management of all invested funds. This includes 36 separate accounts which have been invested separately and managed separately. An arrangement has been worked out with the Bank to keep these funds separate, as they have been, for use but, for the purpose of investment, to combine them into a Methodist Home Common Trust Fund. This is a management improvement and we expect that it will result in a better return on the invested funds. These invested funds are made up for the most part of bequests that were designated by the donor for specific purposes such as educational loans, educational scholarships, memorial buildings, etc. They must be used only for the purposes designated. In some cases, only the income can be used.

The revised Pension Plan has been implemented providing a better retirement program for our Staff. The entire Pension Trust Fund, with an inventory value of $111,885, was used to fund the plan to guarantee income for the payment of pensions in the future. During the year the Home received a bequest under the will of Mrs. Mary B. Babson in the amount of $50,000. Its use was undesignated and it was assigned to the Permanent Improvements Fund.

The Health Program has been changed during the year so that mildly sick children will be cared for overnight in their own cottages by their own group parents rather than in the Infirmary. We will continue to have a Nurse in charge of our Health Program who will take care of all of the doctor's appointments, children's records and see that the health needs of the children are adequately taken care of.

It has become necessary to make some changes in our cottages housing children to meet the Building Code Standards. These have required the enclosure of the inside stairs and the addition of fire escapes on the outside of the buildings. While these changes have improved the fire safety features of the buildings, they have considerably interfered with the normal use of these buildings as residences for children. Much of the furniture has been replaced in one of the cottages. Several cottages have been painted inside and this will continue.

In anticipation of constructing a new cottage to take the place of the Borden building, which is very inadequate for use as a cottage, the Borden building has been converted into an Activity Center for children.

3. A Painful Dilemma

The Methodist Home for Children operates on a fiscal year which ends September 30. The Home began the year 1971-1972 with a surplus of $22,174 and ended the year with a deficit of $2,029. This means that it took $24,203 more than was received during the year to maintain the existing level of services to children and their families. The small surplus in the Operating Fund, which normally provides a cash balance in the Bank to pay bills in months when the income does not keep pace with the expenditures, is exhausted. This condition has been brought about by the fact that the cost of operating has increased more rapidly than the income has increased. The general increase in the cost of living, and the necessary increase in the cost of salaries and wages are the two chief factors in this increase in the cost of operating. The Trustees have been reluctant to reduce services to children. In the hope that a significant increase in income could be found during the year, they have projected a budget for the current year (1972-1973) which anticipates an operating deficit of $25,560. The painful choice is between a significant increase in income for operations on the one hand, and a significant reduction in services to children and their families from our Annual Conference area, on the other.

The Home provides its services to children without charge. At the same time, it insists that relatives pay what they can toward the cost of caring for a child and that all funds available for the support of a child, from Social Security benefits, Social Service allowances and any other source, be sent to the Home to be credited to the cost of care for each child. In the past the Annual Conference has provided approximately one-half of the total cost of care for each child.

PART II - PLANS FOR THE FUTURE

The five-year plan of action 1971-1975 was adopted in 1971. Much of that plan has already been put into effect. A large part of it is in process now. The chief remaining features of that plan are (1) the purchase of a second off-campus group home; (2) the construction of a cottage to replace Boarden; (3) the construction of one additional cottage to make a total of 12 cottages on campus, and (4) the development of an adequate public relations program. In addition, a decision has been made to plan an appropriate recognition of the 75th Anniversary of the founding of The Methodist Home for Children to take place in 1974-75. A review of all of these objectives is included in the study now being made by the Trustee "Task Force on Goals" referred to in Park I, Section 2, of this report.

PART III - FINANCIAL REPORT 1971 - 1972

The Methodist Home for Children operated on a fiscal year ending September 30. This report is for the year ending September 30, 1972.

L. Merritt Jones, *PresidentBoard of Trustee*J.W. Lineberger, *SuperintendentMETHODIST INFORMATION AND PUBLIC RELATIONS

John Wesley, it is said, sought to make the Press a servant of the Church. With deep appreciation, we are grateful for the cognizance of our new Bishop of the importance of the Press and for his cooperation during this first year with the Director and the Communication media.

The excellent coverage of the 1972 conference in Durham by the entire communication media was perhaps the best during the years your Director has been associated with Methodist Information.

During the 1972-73 Conference year a number of major events have been covered by the Director including:

1. The 1972 Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference at Lake Junaluska.
2. The news and feature stories on the assignment of Bishop Robert M. Blackburn to the Raleigh Area.
3. The Bishop's first Ordination Service at the 1972 R & R at Fayetteville.
4. The Bicentennial of North Carolina Methodism (1772-1972) at Currituck Courthouse, September, 1972.
5. The Death and Memorial services for Bishop Paul Neff Garber.
6. The Launching of the television specials and assistance in placing same for the KEY '72 year of evangelism.

7. The Service of Celebration for the signing of the Vietnam Cease-Fire and sermon by the Bishop, January, 1973.

8. The return of the N.C. Conference Bolivian Missions Work Team, May, 1973

9. The pre-conference news releases for the 1973 session.

We believe a significant contribution was a Channel 5 Editorial Viewpoint on the influence of Bishop Garber to the religious life of the State given in early January over WRAL-TV.

United Methodists of the Raleigh Area should know of the consistent cooperation in our communications task of the following outlets: Associated Press and UPI, Raleigh Bureaus; the 8-station Tobacco Radio Network; radio stations WPTF, Raleigh and WDNC, Durham; Channel 5, Raleigh, WRAL; Channel 11, Durham, WTVD; Channel 9, Greenville, WNCT; the News and Observer, the Durham Morning Herald and the Durham Sun.

At the present session, reporters from three daily newspapers and two television stations have covered proceedings.

We wish also to thank Milton Gilbert for his invaluable assistance during the 1973 session with providing TV film and photographs for the Advocate, the Journal and the newspapers.

THE DIVISION OF ECUMENICAL AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

Among the changes brought about by the last General Conference was the change in our organization which made our Commission a Division of the Board of Global Ministries. The name was changed from the Commission on Ecumenical Affairs to The Division of Ecumenical and interreligious Concerns—a broader and more inclusive term.

The response to the Conference survey on the study of A Plan of Union met with good response. Returns from our Conference, and from across the nation, indicate that the portion of the book dealing with the theological basis for union met with favor, however many other parts were not well received.

A session was held at Summer R and R on "Models of Ecumenism." An interesting display was arranged, and discussions were led by persons who had engaged in these experiences (one of them was the Rev. Gary Waller, a Presbyterian minister).

It is encouraging to note that our Conference is increasing its giving to the N.C. Council of Churches; however our giving to this worthwhile organization is low compared with that of other judiciatories in the State. The N.C. Council and other ecumenical bodies need our strong support as they seek to bring healing to a broken and sick world in the name and Spirit of Christ.

The article in the October, 1971, Reader's Digest which was highly critical of the World Council of Churches, proved to be a blessing in disguise. Because of the article, many indignant people rose to the support of the Council, thus strengthening the cause of ecumenism.

A history of the life of Henry Evans, black pioneer of Methodism in the Fayetteville area, was written by Dr. Ralph Hardee Reeves and the Rev. Frank Grill. Mr. Evans was founder both of Hay Street United Methodist Church and the A.M.E. Zion Church in Fayetteville. This article was a joint project of the Division of Ecumenical and Interreligious Concerns and the Commission on Archives and History.

A variety of ecumenical experiences are taking place at the grassroots in our Conference. Key '73 has been widely observed. Christians are finding great joy in working and worshipping together across denominational lines.

Gerald Peterson, Secretary

THE DIVISION OF LAY LIFE AND WORK

The past conference year has been one of some uncertainty for our Division due to structural changes made at the General Conference. We were aware that some duties would be transferred to other Divisions and new assignments would be added as time passed. While waiting for these changes to come about the Division decided to put its major emphasis on United Methodist Men. Our goal is to have a chartered United Methodist Men's Group in every local church and that each group be an active and effective part of the program of the church. In addition to the local projects that each group carries on, we are recommending that all groups participate in a joint project to raise funds, commensurate with their size, to be used to provide scholarships to help needy students attend our three colleges and to help the colleges recruit students. Work has already begun on this project and we hope to raise $30,000 by January, 1974.

The Lay Rallies are always a high point in our years and this year was unusually successful both in programs and attendance. Our Bishop brought a timely message to all the Districts where he spoke and his message carried out one of the main purposes of our Rallies and that is to educate the Laity to the fact that they are a part of a connectional church that reaches far beyond the local congregation. Our attendance reached an all time high of 7500.

A United Methodist Men's retreat was held at Methodist College in June of last year and was led by Rev. Lionel Weston, who proved to be an outstanding group leader. Comments from those in attendance were very favorable. In addition to our Conference-wide Retreat, each District Board of the Laity has been encouraged to hold District Retreats. We feel we can reach more of the Laity in this manner and during the past year five Districts held successful Retreats.

As in previous years we have encouraged the observance of Laity Day. Despite the slight change of name from Layman's Day to Laity Day, it is still the day for the Laity to hold services in the local church. The increased use of members of the home congregation rather than an imported speaker is an encouraging sign that the Laity are more willing to give a verbal witness to their beliefs.

Lay Officer Training schools are held in most districts under the sponsorship of the District Boards. Next year we hope to continue to improve on the format and content of the schools and hold them in every District. As business people we would not think of hiring department heads with no experience and no training, yet we do just that in appointing department heads (or Commission Chairmen) in our congregations with no experience and we frequently offer no training. How can we expect a well oiled and smooth working organization within the local congregation unless the leadership is trained? The preachers cannot do it all! They need commitment and trained help.

Our Lay Speaker Training is carried on as needed in each District with Conference-wide emphasis every three or four years. It is our goal to maintain a pool of 400 or more Certified Lay Speakers to be used as needed by our ministers, either as pulpit supply, devotional leader, church school teachers or sharing group leaders. We now have about 450 Certified Lay Speakers.

As we build upon past experience and look ahead to broader horizons we will find new and greater opportunities to serve. The Division of Lay Life & Work eagerly looks forward to the new Conference year.

The Committee on the Lay Worker calls the attention of the Annual Conference and specially the attention of local churches employing lay workers to Par. 507.1: "The employing agency shall include the lay worker in the retirement plan of the Lay Employee Pension Fund (Par. 1377.12) or other such appropriate plan as provided by the Board of Pensions or other boards or agencies of the United Methodist Church." For the sake of uniformity we recommend that the pension plan for Lay Workers in the North Carolina Conference be based upon an annual contribution of 9% of the employee's salary—6% to be paid by the employing agent and 3% by the employee (or some combination of percentages to add up to 9%).

We encourage local churches employing lay workers to pay the premiums for the Blue Cross-Blue Shield Insurance plan, and to participate, in their behalf, in the Conference program of Group Life Insurance.

The Committee on the Lay Worker also calls upon all local churches within her bounds to consider a pension program, as well as hospitalization and life insurance, for ALL Lay Employees—not just those who qualify as lay workers.

The Division of the Ministry
The Committee on Continuing Education

There is a great surge going on in the field of Continuing Education for ministers. Why is a program of Continuing Education and Career Development necessary for parish ministers?

One reason is the morale of the minister requires it. The minister's sense of worth is at stake. Greater competence and enthusiasm on the part of the minister hinge on a program of continuing education. The sense of being relevant is involved here.

Another reason for such a program on the part of the parish minister is the debt we owe the church to improve. An improved ministry means a more vital church. The church at large is coming to an awareness that time and funds must be made available in a regular pattern of Continuing Education for the parish minister.

The Committee on Continuing Education is convinced that every minister serving full-time in the parish ministry needs to plan for a life-time of Continuing Education and Career Development. This committee will endeavor to support the minister in the appointive system all his or her life in this area.

The Committee on Continuing Education serves in a dual role: As a committee of the Division of the Ministry and as an Interboard Committee with representatives from other boards and commissions.

THE ROLE OF THE COMMITTEE

1. We rejoice to announce that the Duke University Divinity School has set up a Continuing Education Center and selected Dr. McMurry Richey as Director. Dr. Richey is giving major time and effort in a program of Continuing Education for ministers and this center has already provided many opportunities for the minister of the North Carolina Conference. In fact, this act on the part of our Duke Divinity School and the work of Dr. Richey has sparked new interest in Continuing Education and Career Development among the ministers of the Conference. The Conference Committee applauds this new ministry by the Duke University Divinity School.
2. Your Conference Committee participates in a curriculum and program of Continuing Education through the North Carolina (state-wide) Commission on Continuing Education. This involves a partnership with the Duke Divinity School, the Duke Endowment, the Western North Carolina Conference.
3. The Committee will cooperate with the Continuing Education Program at Gammon Theological School and Candler School of Theology by publicizing them.
4. Another role of this Committee is to correlate and provide communication between all boards and bodies which are working with Continuing Education.
5. A word about funds for scholarships for ministers desiring to engage in Continuing Education and Career Development. These funds, when certain requirements are met, come from the Duke Endowment, the Duke Divinity School, and the Committee on Continuing Education (We were given $600.00 from the Ministerial Education Fund for scholarships.) Some Conferences use large grants from the Ministerial Education Fund for continuing education. Some local churches provide help for staff to engage in continuing education.

THE WORK OF THE COMMITTEE THIS PAST YEAR

1. We participated in the In Residence Seminars at Duke University Divinity School under the Director of Continuing Education there, Dr. McMurry S. Richey. We had eight ministers from our Conference in "A Study of Romans" October 2-6, 1972. Our Committee provided scholarships for four of these.
2. We had eight ministers from our Conference in the two "Paris Planning and Organization Seminars" at Duke Divinity School February 12-16, Feb. 19-22, sponsored by the In-Service Training Program of the Duke Endowment. Our Committee helped sponsor these two seminars which were led by Dr. M. Wilson Nesbitt and Bishop Garrison.
3. We had five of our ministers in the In-Residence Seminar "Salvation Today" November 27-December 8, 1972 held at Duke Divinity School. Our Committee provided scholarships for four of these.
4. We had one minister from our Conference in the "Black and White" Seminar at Duke University Divinity School October 9-13, 1972.
5. Our Committee participated in the Fayetteville District Seminar on "Marriage and Family Life." We were able to grant $400.00 for this project. Rev. Frank Lloyd gave leadership and directed this Seminar. Twenty-three of our ministers participated in this continuing education opportunity.
6. We participated financially in the "Transactional Analysis Workshop" at East Carolina University. Rev. Charles M. Smith served as Director and gave leadership to this in the Greenville District. We had sixteen ministers in this continuing education experience.
7. We gave an individual grant to one of our ministers to attend a week-long workshop in Greensboro at the University of N.C. on "Transactional Analysis." (Working with people).
8. During the year, the Chairman and Rev. Al Mahaffey attended a Southeastern Symposium on Continuing Education at Emory University which resulted in the finalization of a Center of Continuing Education at Candler School of Theology.
9. During the year, the Chairman attended The Board of Ministry Southeastern Jurisdiction

Workshop at Lake Junaluska and was assigned to section on Continuing Education. 10. We nominate two persons for the North Carolina Pastors' School Board of Managers with terms to expire in 1977 and two with terms to expire in 1975:

THE DIVISION OF MISSIONS

The report of the Division of Missions celebrates a revival of interest in the corporate mission of the church. We are seeing with new clarity that to be Christ's people is to be people involved in his mission to the world. The committee reports which follow reflect this renewal primarily in the area of Advance participation. A mission work team went to Bolivia this spring in what is hoped to be a prototype of similar ventures in the future.

The development of strategies of mission to a continually changing rural-urban situation lies within the province of this Division. Progress is being made in parish development both in rural and urban settings.

The Division has become aware that Christ's mission through our Conference to racial minority segments of the population in Eastern North Carolina is most inadequate. It is our prayer that as the Quadrennium unfolds we will develop strategies which will enable Christ to use us in a more effective way in this mission.

Committee and sub-committee reports follow.

COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION AND CULTIVATION

Mission is the priority of this committee and a major priority of the North Carolina Conference. The committee has functioned in several ways this conference year.

I. Missionary Education

The Subcommittee on Mission Studies under the chairmanship of Reverend Milton Mann of Hertford has promoted training and motivation in mission. A list of resource people for mission study leadership has been developed by this subcommittee. The chairman is now a member of the Summer R & R Planning Committee. Each local church is encouraged to have at least one annual mission study selected from the three or more studies provided by the Board of Global Ministries. This subcommittee has also promoted attendance at Summer R & R, as well as at the Missions Conference at Lake Junaluska by both adults and youth.

II. The members of the Committee on Education and Cultivation along with other persons responsible for mission promotion in the North Carolina Conference attended a training program at the Board of Global Ministries in New York City in the winter of 1972.

III. Mission Interpretation

Staff personnel from the Board of Global Ministries in New York City and missionaries returned from the field on furlough provided mission interpretation for every district in the North Carolina Conference during February, March, and April, 1973. This mission interpretation helps to enhance the program of mission involvement, as well as improve our understanding of the specific mission of the church in many areas of the world. Those participating in itineration were:

Burlington District: Reverend David Allen, missionary to Zaire

Durham District: Dr. Charles Brewster, editor of the New World Outlook

Elizabeth City District: Reverend Alex Alvord, missionary to Rhodesia

Fayetteville District: Reverend Bill Tyson, Urban Ministries from Atlanta

Goldsboro District:

Greenville and New Bern Districts: Dr. Hendrix Townsley, New Delhi, India

Raleigh District: Dr. David Flude, UMCOR Staff person

Rocky Mount, Sanford and Wilmington Districts: Mr. and Mrs. Leighton Wiant

Rockingham District: Miss Lorena Kelly, retired missionary from Zaire

IV. The Advance

The Advance Committee is chaired by Reverend Clyde Dunn, returned missionary from Taiwan, minister at Trinity United Methodist Church in Red Springs. Through the work of his committee, the continued growth in Advance commitment in the North Carolina Conference, the support by the cabinet through the Advance Specials work sheets, the growth of our mission giving has increased from $36,110.00 this time in 1972 to $125,876.61 at the time of this report, February 19, 1973. We are encouraged at the growth of our Advance in the North Carolina conference. Our potential has not yet been reached, and we are striving towards a higher goal in per capita giving to the Advance.

We have given the following amounts for these Advance Specials to date:

New Delhi, Ramakrishnapuram	$ 6,275.55
Robeson County Church and Community Center	$ 2,771.18
Conference Advance Specials	$ 26,741.20
Ten Dollar Club	$ 35,124.50
All other Advance Special Gifts	$ 54,964.18
GRAND TOTAL	$125,876.61

We congratulate the United Methodist of North Carolina Conference United Methodism for the increased interest in and concern for the missionary outreach of the church. Let us help you be in mission!

V. District Mission Chairpersons

Appreciation must be expressed to the following district chairpersons for their outstanding leadership in the area of mission: George W. Johnson, F. Roderick Randolph, J. Claude Chaffin, Edward Franklin Smith, Dr. Lee Adams, Troy James Barrett, P. D.

Midgett, III, Amos Stone, Clyde Dunn, Marion O. Stephenson, Worth Pearce, and Charles Mewborn.

CHURCH AND COMMUNITY COMMITTEE

1. Chairperson and Urban sub-chairperson attended Missions Conference at Lake Junaluska and Orientation sessions in New York at the National office, all of us attended R & R, with a special session on Parish Development with our Bishop, the Cabinet, Bishop Edwin Garrison, Wilson Nesbitt and Robert Wilson.
2. Chairperson, together with Ralph Nichols of the National office in N.Y. and Ernest Porter of the Conference office in Raleigh, visited Parishes, in Pamlico, Harnett and Robeson and found Pastors and Deaconesses doing excellent and helpful work; The Robeson County work has a staff on the varied activities there. (See Recommendation 102, p. 23) We corresponded with a pastor about work on outer banks and at Atlantic. We hope to establish other parishes, Caswell County being just one of these proposed.
3. Sub-chairperson on Urban Ministries attended special orientation session in Charlotte. (See Recommendations 108, 109, 110, 111, P. 24)
4. Sub-chairperson on Town and Country Work and Parish Development held seminar in October, together with Duke Endowment, Bishop Edwin Garrison, Leader; held two other seminars on parish planning in February. (See Recommendations 104, 105, 106, 107, P. 24)
5. Sub-chairperson on Church Extension promoted Phase II of the $10 Club and increased membership to 1,475; emphasized Church Extension Sunday, February 18th; sent out $10.00 Club calls for Shiloh Church, Gaston, N. C., Aracaju Church, Brazil and Rhyne Memorial Church, Red Springs, N. C. (See also Recommendation 101, P. 23).
6. The Committee hopes to help with the salary and program of a pastor to be assigned to Camp Don-Lee and the Pamlico Parish.
7. We will present Church(es) of the Year Award(s) at the time of the report of the Division on Missions (See Recommendation 103).

NORTH CAROLINA COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT

During the past year, perhaps the most significant change in the life of the North Carolina Council of Churches has been the shift in the Council's relationship to the Migrant Project. At the meeting of the Executive Board of the Council in November, 1972, at the request of the governing Board of the Project, the Executive Board voted to concur in the action of the governing Board to incorporate and take over its own management, thus severing its relationship with the Council. The church affiliation of the Project had made its funding more difficult, hence the above action. The Executive Board does not interpret this action as a step backward, but a step forward in the maturing process of the Project. Throughout history the church has initiated many excellent programs which, when the programs have become mature and self-sustaining, have been freed to stand on their own feet. The Reverend Henry Turlington will represent the Council on the Governing Board of the Migrant and Seasonal Farm Workers Association, Inc., and thus continue the mutual concerns of the Council. At the same meeting a resolution was adopted to express the appreciation of the Council to William H. Shipes for his excellent leadership in the Project.

Other significant aspects of the program of the Council are reported herein by the staff and need no recital here.

Financial support for the NCCC continues to be a major concern at every meeting of the Council. Although some judicatories are increasing their support, others have been forced, for various reasons best known to themselves, to cut back. Hence, much staff time and that of your executive officers must be given to raising funds from individuals in order to underwrite the annual budget. As president, I had hoped to lead in making significant progress in this area of responsibility, but my own schedule has not allowed the kind of effort necessary to do so. It is hoped that we may yet find a solution to our financial problems.

We continue to express our appreciation to Dr. Samuel S. Wiley and the Reverend Collins Kilburn for their dedicated leadership, managing somehow to get things done with little or no budget for program. Without the support of volunteers in many areas of work, they would be unable to lead the program of the Council forward.

Although I have been associated with the Council for many years, it has become especially clear to me this year as your president that the work of the Council is a significant factor in making a Christian witness to the total life of the people in North Carolina and to its culture.

I am grateful for your entrusting the presidency to me during this year.

Charles E. Dietz
President

THE NORTH CAROLINA PASTORS' SCHOOL AND DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL CONVOCATION

The North Carolina Pastors' School and Duke Divinity School Convocation was held at Duke University, October 30-November 1, 1972. Bishop Robert M. Blackburn of the Raleigh Area gave the Bishop's Hour address and was joined by Bishop Earl G. Hunt, Jr. for the Bishops' Panel. The James A. Gray Lecturer was Dr. Ray C. Petry, James B. Duke Emeritus Professor of Church History. The Convocation Preacher was Dr. Edmund A. Steimle, Brown Professor of Homiletics, Union Theological Seminary, New York. Dr. Emerson S. Colaw, Hyde Park Community United Methodist Church, Cincinnati, was the Frank S. Hickman Lecturer on Ministry. Dr. William Arthur Kale, Professor of Christian Education, was the Alumni Lecturer. Other features of the program included the dedication of the new Divinity School Wing and Alumni Memorial Commons Room, the Alumni Class Reunions, the Alumni Association Luncheon, and the Ministers' Wives' Luncheon. The Divinity School Choir, Director, and Organist, and the Divinity School Singers, led in worship through music.

The 1973 Convocation and Pastors' School is scheduled for October 29-31, with a change in format and program. The James A. Gray Lecturer is Dr. Brevard S. Childs, Professor of Old Testament, Yale Divinity School. Dr. James D. Glasse, President of Lancaster Theological Seminary, is the Frank S. Hickman Lecturer on Ministry. Bishops Earl G. Hunt, Jr. and Robert M. Blackburn are the Convocation Preachers. A special new feature of the program will be three-session "mini-courses" with Divinity School Faculty lecturers. Another new feature will be minister-student dialogue groups. Reunions are scheduled for Classes of 1933, 1938, 1944, 1948, 1953, 1958, 1963, 1968. There will be a general Alumni Luncheon and a Ministers' Wives' Luncheon.

COMMITTEE ON PASTORAL CARE

The Committee on Pastoral Care was authorized by the 1972 Session of the North Carolina Annual Conference to continue a study of counseling resources for the ministers of the Annual ference and their families begun by the Ministers' Wives' Association and the Board of the Ministry. The committee has a broad range of participants as indicated in its creation, both clergy and wives, as well as representatives from several agencies of the conference.

The initial action of the committee was to review materials already gathered by previous study and to continue the pursuit of new information about programs being offered in other parts of The United Methodist Church. A sensitivity to both spoken and implied needs of the ministers and their families in the North Carolina Conference was also in development, as the committee had no desire to create either a service or an institution if there was no need of its service.

The fact that fewer individuals are leaving the pastoral ministry currently (a problem with which the initial study dealt heavily) seems to the committee to be hidden in some of the present trends in the church. There are now fewer places in specialized work to which individuals who feel out-of-place in the pastoral ministry can move. Indeed, there are many indications that some now employed in these areas may have to return to the pastoral ministry, a situation that would likely produce more conflict possibilities.

Our evaluation of the needs presented by our "listening groups" as well as individuals recognized by members of the Bishop's Cabinet as having distinct problems lead us to believe there are a number of individuals and/or families in our conference for whom some pastoral counseling services would be of great benefit. Our recognition of the financial expense of an independent agency within our conference to carry on this work in the face of so many other needs indicates that a somewhat different approach would have to be made.

We have two proposals to make, both of which would be carried on during the 1973 and 1974 Conference years. First, the need for a better understanding of the role of parsonage life for both the minister and his family would be dealt with in a series of Pastoral Care Seminars. A pilot seminar in 1973 in one of the eastern districts would be followed in 1974 with five more district seminars to be led by individuals with experience in successful and happy parsonage family life.

Our second proposal is to make available, on a referral basis, some professional help for those families having individual or collective difficulties. The Pastoral Counseling Service at the Wake University Medical Center has been selected as one agency through which ministers and their families may receive assistance in a number of problem situations including marriage, personality conflict, alcoholism, etc. Other agencies can be used under our program if they are accredited by the national agencies for pastoral care. Expense sharing to assist individuals to take advantage of this opportunity would follow these guidelines:

1. Cost of first visit to the agency would be met in full by the committee, up to a limit of $20.00.
2. Cost of successive visits to the agency, to a maximum of four, would be shared by the committee on a 50%-50% basis, until the total support for the initial visit and successive visits reaches $40.00.
3. The total support for these visits (by an individual or a family) would be $40.00.
4. Some psychiatric services are always available from local psychiatrists through the provisions of the Major Medical coverage of our conference Blue Cross - Blue Shield insurance program. These would not apply, however, at a pastoral counseling service for other than specialized medical consulting services.
5. Referrals can be made by the individual involved, the Bishop, the Cabinet, or the Division of Ministry, but all matters dealt with in the counseling sessions will remain privileged information until the individual involved wishes some report to be made.

The desire of the committee is for stronger, happier, and more productive family relationships in the parsonages of our Conference. Many that now have some areas of strife or discontent may benefit directly through either of our proposals, or indirectly through contact with other families with whom they share experiences.

William W. Sherman, Jr., Chairperson
Mrs. R. Steward Brodie, Vice-Chairperson
Emerson M. Thompson, Jr., Secretary

THE COMMITTEE ON PARSONAGE STANDARDS

The Committee on Parsonage Standards is presently involved in compiling a questionnaire which has been sent to every minister serving a local church, every minister's wife, and the Chairmen of Pastor-Parish Relations Committees. When the results of these questionnaires have been evaluated, the Parsonage Standards Committee will report its findings and make recommendations concerning standards for our parsonages.

THE METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION, INC.

GENERAL STATEMENT

The following is a summary of property values owned by the Board:

1. Investment portfolios as of October 31, 1972:

General Fund: cost value, $71,514.51

market value, $111,667.63

Thomas J. Finch Memorial Fund: cost value, $31,654.46

market value, $30,158.13

2. Land, building and equipment (estimate): $300,000.00

The Board operates as a non-profit corporation and as such is not subject to federal or state income taxation. We pay county and city taxes, and these are approximately $4,000 per year. Employees are properly bonded and insurance carried includes a blanket building and personal property coverage of $200,000.

As our audit reports indicate, for the past two fiscal years we have operated in the black. Unfavorable balances for previous years were brought into line by cutting the number of issues per year from 46 to 26.

We received an apportionment of $12,000 per year ($5,000 from the North Carolina Conference and $7,000 from the Western North Carolina Conference) which goes to the North Carolina National Bank by agreement for interest and repayment of a loan. The total amount owed on the indebtedness now stands at $43,600.54. An additional amount of $5,000 ($2,000 from the North Carolina Conference and $3,000 from the Western North Carolina Conference) is received annually from the two conferences toward the expense of complimentary subscriptions to ministers and their widows.

THE NORTH CAROLINA CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE

1. Circulation

Our most recent printing was for 20,050 copies. During the past two years our circulation has ranged between 19,000 and 22,000. We have a total of 494 churches on the Administrative Board Plan or the Every Family Plan. Of this number, 191 are in the North Carolina Conference and 303 are in the Western North Carolina Conference.

2. Promotion of circulation

January was designated for a subscription campaign among our churches, with January designated as Advocate Promotion Sunday. In preparation for this, we produced a single sheet promotion piece which could be used as a bulletin insert or otherwise as desired. More than 70,000 copies of this were distributed, with some requests for copies still coming in. This almost double the number used last year.

In order to maintain a high degree of renewals, we send out a total of four expiration notices to subscribers. To churches on our Every Family and All-Administrative Board plans, we send expiration notices beginning with a couple of months prior to dates of expiration.

3. Comment on content

We are now publishing a separate edition to each annual conference. Most of the material, of course, goes both ways. Once a month, we carry an 8-page block of material on the conference program for each conference. This has been going on for over four years. Then, beginning last October, we started separate editions for the other monthly issue. Among other material carried in this other issue is a special message from the bishop. Much local church news which would not be of particular interest to readers in the other conference is also printed in it. We are in sition to have as much as half of each issue tailored to the special needs of each conference, if the situation calls for this much.

THE PIEDMONT PRESS

Our profit and loss statement for the period from October 1, 1972 through January 31, 1973 verifies that our job printing arm has been operating reasonably well. Income from subscriptions and from job printing are both up substantially as compared to a year ago. We are paying careful attention to the maintenance of our equipment. Our employees are all doing good work, although we have at times been a bit short-handed. This has involved some overtime work.

We experienced the loss of one of our oldest employees, Mr. Raymond (Bill) Welch of High Point, who suffered a heart attack during the New Year Holiday and was not able to return to work. He died on February 5. A floral wreath and condolences were sent jointly in the name of the Board and of the employees.

THE METHODIST RETIREMENT HOMES, INC.

The Retirement Home has served 425 retired persons since it opened September 1, 1955. Its capacity has grown from forty to 200 persons through the addition of domiciliary facilities, the enlargement of the Nursing Facilities and the construction of forty-two apartments.

Through a dedicated and loyal staff The Home is giving to its Members a high quality service. Because of its proximity to and its working relationship with Duke University Medical Center the Members are receiving some of the finest medical care available.

The Home has never had a Capital Funds Campaign but has paid for its buildings largely with money that has come through gifts and wills and through contributions from interested persons. The Home has used money from the Conference to carry on its benevolent work, for approximately one-third of the Members do not have sufficient assets to pay even the minimum cost of care.

Serious inquiries and applications are increasing for it is becoming impossible to find someone to go into a private home to care for a sick person or to live with someone who is alone. If help can be found most people do not have the financial ability to pay for such care. There is an increasing number of retired people in the United States—a number which will continue to grow more rapidly than any other segment of the population.

Because of this increased need the Conference, meeting in June, 1972, gave The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. permission to build another Home within the bounds of the conference. The Long Range Planning Committee drew up the following Guide Lines:

Interest on the part of Methodists in the area the home is to be built.

(A) To provide leadership and financial support during the planning and initial construction.

1. A minimum of $250,000 from the area.

2. Land - though 50 acres would be desirable there will be a minimum of 40 acres in open country and 25 acres in a congested area.

(B) Continued support of time, talents, and finances.

Availability of Medical and Ancillary services.

(A) Doctor—General practitioners, dentists, medical specialists, etc.

Employees

(A) Skilled nurses, technicians, etc.

(B) Unskilled aides, orderlies, cooks, etc.

Physical location of site—accessibility.

Availability of:

(A) Utilities—water sewer, electrical power, etc.

(B) Transportation—easily accessible both private and public for employees, members and visitors.

(C) Church and shopping facilities.

Ability to secure a Certificate of Need.

The members of the Long Range Planning Committee soon found that the need and interest across the Conference was greater than had been realized. They also found several communities who felt the need of a home so great that they were ready to meet the Guide Lines.

After a thorough study Lumberton was selected by the Committee and this choice was approved by the Board of Trustees of The Home as the location for the New Home. The Lumberton Community is now working to secure the land and construction will begin as soon as possible.

The Committee was impressed with the need for a Home in the Edenton Area to serve the northeastern section of the Conference and felt that as rapidly as possible provisions should be made for another Home in the Goldsboro-Greenville-Kinston-Wilson area. Four such Homes would place a home within 65 miles of a majority of the churches of the Conference.

Because the Board of Trustees of The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. feels that the need is so great they are requesting the Conference meeting in June, 1973 for permission to sponsor a Home in Edenton with construction to begin when financing can be arranged. This is to be done without a Capital Funds Campaign across the Conference. It is anticipated that this Home will be constructed with the local community providing the land and some money and with a long-term, perhaps a government, loan for financing.

Because of the increasing number of applications from prospective members who are near nursing cases than are normally considered as retirement home members, and because The Home will lose part of its Nursing Facilities, for it will not be financially feasible to bring a part of the Nursing Center (Infirmary) up to the (101) Life Safety Code Standards, the Board of Trustees of The Home has authorized the construction of a 100 - 125 bed free-standing skilled nursing facility on The Home's Grounds in Durham. This will allow The Home to take approximately forty additional Retirement Home Members in The Home's present Nursing Center and will allow the acceptance of a limited number of nursing cases.

The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. has approximately one-half the money in hand needed for construction of the Nursing Care Facility. The remainder of the cost can be incorporated into The Home's long-term mortgage.

The amount of money the Conference will be called upon to give for the support of its Retirement Homes will be determined by the amount of Benevolent Work the Conference sees the need of and is willing to pay for. Our Conference will always want to put money into this Cause for two reasons: One, it represents the members of our Conference at practical Christianity and gives them an opportunity to help care for the retired people of our Conference. Secondly, The Homes must continue to receive sizable support from the Conference if they are to retain their tax status.

Any success that The Home has been able to achieve is a result of the support of the Conference, the wise leadership of the members of the Board of Trustees and dedicated consecrated, staff members who have gone beyond the call of duty in helping The Church serve its retired people.

DIVISION OF STEWARDSHIP

The North Carolina Annual Conference in session June 5-8, 1972, at Duke University Durham, North Carolina, designated January 1973 as Stewardship month.

Dr. N. W. Grant, Director of Council on Ministries, in consultation with the Associate Director of Stewardship, Reverend O. L. Hathaway, secured the services of Dr. T. L. Williams, financial fund director, to train persons for leadership in each district for the Every Member Visitation program. The training sessions were held December 6 and 7 at Fairmont United Methodist Church in Raleigh.

A second training session was held on Friday, December 29, 1972, at 10:30 a.m. in the Methodist Building. Dr. N. W. Grant and Reverend Kermit L. Braswell led the group in a special session in the Every Member Visitation, dealing in particular with the presentation in the local church.

Thirty-six (36) Stewardship workshops were held in the twelve districts in the Conference during January 1973 with an attendance of 1,970. We believe that this kind of preparation will help our people to have an understanding of the needs, and to have the opportunity to respond to the askings of our Conference. We wish to thank all of the people who helped us in this Stewardship venture.

The Stewardship of our people this year has been very encouraging to all of us. The report from the treasurer's office as of April 25, 1973, revealed that 127 charges have paid out in full and a few have gone beyond the 100% figure. We wish to thank all of these and the others that will soon be paid out, for their effective Stewardship for Christ and His Church.

THE CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Annual meeting of the Conference Board of Trustees was held at 10:00 A.M. on June 6, 1972, at Duke University during the Annual Conference Session.

The financial statement of the Board of Trustees presented by the Conference Treasurer showed funds totaling $417,608.24 held by the Board as of May 31, 1972. Income for the year was $24,104.85. Disbursements for the year totaled $10,322.05; of this amount, $10,000 was paid to the Board of Pensions.

The following officers were elected: Elisha M. Herndon, Chairman; Wallace H. Kirby, Vice-Chairman; James H. Miller, Jr., Secretary.

During the 1972-73 conference year the Board has made every effort to properly supervise and maintain the conference property.

On October 10, 1972, a new Episcopal Residence was purchased at 3116 Eton Road, Raleigh, N. C. On November 1, 1972, the old Episcopal Residence at 2301 Beechridge Road was sold.

In the spring of 1973 the Board authorized Mr. McAdams, Treasurer-Business Administrator, to process with the purchase of two additional staff parsonages which will be needed at the beginning of the new conference year. This results from the fact that the conference has been paying a rental allowance to two staff members whose tenures end with this conference year. We are now obligated to furnish parsonages for all ministerial staff. A later decision changed the need to only one additional house since we will use a house currently owned by the conference and previously considered for sale.

On November 30, 1972, a right-of-way agreement was signed with the State Highway Commission granting a right-of-way across a corner of the Harrells Church property in Gate County.

The second largest tenant in the rental area of the Methodist Building (The N. C. Board of Higher Education) moved out during 1972-73. The area vacated by them has been leased by the College Foundation, Inc. The rental area of the building is now completely leased.

The audit report of the Board of Trustees which will appear in the JOURNAL will include report of the current status of the Board of Trustees.

James H. Miller, Jr., Secretary

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

The women of the North Carolina Conference, United Methodist Church are now officially organized into one, new, inclusive organization, United Methodist Women, as directed by the General Conference in April 1972. The Celebration and organizational meeting was held May 1, 1973 at First United Methodist Church, Wilson, with Bishop Robert M. Blackburn convening the Meeting. Bishop Blackburn installed the officers and presided through the business session. During the Celebration, Mrs. Robert M. Blackburn spoke to the women on the topic "Together We Can Reach Out In Love." This was a most impressive Service and the women pledged themselves to serve God, to work for the Church and the betterment of this Conference.

A Committee composed of the two former women's organizations wrote new Constitution and By-Laws for the new organization.

In July of last year a new District Women's Society and Wesleyan Service Guild was organized to coincide with the Annual Conference directive that there should be twelve districts. This meeting was held in Red Springs and Mrs. Allen Lee was elected president of the newly organized Rockingham District.

This year, as in several years past, we have given $10,000 to our N. C. Projects, which are Robeson County Church and Community Center, Walnut Terrace Child Development Center, formerly Manly Street Day Care Center, Harnett County Church and Community Project, and the Wesley Foundation, Greenville.

We have set up a new, simplified bookkeeping system, which the Conference approved and adopted.

The fifth and last Annual Meeting of Women's Society of Christian Service was held at Hayes Barton United Methodist Church in October. Bishop Robert Blackburn was a speaker at this meeting. The Love Gift for a new Church Center in India amounted to approximately $5,000. The Conference pledged $190,000 to the Women's Division for 1973 for Missions. We have again budgeted $10,000 for our North Carolina projects. We have given $2,300 for scholarships to students attending Methodist Colleges. One of the scholarships amounting to $800 went to a student from India who is attending Louisburg College. We sent to the Women's Division as of December 31, 1972, $219,901.00.

All Conference Officers have been to Cincinnati this year for a Women's Division Leadership Training Session and nine attended a Mission Seminar in New York in December.

In May, Miss Maryruth Nickels, Women's Division Staff Person in the Atlanta Area, conducted a three day Spiritual Growth Conference for the women. About 150 attended this conference held at Louisburg College. The three day meeting was divided into two sessions to enable employed and non employed women to choose the schedule that suited her best. The theme "God is! Rejoice" was woven through the entire program.

The women of this Conference have been informed through our office of Christian Social Relations on issues before the people. We have a Committee on Legislation which works with the N. C. Council on Social Legislation. Some of the issues given priority were: Migrants and Housing, Penal Concerns, No Fault Insurance, Capitol Punishment. Our representatives have attended legislative events in Washington, D.C. and Nashville, Tenn.

The new organization has not written goals as yet, but tentative ones will be to Expand concepts of Mission, Emphasize Leadership Development, Interest and Recruit Young Women and Non-Members.

Our most important task for the year will be to create a feeling of oneness.

We wish to express our appreciation to all who have helped us become a new organization and to Bishop and Mrs. Robert Blackburn for all their support and help in many ways. We in turn pledge our support to the Conference in every way that we can under our Purpose.

Mrs. D. K. Fry, President

THE DIVISION ON WORSHIP

The Division on Worship has been organized in accordance with the Discipline and has met three times during the 1972-73 conference year. Three additional meetings have been held by the Executive Committee. The Division was responsible for the Communion Services at Annual Conference, the worship services for "Summer R & R", and the Bishop's Meeting with Young Methodists in Greenville, Fayetteville, and Raleigh.

The Division on Worship is presently involved in the following:

1. Studying ways in which congregational worship can be made more meaningful to children
2. Encouraging local churches to provide for their Chairmen of the Work Area on Worship copies of the following resource material: "The Book of Worship," "Companion to The Book of Worship," "Companion to The Book of Hymns," "Manual for the Chairman of The Work Area on Workshop."
3. Compiling an Index Loose-Leaf Manual of Worship Resources. This manual will consist of materials provided by the pastors of our conference along with resources from the Virginia Conference and Ventures in Worship. Upon completion, copies of the manual will be made available to the pastors of our conference.

METHODIST MINISTERS CREDIT UNION

Most of you have seen on TV the National Credit Union ad. The theme is "Your Credit Union is where you belong." Perhaps you did not connect the ad with Methodist Ministers Credit Union, but Methodist Ministers Credit Union is your Credit Union and it is where you belong if you are a minister serving in our Conference. The field of membership includes you, you spouse, and the children of members.

We are glad you belong by definition. We also invite you to participate actively in the savings and loan agency where service comes before profit. Join your Credit Union and practice thrift with us. It will help you and all those who join with you.

The record of this year indicates more of us are beginning to sense the real significance and potential of the Credit Union for service in human betterment. May 31, 1972 our assets were $485,631.01. On June 2, 1973 our assets reached $590,497.93—an increase of $104,866.92 in 368 days. Assets will top $600,000.00 before the close of this session of Conference. Over one-sixth of our total growth in thirty-five years has taken place this year.

The future is bright and your participation can increase your credit union's usefulness. Already it is strong enough to render a real service in the midst of economic need. And yet we are too small to meet nearly all the opportunities.

We ought to be helping our preachers prepare for retirement as well as lighten the burden of consumer debt. We have been able to finance a few short-term loans for buying real estate.

Whether you need consumer credit or credit to buy a home, shop for it with great care. Do not be fooled by percentages. Remember, you repay in dollars and cents. Always compare with your credit union before you buy credit anywhere. If you can get a better buy elsewhere, we will be happy for you. If we know where you can get it, we'll recommend that you go there. Be sure you know your rights to prepay without penalty before you sign, as well as the extra fee if any.

Let us take time to remind our laymen and laywomen and churches that they can have a very significant part in this ministry of service. You can invest in a deposit account in an amount from $100.00 to $20,000.00 and receive a guaranteed 5% annual interest compounded quarterly. Your participation can hasten the day when we can go on to areas of larger and longer service to our preachers.

Again this year one of our retired preachers has given us $500.00. His motivation for giving the Credit Union is to help lift its potential for service. This money is held in a special serve. This could well be the beginning of a scholarship fund in our Credit Union.

We invite you to bring us your questions, your problems, and your money—either to the Credit Union table in the south foyer here or at our office in Raleigh. Our new office hours are from 9:00 A.M. to 1:00 P.M., Monday through Friday, except holidays. Mrs. Clarice Carter is our part-time bookkeeper secretary. The office will be open most afternoons unless it is necessary for your treasurer to be out making contacts and serving in the field.

Mrs. Mitchell is no longer a salaried employee of your credit union. Her service in the future, as it was in the beginning, will be a work of love.

The figures below will help you see at a glance where we have come from so quickly. From them we may gain inspiration to go forward in greater ventures of service. Thank all of you who have made this record of service.

 President of United Methodist Men

Plan to be implemented by the Division of Lay Life and Work with the cooperation of the District Council on Ministries, Division of Ministry, and Leadership Development Committee.

- That each District consider holding a United Methodist Men's Retreat.
- That each District Board of Laity hold four meetings each year for the training of its membership and the dissemination of information. One of these meetings shall include the full board.
- That a Lay-Clergy dialogue shall be planned and implemented in each District by the District Council on Ministries.

61. That continued use of the "Listening Session" be considered in each District. Implementation shall be by the District Council on Ministries.
62. That continuation of the "No Silent Pulpit" program during Lent be implemented by the officers of the District Board of the Laity.
63. That continuation of the Bishop's Award Program for United Methodist Men's Organizations be implemented by the officers of the District Board of the Laity.
64. That emphasis be given to the organization of New United Methodist Men's groups in an effort to work toward the goal of a Methodist Men's organization in every local church.
65. That attendance of men, women, and young adults be promoted in the National Conference of the Laity at Purdue University, July 13-15, 1973.
66. That we continue to become informed concerning the youth programs of the church, and consider our participation in the implementation of these programs as one of our highest priorities.

Division of Stewardship

67. That district meetings be held during the month of September, 1973 on Stewardship with a Spiritual Emphasis. The plan of implementation shall be developed by the Conference Staff, District Superintendents, the District Lay and Clerical members of Stewardship and the Council on Ministries, in cooperation with the Chairman of the Division of Stewardship. (Postponed by request of Division).
68. That a file be produced to be used by Trust Officers of Banks and Attorneys in the making of wills, legacies, etc. To be implemented by Council staff representatives.

Division of Evangelism

71. That local churches should consider having at least a six-month period for Confirmation Training.
72. That there shall be a Conference-wide Convocation on Evangelism in March of 1974. This would be a follow-up to Key 73 and a projection toward the future. It will be implemented by the Division of Evangelism in cooperation with the Bishop, Cabinet and Conference Council on Ministries.
73. That in Phase Four - Key 73 - A Call to New Life - New Styles of Ministry, Local Churches, clusters of churches and/or districts should consider:
 - Summer Leisure Programs with Children*
 - (A) Cooperative Vacation Church Schools
 - (B) Home Neighborhood Classes
 - (C) Story Hour in the Church
 - (D) "R is for Religion"—This is the title for a series of lessons written especially for groups in the inner city. These are courses for children in grades one through six.
 - Religious Rock Festivals*
 - Art Festivals*
 - "Tell it Like He Is"*—a model for Evangelism involving Bible Study and visitation
 - Vacation Ministries*—such as movies on the beach and Zacchaeus Ministries (which involves a ministry to campsites)
74. That in Phase Five—Key 73 - A Call to Proclamation, local churches, clusters of churches and/or districts should consider:
 - Youth Outreach Weeks*—Involving training each morning outreach every afternoon and rallies each evening
 - Fair Ministries*—involving booths, displays, multi-media presentation and services such as child care and rest areas.
 - Impact Weeks*—These are intended to be saturation type experiences using every means possible of proclaiming and demonstrating the Christian Faith.

5. That in Phase Six – Key 73 – A Call to Commitment, local churches, clusters of churches and/or districts should consider having various types of commitment services and celebrations as Key 73 is fulfilled and projections for 1974 are being made.
6. That local churches should consider having either a “New Life” mission or a “We Care” mission. Materials for these are available.
7. That the N.C. Conference should promote attendance to the Youth Convocation at Lake Junaluska, August 20-25, 1973. These should represent local churches, districts and the Conference. This is a Convocation related to Key 73.

Division on Worship

3. That there shall be in each District, upon request of the District Superintendent and the District Council on Ministries, a workshop on the Sunday morning worship service. These workshops will be held in February 1974. The plan of implementation shall be developed by the Conference Division on Worship.
9. That there shall be a Bishop's Meeting with Confirmation Classes on the following dates: March 16, 1974; March 23, 1974; March 30, 1974. The plan of implementation shall be developed by the Conference Division on Worship.

Division of Ecumenical and Interreligious Concerns

0. That churches not having had a study on COCU consider doing so if possible with other denominations. The emphasis should be upon the theological principles, as found on pages 1-41 in The Plan of Union. A written response should be sent to Reverend E.R. Porter at the Methodist Building.
1. That local chairmen of Ecumenical and Interreligious Concerns be encouraged to attend the Ecumenical and Interreligious Concerns Workshops at Summer R and R – July 30 – August 4, 1973. Implementation: Local Church Chairmen.

5. That local churches continue to provide support of Key 73 programs (phases 2 through 6) with emphasis on inter-church co-operative efforts. Implementation: Local Churches, Council on Ministries.
6. That the Annual Conference continue to express an interest in COCU. Implementation: Annual Conference.

Division of Health and Welfare

7. That the daily allowance for Golden Cross assistance be $35.00 per day during the 1973 and 1974 Conference Years.
Due to the limitation of funds the Golden Cross program cannot be offered to non-Methodist families. Applications for Golden Cross must be co-signed by the local pastor, the charge lay leader and the district chairman. An initial approval for Golden Cross service must be limited to 14 days. An additional 7 days may be requested by the district chairman, subject to the approval of the Conference Golden Cross director and chairman of the Division of Health and Welfare Ministries, but only in unusual cases. In no event may more than 21 days be approved for the same person within a 6-month period.
38. That commendation be expressed for the work of Chaplain Wesley Aitken and his staff in the chaplaincy program at Duke Medical Center and that we continue our support of this program in the amount of $5500 for a twelve-month year.
89. That recognition be given for the work with alcoholics of The Reverend J.C. Dunn in the Good Shepherd Home at Lake Waccamaw, N.C., and that we continue our support in the amount of $2500 for a twelve-month year.
90. That the Thanksgiving season continue to be reserved as a period of publicizing and promoting the Church's ministry to children through the Methodist Home for Children, and that other interests and causes not be permitted to encroach upon or conflict with this traditional emphasis.

91. That the week of Mother's Day be reserved as a period of publicizing and promoting the church's ministry to the senior citizens through the Methodist Retirement Home, and that other interests and causes not be permitted to encroach upon or conflict with this traditional emphasis.
92. That the Methodist Home for Children shall create and implement a program of educating the local churches about the total program of its work.
93. That every local church be urged to make its Health and Welfare representative a member of the Council on Ministries and that names of local church representatives be forwarded by the District Superintendent to the Conference Council office.
94. That churches move as rapidly as possible toward providing an adequate education and training program for the mentally retarded children, youth, and adults of our communities.

That the ministers become familiar with the problems of mental retardation, as well as the helpful resources available to both themselves and to the families of the mentally retarded. That four mental retardation workshops involving ministers, parents of retarded children, and church school teachers be conducted in January of 1974. That plans for these workshops be implemented by the Division of Health and Welfare, the Board of Church and Society, and the Conference Council Staff with expenses to be shared by the two agencies involved.

Division of Missions

95. That there shall be in each district a Mission Rally. These Rallies will be held in September, 1974. The plan of implementation shall be developed by the Committee on Education and Cultivation of the Division of Missions.
96. That each District Council on Ministries should consider planning a Workshop on Mission Studies for 1973-1974. Implementation should be by District Council on Ministries Mission Task Force.
97. That each local church should consider having at least one of the four church-wide studies during 1973-1974. Promotion is to be through the work of the District Council on Ministries Mission Task Force. The mission studies for 1973-1974 are: Why Christian Mission Today?; Women—One-Half the World's Population; Contemporary Christian Writings; and Justice, Liberation and Development.
98. That each local church pay the expenses of delegates representing said local church to Summer R and R. Implementation will be done by the Committee on Education and Cultivation through the subcommittee on Mission Studies working with the District Mission chairpersons.
99. That, with the improvement in Advance giving, District Superintendents continue to present the "Advance Giving Work Sheet" to each local church, emphasizing "second-mile giving" through Advance and urging each church to be a participant in the Advance program. Implementation will be by District Superintendents who ask for the Advance Giving Work Sheet at each charge conference.
100. That the Conference approve the following Advance Specials for 1973-1974:
 - a. World Mission
 1. A church center in New Delhi, India (four year goal for RKP) $100,000.00
 2. Kindergarten in Austria for retarded children, $1,000.00.
 3. Fifty scholarships for Taiwanese at $125 each, $6,250.00.
 4. Social service, agriculture, evangelism in Bolivia, amount undesignated.
 5. Salary support for mission families, amount undesignated.
 - b. National Mission
 1. Robeson County Church and Community Center, $10,000.00.
 2. Hinton Rural Life Center, $5,000.00.
 - c. UMCOR: Annual goal, $5,000.00.
 - d. Conference Advance Specials
 1. Beach ministries, $5,000.00.
 2. United Methodist Camps, undesignated amount.
 3. Ten Dollar Club—Phase II, to provide appropriate support of all aspects of the Ten Dollar Club program, we recommend its continued promotion at the local church level through observance of Church Extension Sunday on February 17, 1974, and through personal solicitations.

Goal: 1500 new members.

01. The adoption of a set of specific guidelines and criteria, to be formulated by this Committee, for the allocation of Ten Dollar Club Funds to meet crucial church extension needs in existing churches within the North Carolina Conference.
02. The reappointment of the following persons as Church and Community workers:
Miss Bernice Ballance – Harnett County and Fayetteville District
Miss Mary Cameron – Church & Community Center of Robeson County
Miss Kathy Mitchem – Church & Community Center of Robeson County
The plan of implementation shall be developed by the National Board of Missions, the North Carolina Conference Division of Missions and the local situation in question.
03. The church(es) of the Year Award(s) (plaques) be continued if merited: (one Award to a Charge under 500 members), (one Award to a Charge under 1,000 members), (one Award to a Charge over 1,000 members) and (one Award to a Parish development situation), to be implemented by the Church and Community Committee of the Division of Missions. Applications will be submitted by local charges who wish to apply and this Committee will have a sub-committee to make selections.
04. That each District Council on Ministries shall study its district for areas where parish development would help bring about "Stronger Pastoral Charges for Better Ministry." The plan of implementation shall be through the District Council on Ministries.
05. That a task group shall be made available to areas in our conference where there is interest and need in Parish Development. The plan of implementation shall be developed by the Parish Development-Town and Country Committee in cooperation with the leadership of the area requesting the assistance, including the District Superintendent.
06. That training opportunities shall be made available in the area of Parish Development. These shall be implemented by the Parish Development-Town and Country Committee, and the Committee on Continuing Education, and that scholarship assistance be provided through these committees.

OTHER REPORTS OF BOARDS AND AGENCIES AND RESOLUTIONS

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY
RECOMMENDATIONS

1. There shall be three meetings of the entire Commission by December 31, 1974. The first shall be on September 8, 1973 at Prospect Church in Robeson County; the second on March 2, 1974 at Zion Church in Montgomery County; and the third on September 6, 1974 at a place to be announced. The plan for implementation of these meetings shall be developed by the chairman and the host pastors.

2. There shall be five representatives of the Commission attend the Southeastern Jurisdiction Commission on Archives and History at St. Simons Island, Georgia on July 10-12, 1973. Three shall be partially compensated by the jurisdiction and two by the Conference Commission. The plan for implementation shall be developed by the Commission chairman and the delegates.

3. There shall be a brochure of the sixteen national shrines of Methodism with each shrine described on the front fold together with a picture, the piece to be used as a "hand out" at that shrine which orders the brochure. These are now being prepared from materials supplied by individual contributors and will be in print before the end of this reporting period. The plan for implementation shall be developed by the General Commission of Archives and History together with the Conference Commissions where such shrines are situated. We have Whitakers Chapel and Green Hill House within our Conference bounds and have ordered 2,000 copies of the brochure.

4. There shall be a listing of historic dates throughout the Conference for 1974 which are suitable to be marked by special observances with a major emphasis upon centennials. District trustees shall survey their districts every way possible and report their findings at the fall meeting of the Commission in 1973. Our Conference Commission shall then choose which special events they will help promote. The plan for implementation shall be developed by the district trustees.

5. There shall be a Methodist Heritage Tour of historic places in England on November 27-December 5, 1973. The tour shall be offered on an individual basis conference-wide but endorsed and publicized by the Conference Commission. The plan for implementation shall be developed by Bishop Robert M. Blackburn and the tour director, Dr. William K. Quick.

6. There shall be an effort to locate old District Conference records and collect these for safe keeping. Reporting on this is to be made at each Commission meeting. The plan for implementation shall be developed by the district trustees and chairman of the Commission as soon as a place can be secured for depositing such archives.

7. There shall be a list of deceased ministers of the Methodist Protestant Church prepared and those who served within the bounds of the North Carolina Conference included with the list of deceased ministers printed in the Conference Journal. This list shall be included in the 1976 Journal. The plan for implementation shall be developed by Dr. Ralph Hardee Rives and the Conference Secretary.

8. There shall be an historical marker prepared and erected at Gibson in Scotland County honoring the late Bishop W.W. Peele. This project was proposed in 1970 and has been submitted to the State Department of Archives and History for their approval. The plan for implementation shall be developed by the State Department and the Conference Commission chairman acting to encourage their action.

9. There shall be continuing support of Whitaker's Chapel and Rehoboth Church. This includes monthly services and special observances directed by local people with some financial consideration for maintenance of the properties by the Commission by May 31, 1973. The plan for implementation shall be developed by Dr. Ralph Hardee Rives, Dr. A.L. Whitehurst and the Commission chairman.

10. The Commission on Archives and History shall consider locating a place where records histories and archives of the church can be stored for research and safe keeping. This matter has been discussed at the last two meetings. Dr. William K. Quick is to check on the availability of the old Conference Secretary's office at the Methodist Headquarters Building, Dr. Adolph Dial suggested the Manuscript Department at Duke University, others thought our Methodist colleges would make room for this repository. Results of these investigations will be made at the fall meeting of the Commission.

11. The Conference Commission on Archives and History took the first step to consider the possibility of holding a Bicentennial of the Carolina Circuit in 1976 to coincide with the National Bicentennial Year. During the first half of 1973 the Western North Carolina Conference Commission will be contacted and invited to participate on a joint basis. Following their consideration a Bicentennial Committee shall be established composed of representatives of all branches of Methodism in North Carolina. This committee will develop the program for the event. Financial needs shall then be determined during 1974 and askings presented to the Commission on Finance and Administration.

REPORT OF JOINT COMMITTEE ON DISABILITY Ministers' Emergency Fund

1. The Sustentation Fund is to be used for emergency relief in the form of grants to effective ministers and lay pastors serving appointments whose salary is paid by the local church or conference treasurer, and who become disable to the extent that they are unable to continue their work, and whose income is not adequate to meet emergency needs.

2. Emergency appropriations shall be used to bring the disabled minister's income up to a maximum of $4,320 per conference year. If the applicant receives other personal income in excess of $4,320 such additional income shall be deducted from the emergency grant. In no event shall the emergency funds be used to supplement an applicant's income of $4,320 or above.

3. Payment of this $4,320 will be on the basis of $360 per month. Payment will be made only during those months the applicant qualifies for Emergency Funds. No funds will be appropriated without three-fourths approval of the Joint Committee on Disability.

4. The Joint Committee on Disability secretary must place all necessary forms in the hands of the Cabinet members at the beginning of each conference year.

5. In all cases the applications—the district superintendent, the doctor, and the applicant—shall be completed and forwarded to the chairman of the committee before approval of funds will be made. Any minister expecting to receive Emergency Funds at the beginning of the conference year should make application not later than two weeks before the annual conference convenes.

6. The Joint Committee on Disability may require physiological and psychological examination when deemed necessary by the committee. These will be done by a doctor approved by the committee and results of tests will be sent to the committee. In such a case the committee may share the expense of the examination in an amount not to exceed $100.

7. Funds will be made payable within thirty days following committee approval.

8. In cases where application for Emergency Funds occur during the session of the annual conference, the applicant's district superintendent, and the applicant, when possible, shall present an oral application to a joint committee of the Cabinet and at least three members of the Joint Committee on Disability. At this time appropriate action will be taken in keeping with the best interest of the applicant and in the spirit of the Emergency Fund. The written forms must be completed and placed with the committee within thirty days of this meeting.

9. All cases shall be reviewed at the middle of the Conference year to determine progress made in each case. It shall be the responsibility of each applicant's district superintendent to see that the progress reports—statements from the doctor and the district superintendent—are completed and placed with the committee. Should this review of the applicant's disability reveal that he is capable of reassuming work, it shall be the responsibility of the Joint Committee on Disability to bring this information to the attention of the Cabinet.

10. Should the disability continue beyond one year or through one annual conference we call attention to the fact that the General Board of Pensions makes medical disability payments, based on a man's service years. We also call attention that it is possible that in some cases retirement may offer specific advantages over Emergency Fund aid.

11. Should the disability continue beyond one year or through one annual conference, the Joint Committee will conform to Disciplinary Requirements as found in paragraph 357 which demand annual conference approval.

12. We recommend that expenses of travel, telephone, postage, etc. for committee be paid from the Emergency Fund.

13. Be it Resolved, that the Joint Committee on Disability and the Cabinet work with the agencies and institutions to utilize talents and abilities of disabled ministers. It is recommended that where it is possible to give full or part-time employment by matching a need of the institutions or agency, to that of the disabled minister, it is strongly urged to do so. It is recommended that the administrative head of each institution and agency supply a list of possible positions to the Cabinet and to the Joint Committee on Disability, who will work for mutual satisfaction and placement. The final decision will rest with the Cabinet.

14. That the Joint Committee on Disability shall assume the conference coverage of Group Life Insurance and Health Insurance only for that time that a person is on Disability. This is in addition to the monthly basic grant of $360, provided no other provisions for such insurance is made.

15. The Committee urges that church and/or interested individuals recognize the contributions made by the ministers of the Conference by providing rent free houses for those men who are disabled and cannot continue their pastoral work.

THE COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE SALARIES

Recommended Minimum Salary Schedules for 1973-1974

The Schedule of Equitable Salaries as amended is as follows:

I.
Full-Time Conf. and Assoc. Conf. Members	1973 (7/12)	1974
One or more dependent children	$4,433	$7,600
Married	4,316	7,400
Single	4,200	7,200
Full-time Lay Pastors
One or more dependent children	4,083	7,000
Married	3,967	6,800
Single	3,850	6,600
Student
One or more dependent children	3,500	6,000
Married	3,383	5,800
Single	3,267	5,600

Recommendations:

1. Travel allowance is based on the distance of student's parsonage from the school he attends. When the parsonage is 25 miles or less, it shall be $100; when the parsonage is more than 25 miles but less than 50 miles, it shall be $200; when the parsonage is more than 50 miles but less than 75 miles, it shall be $300; when the parsonage is more than 75 miles but less than 100 miles, it shall be $400; and when the parsonage is 100 miles or more from the school, $500 shall be the maximum travel allowance. One half of the travel allowance will be made available between September 1 and December 31 and the other half between January 1 and April 30. The Commission requests permission from the Annual Conference to make such raises in minimum salary schedules for the Conference Year 1973-74, beginning January 1, 1974, as available funds may permit.

2. Retired Supply Pastors: $3,000 (including travel and utilities).

3. Part-time Supplies: Ministers of any status who are serving part-time will receive income from Minimum Salary funds, if any, on a basis negotiated with the church, the pastor, the District Superintendent, and the Equitable Salary Commission.

II.

Principles Governing the Use of Minimum Salary Funds

The Commission urges each charge receiving Minimum Salary funds, its minister, and district superintendents so to administer the affairs of the charge that it may move as rapidly as possible toward full financial support.

To enable the conference, the commission, and the superintendents to carry on their cooperative efforts in understanding, harmony, and for the greatest good for all concerned, the following principles and procedures are set forth:

1. The family or marital status of the pastor at the time of assignment to the charge shall govern the amount paid the minister for the entire conference year.

2. In considering the salary for a charge, we call attention to the fact that the Commission on Equitable Salary must count salary, travel, utilities, bonuses, and expense allowances as salary in making appropriations to the charge. We stress the importance of reporting all contributions, so that all ministers involved may be treated alike.

3. No charge may receive from minimum salary more than one-third of the total salary received with the exception of newly-established congregations. Charges must be arranged so that no more than one-third of the total salary be supplemented from minimum salary funds. Charges asking for more than one-third supplement must make an additional application, indicating the reasons for being given special consideration.

4. Beginning at the 1974 Annual Conference Pastoral Charges of less than 400 members, in order to receive Equitable Salary funds, must appear before a district committee on Equitable Salary before April 15 and show cause why supplementary funds must be made available for that charge. Creation of circuits and/or charges should be on the basis of mutual agreement by all churches on the circuit rather than simply from the desire of the larger church to withdraw from its own benefit and advancement.

5. In the division of circuits where one church seeks to become a station, is recommended that such church assume all salary obligations and its proportionate share of single-figure asking.

a. It is recommended that the remainder of the division pay two-thirds of pastoral support, and its share of single-figure asking.

b. The Commission on Equitable Salaries further recommends that each charge which has received, or shall hereafter receive minimum salary aid, shall reduce this aid by 10% each year until the charge has accepted full self-support. The district superintendents are to inform all charges receiving, or to receive aid in the future, of this regulation which district superintendents should report. This requirement must be kept in mind in preparing for any requests.

c. When a charge has been established as a student appointment and desires to be served by a full-time minister, this change may take place at such time as the charge shall pay two-thirds of the amount needed to provide such full-time ministerial support and shall agree to reduce the aid by 10% each year.

d. When there is a division of a charge forming one or more student appointments, the charge must pay two-thirds of said salary.

6. When a new church is to be established and becomes a new charge, the district superintendent shall present for study the complete details of the proposed project not later than May 1. These details shall be presented by them to the Conference Board of Missions and the Commission on Equitable Salaries. If such new church is approved by the Board and Commission, the Commission shall provide Minimum Salary assistance and the Board shall supplement the salary to make it adequate, and shall assist the new charge in providing living quarters for the minister and a place to meet and worship. It shall be understood that each year the new charge shall accept more of the budget until it becomes self-supporting. We recommend that each new church shall become self-supporting in a period of ten years or less.

a. Exception will be made if charge has made a reasonable effort to become self-supporting and is willing and able to increase salary at least $300 annually, increase its one-figure askings proportionately, and reach full support within five more years. We also recommend that the minimum salary supplement be stopped at any time when a full-time pastor takes over employment or is not employed full-time and that such a pastor may be reinstated at any time during the year that he returns to full-time ministerial status.

The Lake Junaluska Development Fund appeal is based on a minimum goal of $1.00 per member over the next four years.

1. Allocations to the charges for Single Figure have been made by the Council on Finance and Administration based on the current formula provided for the Single Figure Asking. Each cause shall be paid proportionately out of the income from acceptances up to the amount fixed in the budget. Any surplus shall be held by the conference treasurer to be expended by the Annual Conference upon the recommendation of the Council. In the event collections shall fall short, all items shall be paid pro-rata or proportionate excepting pre-existing commitments. The Council shall be authorized to review the amount of distribution in relation to the need of the cause or project and make any supplementary distribution from available funds, if any, in the conference reserve in accordance with the judgment of the Council.

2. The following special offerings shall be taken in each local church and remitted to the Conference Treasurer as separate items. They are not to be included in the Single Figure Askings: World Communion Sunday, Methodist Student Day, One Great Hour of Sharing, Human Relations Day.

TOTAL	$3,395,189.30

1. The Single Figure Asking Formula approved by the Annual Conference in 1967 as amended in 1971 shall be continued. Further, each church shall be informed at the Charge Conference of the amount which the Fair Share Single Figure formula assigned to it, with churches that are already exceeding the amount being apportioned as much as the previous year or the new Single Figure arrived at by the formula whichever is more and that all churches now giving less than the amount which the formula assigned be urged to increase to the needed amount within a period of two years.

2. The Askings as computed by the Treasurer's Office according to the formula shall be transmitted to the charges by the District Superintendents without adjustments.

3. Beginning with the Fiscal Year 1974, the conference budget to be raised the following year will be formulated in the spring of each year in time to be included in the Book of Recommendations and presented to the Annual Conference in June for adoption. On the basis of the adopted budget, Askings to the charges will be given to the District Superintendents by July 15. Charge Conferences and every-member commitment efforts will be conducted in the fall. Following the full report from the District Superintendents (by November 15) of the Acceptances by the charges, the Council on Finance and Administration is authorized to make any necessary adjustment and finalize the budget to be raised the following year.

4. Each Conference Board, Agency, Division, Committee, Commission, etc., receiving allocations from the conference budget shall submit a detailed operating budget to the Council on Finance and Administration by November 15th just prior to the beginning of each fiscal year on standardized forms provided by the Treasurer's Office. These operating budgets will then be approved by the Council on Finance and Administration in light of the funds available for the ensuing year. Since these will be line item budgets, expenditures will be coded and controlled by each line in the budget. Up to $1,000 may be transferred from one line item to another in the individual budget with the approval of the Conference Treasurer. The transfer of amounts over $1,000 from one line to another must have the approval of the body originally approving the operating budget and the Council on Finance and Administration.

5. Fund balances at the end of each fiscal year will revert back to the Central Treasury. Depending on the size of the balance, a contingency fund may be allowed equal to 10% of the budget amount approved by the Council on Finance and Administration for the year following the year in which the balance occurred.

6. No conference agency's budget shall incorporate funds to be appropriated to a non-conference agency, without specific approval of the North Carolina Annual Conference.

7. Monies paid by charges toward the Single Figure Asking shall be reported to the Statistician by the Conference Treasurer and all other funds paid by the local church shall be reported in the Pastor's Report, Table # II.

8. No transfer of funds shall be made from one line item in the Conference Budget to another without approval of the Council on Finance and Administration.

9. The Council on Finance & Administration shall maintain an Emergency Fund equal to % of each current annual budget to be built upon the current Contingency Reserve of $99,004.00. This fund shall not be subject to problems of budget shrinkage but is to be used only for emergencies.

IV.

1. (a) The salary of each of the district superintendents shall be set at $15,042.50 plus $1,600.00 travel expense. Such part of said salary that is paid out by the District Superintendent to cover the actual costs of all those utilities applicable to the operation and maintenance of his district personage is hereby assigned as housing expense not to exceed the sum of $800.00 for heat, water electrical services and residential telephone. We recommend that all districts assume this expense for these utilities.

(b) Each district shall provide an amount equal to 1% of the District Superintendent's salary and travel to be allocated for the Ministers Retirement Fund in lieu of institutional payment, which in the case of pastors, is provided by the charge.

(c) The District shall also provide the institutional payment for group life insurance and group hospital and medical insurance. 2. We approved the use of an amount up to $4,000.00 to be provided by each district for the district superintendent for secretarial help and promotion of the district program. 3. The salary and benefits of the Director of the Conference Council on Ministries shall be the same as those provided for the District Superintendents.

V.

Approval is given to the requests of the following agencies for the privilege of soliciting funds throughout the Conference:

1. Christmas Offering 1973 for district superintendents' program and/or projects. These should be clearly defined in plenty of time to have successful promotion.

2. The Board of Missions for the promotion of the Church Extension Ten Dollar Club.

3. The Board of Education to solicit from church groups and individuals, materials and money for specific projects for the four camps of the North Carolina Conference.

4. Interconference Commission on Campus Ministry for the privilege of private solicitation for special gifts for the benefit of special works in the state-supported institutions.

5. Methodist Retirement Homes, Incorporated; Methodist Home for Children; The Rural Church Fund; Louisburg College; Methodist College; and North Carolina Wesleyan College for the privilege of private solicitation and receipt of such funds as may be directed thereto with the understanding that such solicitation or private campaign may not be taken into the local churches of the conference.

6. The Methodist Foundation, Inc., as provided in its charter.

VI.

Unless otherwise directed, the Council on Finance and Administration will continue to use A. M. Pullen & Company as auditors.

The president, vice-president and secretary of the Council on Finance and Administration and the Conference Treasurer shall serve as the executive committee of the Council on Finance and Administration.

The Conference fiscal year will close December 31, 1973. We shall make every effort to pay our current 12-months' financial obligations to the General Conference by December 31 which coincides with the General Conference fiscal year. Payments will actually be made to the General Conference only on the basis of collections through December 31 in amounts not to exceed the General Conference apportionment on the basis of the General Conference calendar year. This places on each charge a special responsibility for raising in full the 7-months budget by December 31, 1973.

The Conference Treasurer is requested to include in his monthly financial district reports, for any given month, all monies received in his office by 8:30 A.M. on the 5th day of the following month.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Distribution of College Sustaining Funds

We recommend that College Sustaining Funds continue to be distributed quarterly from current receipts on the same percentage formula as was used in the past as follows:

First $525,000.00 for Operating Budget

Methodist College	$171,021.00	$ 99,762.00
North Carolina Wesleyan College	171,021.00	99,762.00
Louisburg College	125,520.00	73,219.00
Duke University (Divinity School)	21,966.00	12,814.00

Greensboro College	16,736.00	9,763.00
High Point College	16,736.00	9,763.00
Bennett College	2,000.00	2,000.00
Total	$25,000.00	$306,250.00

Next $25,000.00 for Capital Purposes

Methodist College	$ 10,000.00
North Carolina Wesleyan College	10,000.00
Louisburg College	5,000.00
Total	$ 25,000.00
Grand Total	$550,000.00

11. Actions and Recommendations

- A. The Division deferred action on recommending Sustaining Fund appropriation to Bennett College beyond December 31, 1973, subject to an evaluation of the effect of the Black College Fund which is a local church asking for the first time.
- B. The Division deferred action on the recommendation that it study the relationship of the North Carolina Annual Conference to Greensboro College, High Point College, and Duke University Divinity School with reference to continued support from the Sustaining Fund until the "Bishops' Joint Study Committee" has moved along further in its deliberations.
- C. We recommend that the North Carolina Annual Conference endorse a program of scholarships whereby each local church or charge develops scholarship aid for students from that church or charge attending our three conference colleges.

REPORT OF THE DIVISION OF HEALTH AND WELFARE

GOLDEN CROSS COMMITTEE

1. The Committee recommends the continuation of the Golden Cross Ministry.
2. The Committee recommends our continuation in the Blue Cross Hospitalization Program adopted at the 1971 Session of the Annual Conference.

RETIREMENT HOME COMMITTEE

1. The Committee requests the bishop to appoint Reverend Joseph F. Coble to be administrator of the Retirement Home for the 1973-1974 Conference Year, and The Reverend LaFon Vereen as administrative assistant.
2. The committee also requests that the Home be given the privilege of solicitation of funds for the purpose of carrying on the work of The Home and the financing of another within the bounds of the conference.
3. The Long Range Planning Committee of the Methodist Retirement Home informed the Division that a free standing Health Care Center will be built on the grounds of our present home in Durham with a capacity of between 100 and 125 beds. This will enable the Home to accept 40 additional people in the space presently occupied by the Nursing Center, and to accept from 30 to 40 skilled nursing cases. This came to our Division as a report and required no action, and we simply pass the information on to the members of the Annual Conference.
4. Following the action of the Annual Conference last year to build an additional Retirement Home, the trustees of the Home adopted the following guidelines:
 - I. Interest on the part of Methodist in the area the home is to be built.
 - (a) To provide leadership and financial support during the planning and initial construction.
 1. A minimum of $250,000 from the area.
 2. Land - though 50 acres would be desirable there will be a minimum of 40 acres in open country and 25 acres in a congested area.
 - (b) Continued support of time, talents, and finances.
 - II. Availability of Medical and Ancillary services.
 - (a) Doctors-General practitioners, dentists, medical specialists, etc.
 - III. Employees
 - (a) Skilled nurses, technicians, etc.
 - (b) Unskilled aides, orderlies, cooks, etc.
 - IV. Physical location of site-accessibility.
 - Availability of:
 - (a) Utilities-water sewer, electrical power, etc.
 - (b) Transportation-easily accessible both private and public for employees, members and visitors.
 - (c) Church and shopping facilities.
 - V. Ability to secure a certificate of need.

CHILDREN'S HOME COMMITTEE

1. The Committee requests the bishop to appoint the Reverend J. Worth Lineberger to be superintendent, and the Reverend James M. Waggoner to be chaplain for the 1973-1974 Conference Year.
2. The Committee recommends that The Home be given the privilege to solicit funds and receive gifts for the purpose of carrying on the work of The Home.

IV. LONG RANGE PLANNING COMMITTEE

1. We strongly urge every local church to make the Health and Welfare representative a member of the Council on Ministries. The 1970 General Conference left this as an option, but we feel that if he is to be effective in his work he must be represented on the council. For too long we have thought of this person being responsible simply in the area of Golden Cross, but with the new setup created by the 1972 General Conference his work has been greatly expanded. This person must be aware of community needs at every age level. We recommend that he have a committee to serve with him that could deal with community problems and emergencies. He must be conscious, for example, of the aging of his community and make a list of the many resources available to them, such as: health services, recreational opportunities, new learning experiences, counseling services, and even have a committee that would daily call old people who live alone to simply check on their welfare. When such services are not available, he could give leadership in helping create them. He might also have an emergency committee that he could call on for help with assistance when needed immediately, such as: where a child temporarily has no home because both parents are hurt in a wreck, or a home is burned and clothes are needed, etc. Health and Welfare must be conscious of the needs of any and every person of every age who needs help in his community. His work is limited only by his vision and willingness to serve.
2. The Long Range Planning Committee of the Methodist Retirement Home made the following suggestion, which they had previously approved:
 "As a result of the study and actual visits of the Long Range Planning Committee to a number of locations within the North Carolina Conference we make the following recommendation:
 - a. That the second Methodist Retirement Home be located and built in the Lumberton community.

Additional funds for the benevolent work of the new home(s) will be needed from the Conference Council on Administration and Finance.

INSURANCE COMMITTEE REPORT

The Insurance Committee, with the assistance of our consultant, has carefully reviewed the total insurance program provided for the members of the North Carolina Annual Conference, and their families. It is with a great deal of satisfaction that we make the following report.

THE GROUP TERM LIFE INSURANCE PLAN

We recommend that the present Group Term Life Insurance policy with Fidelity and Guaranty Life Insurance Company be continued until the anniversary date for renewal, January 1, 1975. We further recommend that the coverage remain the same, and that the premium rates remain the same.

We also recommend that the October quarterly premium, to be paid from the Cash Refund Receipts which have been made available, thus relieving the local church, or minister of paying this premium.

We have been very pleased with our experience during the past conference year. Payment of claims have amounted to $12,000. From the Cash Refund Receipts, we have been able to establish a $15,000 Rate Reserve Fund, which was approved by the 1971 annual conference. See page 332 of the Journal.

BLUE CROSS BLUE SHIELD HOSPITAL INSURANCE

We recommend that the present Hospital Insurance Plan, with North Carolina Blue Cross and Blue Shield, Inc., be continued until the anniversary date for renewal, January 1, 1975.

We recommend that the benefits provided in the current plan be continued, and that the premium payment arrangement continue as it is.

We recommend extending coverage for dependent children from age 19 so that if they are full time students in an accredited school, and unmarried, they may continue to be covered in the family coverage until their 26th birthday. Any change in status will cause the child to lose eligibility for this extended coverage. This additional benefit, will require a $.20 per month increase in the premium rates. We recommend that this increase in rate be added to the quarterly premium paid by the minister.

The Insurance Committee is very much aware that during the past year many irritating problems have occurred in the settling of claims. Some of the problems have arisen because of changes in the policies by which payment for medical services in the local hospital is made. Some have come about by staff personnel who did not know how to properly apply the conditions of the policy. The administration of Blue Cross Blue Shield has been made aware of our problems, and have responded to the satisfaction of the Insurance Committee. There is a good spirit of cooperation and everything indicates that better and more satisfactory service will be provided to our group.

Several requests have come to the Insurance Committee that the present group of Blue Cross Blue Shield insures be expanded so it can include any lay person employed by a local church. The payment of the premiums would be arranged at each local church level.

This suggestion has been analyzed carefully by The Insurance Committee. A great many administrative problems would arise out of this type group expansion. However, Blue Cross Blue Shield has been approached about developing ways whereby each local church could arrange for hospital insurance for any or all of its employees.

We recommend that, for those persons who are under age 65, and whose Blue Cross Blue Shield Hospital Insurance premiums are paid for by the Board of Pensions, that their benefits be increased to coincide with the benefits of the active ministers group. The changes are:

1. Change from the Extended Benefit Coverage to Major Medical Benefit.
2. Change the room allowance from $32.00 per day, to pay for full coverage of a semi-private room, or an equivalent amount for a private room.

Report No. 2

The Insurance Committee has been requested to investigate the possibility of expanding the present Blue Cross Blue Shield Hospital Insurance Group to include the lay employees of the local churches of our annual conference.

A study has revealed that to expand our group to include these local church employees would present administrative difficulties and could adversely affect the premium costs for the ministers group.

However, Blue Cross Blue Shield has indicated an interest in working out a plan or plans whereby local church employees could have a hospital insurance program. In order for an effective plan to be prepared, certain data needs to be obtained. Therefore, as soon after conference as it can be arranged, each church or charge in the conference will be written a letter. They will be asked if they now have employees who would be interested in this kind of hospital insurance; the number of employees who are interested, etc.

Since the proposed plan affects only those churches that desire to participate in the plan, and only those employees of the local church who desire to be insured, the Insurance Committee requests permission to further pursue the possibility of establishing such a lay employees Blue Cross Blue Shield Hospital Insurance plan. Further, we request that if there is sufficient interest to justify establishing such an insurance plan, that the Insurance Committee be authorized to implement the program, at the earliest date possible.

NOTICE OF CHANGE IN CONVERSION PRIVILEGE

For Persons Enrolling in Our Group After June 1, 1973

The present Blue Cross Blue Shield Group plan for our conference has a Waiver of Pre-existing Conditions clause. This means any minister who enrolls in our plan during the 30 day period when he first becomes eligible has full coverage immediately for any pre-existing condition for himself and the eligible members of his family. Normally there is a 24 month waiting period before a pre-existing condition is insurable.

Effective June 1, 1973, any eligible person who enrolls in our group after this date will continue to have the waiver of coverage benefit for himself and his family. If, however, for any reason he leaves our group before the full 24 month waiting period has expired, the insurance coverage he has because of the waiver for the pre-existing condition is voided. This means the 24 months waiting period for pre-existing conditions becomes effective, beginning with the date of enrollment.

n example of this change may be helpful.

Ray Doe became eligible for our group plan when he was admitted to the annual conference, June 5, 1973. He enrolled on that day. His wife has a pre-existing condition, which would normally require a 24 month waiting period, but because of our waiver privilege, 'she is insured immediately.

After a year in the conference, Ray Doe leaves our group, and takes out a private non-group policy. This policy would require the 24 month waiting period for pre-existing conditions. Then Mrs. Ray Doe would not be protected for the pre-existing condition, until June 5, 1975.

Those who are already enrolled in our Blue Cross Blue Shield Hospital Group are NOT affected by this new policy.

MISCELLANEOUS

We recommend the continuation of H. Gray Hutchinson and Associates as the consultant to our committee.

Frequently, the Insurance Committee is approached about giving an endorsement to some special type medical plan, or some other benefit which relates to insurance. We have examined all of the plans presented to us to determine the value of each. Without exception each program presented to us, is a type program which several companies provide. In order for the best program of benefits be made available to our conference, it would be necessary to let out the plan for contract bids to several companies. To let out a contract bid is very expensive. Therefore, the Insurance Committee goes on record notifying the conference that we will NOT give our endorsement to any program or plan offered by any agent or any company, unless the plan is first analyzed carefully by our consultant, and recommended for approval by the Insurance Committee. This means that before a plan is given consideration, it must be unique and something not available from other carriers, or that the benefits of the plan justify, in the opinion of the consultant and the Insurance Committee, consideration for putting out a contract with several companies. Therefore, we request that discretion be used before referring plans or companies to the Insurance Committee with their individual insurance plans.

We emphasize that eligibility to participate in the Group Term Life Insurance and Blue Cross Blue Shield Hospital Insurance is conditioned upon accruing pension credit in this annual conference, in one of the several available ways. Those persons whose employment is such as to not accrue pension credit, will have their participation in the insurance programs terminated. Opportunity will be given whereby such persons shall have the opportunity of enrolling in a private insurance plan, like those insurance plans of the conference, if they desire. This transfer to a private policy must be completed within 30 days after eligibility ends if coverage is to be uninterrupted.

THE COMMITTEE ON THE LAY WORKER

The Discipline of the United Methodist Church defines a Lay Worker in Paragraph 501 in this manner: "A Lay Worker in the church is a person other than the clergy whose decision to make a career of the work (either full-time or term) in the employed status in the church or church-related agencies is accompanied by the meeting of standards of excellence in the chosen field of service and who has been . . . consecrated by a bishop."

RECOMMENDED FOR CONSECRATION AS A LAY WORKER (Par. 502, Discipline)

Robert H. Garrison, Jr., Hayes Barton United Methodist Church, Fairview Road, Raleigh, N.C.
(Business Administrator)

Henry Ross, First United Methodist Church, Henderson, N.C. (Minister of Music)

S. Beth Downs, Epworth Methodist Church, Durham (D.C.E.)

UNCONSECRATED LAY WORKERS OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

Mrs. Barbara Johnson Barnes, Jarvis Memorial United Methodist Church, Greenville, N.C.
(D.C.E.)

Miss Mary Eugenia Beaty, First United Methodist Church, Rockingham, N.C. 28379 (Associate in Christian Ed.)

- Miss Margaret Ann Biddle, University United Methodist Church, Chapel Hill, N.C. 2751 (D.C.E.)
- Mrs. Laura James Davenport, First United Methodist Church, Wilson, N.C. 27893 (Min. of Music)
- Mrs. Ruthann Harris, Front Street United Methodist Church, Burlington, N.C. 27215 (Min. of Music)
- James Malone Marshall, Edenton Street United Methodist Church, Raleigh, N.C. 27608 (Min. of Music)
- Mrs. Alma Offutt, Queen Street United Methodist Church, Kinston, N.C. 28501 (Min. of Music)
- Roger Frank Searles, St. Paul United Methodist Church, Goldsboro, N.C. 27530 (Min. of Music)
- Mrs. Mary Smith, Highland United Methodist Church, Raleigh, N.C. 27607 (D.C.E.)
- Miss Carol Ann Tignor, Highland United Methodist Church, Raleigh, N.C. 27607 (D.C.E.)
- Miss Wanda Gail Walker, Long Memorial United Methodist Church, Roxboro, N.C. 2757 (D.C.E.)
- Richard Jerome Williams, Centenary United Methodist Church, Smithfield, N.C. 2757 (D.C.E.)

The Committee on the Lay Worker calls the attention of the Annual Conference and especially the attention of local churches employing lay workers to Par. 507.1: "The employing agency shall include the lay worker in the retirement plan of the Lay Employee Pension Fund (Par. 1377.12) or other such appropriate plan as provided by the Board of Pensions or other board or agencies of The United Methodist Church." For the sake of uniformity we recommend that the pension plan for Lay Workers in the North Carolina Conference be based upon an annual contribution of 9% of the employee's salary - 6% to be paid by the employing agent and 3% by the employee (or some combination of percentages to add up to 9%).

We encourage local churches employing lay workers to pay the premiums for the Blue Cross Blue Shield Insurance plan, and to participate, in their behalf, in the Conference program of Group Life Insurance.

The Committee on the Lay Worker also calls upon all local churches within her bounds to consider a pension program, as well as hospitalization and life insurance, for ALL LAY EMPLOYEES - not only those who qualify as lay workers.

REPORT OF DIVISION OF MINISTRY

Report I

The ordained ministry of The United Methodist Church cherishes its origin in the Christian tradition and in the Wesleyan heritage from which it has come. It seeks obedience to the Holy Spirit through cooperative efforts to perfect a ministry for the whole church. It faces the future eager to share new understandings and forms of the ministry which may be revealed. (Para. 304 1972 Book of Discipline)

The Division of Ministry believing that its reason for being is to see that the ordained ministry and lay pastors are equipped for ministry in the various areas of the United Methodist Church, states that its priority for this year is to further equip those in ministry for roles of Christian leadership and full, wholesome family life.

The Division of Ministry recommends a Retreat on Ministry to be held in each district of the Conference in which the priorities of our servanthood may be examined. These retreats should focus on the conservation of the ministry, the standards of our profession within the framework of our calling, ethics within the church and the community, and ways of developing growth in our personal and family life. Implementation for these retreats will be in the hands of the District Council on Ministries.

Each local church is urged to observe Ministry Sunday on September 16, 1973 (or the nearest convenient date) in order that the Pastoral Ministry, its nature and function, might be brought to the attention of our people. We encourage each minister during his pastorate in a particular parish to share with his people his sense of call to the ministry. If there is joy and excitement in the parish ministry, it ought to be communicated. If there is not, it will be communicated.

Our Conference is called to give attention to the Ministerial Education Fund which is a fruitful source of financial aid to undergraduates and seminary students preparing for parish ministry. This past year more than sixty persons were helped. We urge all our churches to focus their attention on the crucial opportunities present by paying their full apportionment of the Ministerial Education Fund. There are also exciting opportunities in Continuing Education that could be made available to our ministers if there were sufficient monies in the Ministerial Education Fund.

We call to the attention of all clerical members of the Annual Conference, including those under Special Appointment, paragraph 660.6 of the 1972 Book of Discipline, part of which reads: "Should any minister in active service absent himself from the session of the Annual Conference without a satisfactory reason for the absence, the matter shall be referred by the conference secretary to the Division of Ministry." The Division of Ministry will take such disciplinary action as it deems necessary.

METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION, INCORPORATED NORTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR JUNE 1, 1973 to DECEMBER 31, 1974

1. Recommended that January 1974 be a month for an intensive subscription campaign in each local church for the North Carolina Christian Advocate and that January 20 be designated as "Advocate Promotion Sunday."
2. Recommend that the All-Administrative Subscription Plan be continued and given vigorous support by pastors, district superintendents, and District and Conference Councils on Ministries.
3. That each church consider placing the Advocate in every home and that the special Every Family rate be given to churches where the number of subscriptions reaches at least one-fifth the number of members as reported in the last issue of the Conference Journal.
4. That this Annual Conference go on record as approving the concept of sending the Advocate to every Administrative Board member in the Conference and that the Conference Council on Finance and Administration work with the Methodist Board of Publication in accomplishing this goal not later than the 1975 fiscal year.
5. That the various boards, agencies, and institutions of our Conference give their printing to the Piedmont Press, unless price considerations or other major factors would make this highly disadvantageous.
6. That N. W. Grant be re-elected as a member of the Board of Publication, Inc. for a term of five years, expiring 1978; and that J. L. Perkins of Burlington, North Carolina, be elected for a term of five years, expiring 1978, succeeding J. Slade Crumpton.

C. P. Morris, President
Methodist Board of Publication, Inc.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PENSIONS

REPORT NO. 1

SECTION A. GENERAL RECOMMENDATIONS

1. We recommend special appropriations for the following persons in the indicated amounts.
 - (a) The Reverend O. E. Hall, an amount equal to one year's credit;
 - (b) The Reverend James E. Mahoney, an amount equal to one year's credit;
 - (c) Miss Nannie Pattishall, an amount equal to a dependent child's service, and pay premiums on Blue Cross-Blue Shield Hospital Insurance;
 - (d) Mrs. J. W. Smith $750.00;
 - (e) Mrs. James C. Stanford and each eligible dependent child, an amount equal to ten years of service, and The Board of Pensions to make the premium payment for Blue Cross-Blue Shield Hospital Insurance;
 - (f) Mrs. Fred F. Warren an amount equal to ten years of service, and premiums paid by The Board of Pensions for Blue Cross-Blue Shield Hospital Insurance.
2. We recommend Retired Minister's Day this year be the first Sunday in November, November 4, 1973. We urge each church to use this Sunday to interpret the pension program of this conference to the congregation. Further we urge that those retired ministers and the wife of the retired ministers, be recognized in a special way, on this Sunday, or as near thereto as possible.
3. We recommend for the fiscal conference year, June 1, 1973 - December 31, 1973, and for the fiscal conference year, January 1, 1974 - December 31, 1974 that the pension service year annuity rate be set at $78.00.
4. We recommend the following Service Records Adjustments:
 - (a) R. Norman Knight, request for 1 year Full Time Supply Service, December 1952 - November 1953, is in order and recommended for approval;

- (b) Alton S. Lancaster, request for 1/4 year Full Time Supply Service, August 1, 1945 – November 11, 1945, is in order and recommended for approval;
 - (c) Richard Shinkle, request for 1/4 year Full Time Supply Service, February 26, 1961 – June 26, 1961, is in order and recommended for approval;
 - (d) Odell S. Matthis, request for 1 year Full Time Supply Service, conference year 1971 - 1972, is in order and recommended for approval. His name was accidentally omitted from last years report.
 - (e) Robert M. Drew, request for 1 year Full Time Supply Service, 1958-1959 is in order and recommended for approval.
 - (f) Henry R. Heath, Jr., request for ½ year Student Lay Pastor service, 1971-1972 is in order and recommended for approval. His name was accidentally left off last year's report.
 - (g) Gordon E. Allen, Jr., requests that his Supply service from November 1, 1953 to June 26, 1961 be clarified. This was full time supply service (7.50 years) and is in order for pension credit. We recommend approval.
5. We recommend that the expense account of the member of The Board of Pensions, and the expenses of the Actuarial Consultant be paid from current operating funds. Further we recommend that the secretary's expense fund, be paid from current operating funds, and that an honorarium of $150.00 per month, until January 1, 1974 be paid from current operating funds and that any additional necessary expenses, or adjustment in honorarium be paid from current operating funds.

REPORT NO. II

HOUSING EXCLUSION ALLOWANCE

INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE DOCUMENT NO. 5045 (10-67) DECLARES:

"Rental Value of Home Furnished a Clergyman, and cost of utilities paid for him, as part of his compensation for carrying out his duties as a clergyman, are not income to him, if he is duly ordained, licensed, or commissioned."

"A Rental Allowance to Clergyman, paid as part of his compensation, is not income to the extent he used it, in the year received, to provide a home, or pay utilities for a home furnished him. However, the church, or organization which employs him must have officially designated the payment as a rental allowance before the payment was made."

"The above rules are also applicable to retired clergymen where a rent-free home or rental allowance is furnished him in recognition of past services in carrying out his duties as a clergyman."

A REVISED RULING, 63, 156, 163-2 CB 79 STATES:

"... the rental value of the home furnished to a retired minister as part of his compensation for services is excludable from his gross income under Section 107 (1) of the Code. Also, the rental allowance paid to him as part of his compensation for past services is excludable under Section 107 (2) of the Code, to the extent used by him for expenses directly related to providing a home." (See Code Sec. 107, Reg. 1.107.1 (1103.01))

Therefore the following resolution is presented to the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, meeting in Fayetteville, North Carolina:

Whereas, The United Methodist Church has a tradition of providing housing (a parsonage) for its ministers, or in instances where no parsonage is owned by the charge, giving the minister a housing allowance, and

Whereas, Retired Ministers of the North Carolina Conference are entitled to the same privileges as those in the Effective Relationship; and

Whereas, the most practical method of providing housing for the Retired Ministers is by means of rental allowance;

Therefore, Be It Resolved, that the amount of $2,600.00 per year be set as a fair and reasonable rental allowance for each Retired Minister of this annual conference; that the first $2600.00 paid to a Retired Minister each year by The Board of Pensions of The North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and $2,000.00 of this is designated as the payment of this Housing Allowance and $600.00 for Utility Allowance. The Housing Allowance is specifically designated as compensation to the minister for the cost of renting or providing housing for himself and his family and those costs related thereto, pursuant to the Code as stated in Document 5045 (10-67).

The Board of Pensions emphasizes that the Retired Minister who uses this Housing Allowance must be able to furnish proof that he made expenditures in the amounts claimed. If the full $2600.00 cannot be substantiated as expenditures, then claim should be made only for those amounts which can be verified.

We also remind the minister who uses this allowance, that the amount he claims as a Housing Allowance exclusion must be included as Income in reporting his Social Security. It is possible that reduced Social Security benefits would offset any claims for the Housing Allowance exclusion. Please consult your Social Security Advisor about his matter.

Further, the Board of Pensions absolves itself of any responsibility in the event the Internal Revenue Service disallows any housing allowance claimed.

REPORT No. III

NORTH CAROLINA METHODIST CONFERENCE RESERVE PENSION FUND

CLARIFICATIONS TO CONSTITUTION

The Provision of the Constitution of the North Carolina Methodist Conference Reserve Pension Fund are clarified as follows

- (1) To the third paragraph of the "Qualification for Retirement" section, add the following sentence:

Other conditions whereby retirement is possible as stated in the Discipline shall be applicable.

- (2) The second paragraph of the section of "Retirement Benefits" now reads:

Once a minister is placed in the retired relation and pension benefits have commenced, it is expected that he shall continue to be paid throughout his lifetime at the Annuity Rate in effect on the date his pension benefit payment commenced; provided, however, that the Conference at any regular session by three fourths (3/4) of those present and voting shall have the right to adjust the Annuity Rate of its retired ministers; provided further, that such change shall not be proposed to the Conference without first securing an actuarial opinion from the Fund Actuary Disability Benefits:

Clarification of this paragraph is revised to read:

Once a minister is placed in the retired relation and pension benefits have commenced, it is expected that he shall continue to be paid throughout his lifetime pension benefits based on the per service year Annuity Rate as approved by the Annual Conference. The Conference at any regular session by three-fourths (3/4) of those present and voting, shall have the right to adjust the per service year Annuity Rate; provided, that such change shall not be proposed to the Conference without first securing an actuarial opinion from the Fund Actuary as to the cost and other related aspects of the proposed change.

- (3) To the section on "Retirement Benefits", add the following paragraph:

The desirability is recognized of aligning the per service year Annuity Rate with the 1% of average salary of the Annual Conference as recommended by the Discipline.

- (4) The second sentence of the second paragraph of the section of Disability Benefits' now reads:

A minister who is granted disability leave in accordance with the Discipline shall be eligible to receive disability benefits during such periods of disability leave. His benefit shall be the greater of (a) his accrued pension benefits up to the date of disability, based on the Annuity Rate then in effect and his years of Approved Service as of his date of disability, or (b) one-third (1/3) of the Conference Average Salary as of his date of disability. Disability benefits will not be paid to any minister on approved disability leave who is receiving benefits from the Emergency Aid Fund.

Clarification of this paragraph is revised to read:

At each yearly renewal of his disability leave, the disability benefit for the succeeding Conference year shall be the greater of (a) his accrued pension benefits up to the date of renewal, based on the Annuity Rate then in effect and his years of Approved Service as of the date of renewal, or (b) one-third of the Conference Average Salary as of the date of renewal.

- (5) The third paragraph of the section of "Death benefits for Dependent Children:" reads:

In the event of death, benefit payments to widows and/or dependent children shall commence on the first day of the month following the date of death, or the next regular date of retirement of disability leave.

Clarification of this paragraph is revised to read:

"In the event of death, full benefit payments to widow and/or dependent children shall commence on the first day of the month following death, with partial benefit payments for the month in which death occurs being computed on a pro-rata basis from the date of death."

REPORT NO. IV

MINISTERS' RETIREMENT FUND

The Board of Pensions recommends a change in the Ministers' Retirement Fund Constitution.

The present constitution reads:

Membership Transferring:

Members transferring out of the North Carolina Conference or who may be appointed to employment which does not entitle them to annuity credit service, and who wish to retain membership in the fund must pay into the fund two per cent (2%) of their salaries and all other income which would be listed for income tax purposes. Payment may be made by the employing agency for the credit of the member, but the individual member is held responsible to see that such payment is made.

We recommend this statement be amended by adopting the following resolution:

Any minister who leaves the North Carolina Conference, will not make any further payment to the fund. He may leave his holdings in the fund until retirement. If this is done, they will earn interest at current passbook rate. If the funds are held, and the minister returns to the North Carolina Conference, he may reinstate his payments and dividend earnings, effective at the time of re-enter to this conference; and that this legislation become effective January 1, 1974.

REPORT NO. V

SPECIAL APPOINTMENTS

Special Appointments have become an increasing concern to the United Methodist Church. The last session of The General Conference added to The Discipline a full section pertaining to Special Appointments. Paragraph 352.7 of The Discipline states:

"At their request, conference on recommendation of the Cabinet, confirmed by a two-thirds vote of the Annual Conference may be appointed for ministry in and to society beyond the ministries usually extended through the local church and other institutions of, or directly related to the church; provided that in no such case shall The United Methodist Church incur any financial responsibility."

Further, Paragraph 1259.3 (a) (3) states:

"The following years of approved service in an Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church shall be counted for pension credit subject to the conditions stated in this paragraph . . . under Special Appointment to an institution, organization, or agency which in the judgment of the Annual Conference rendered to it some form of service, direct or indirect, sufficient to warrant pension credit, or to a community church, or as an evangelist; provided however, that such institution, organization, agency, community church, or evangelist accepts and pays such apportionments as the conference may require, with the recommendation that this apportionment shall be not be less than twelve times the annuity rate of the conference . . ."

The Board of Pensions of the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church interpretes this legislation to mean that there must be specific and identifiable service contribution to a United Methodist Church, The North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church, or a designated institution, organization, or agency of The North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church. Henceforth, unless these requirements are met to the satisfaction of The Board of Pensions of The North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church, participation in the Pension plan of this conference, or participation in the Insurance program of this conference—Blue Cross Blue Shield Hospital Insurance and The Group Term Life Insurance—and participation in The Minister's Retirement Fund shall be prohibited.

Those persons who are currently participating in the conference pension plan, by having an institution, organization, or agency, making the required payment, as determined by our actuary, may continue to participate in the pension plan, provided full payment is made annually. Default in payment for any year shall eliminate the person for whom payment should have been made from the pension plan of The North Carolina Conference, and all related benefits to that pension plan.

Persons who receive Special Appointments are expected to associate themselves with the pension plan of the agency, institution, or organization employing them.

If the employing agency, institution, or organization has no pension plan, The Board of Pensions of The United Methodist Church, will arrange to set up a pension plan for that person, through one of the pension plans administered by The General Board of Pensions.

This interpretation of paragraphs 352.7 and 1259.3 (a) (3) shall in no way limit or prohibit The Board of Pensions of The North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church from withholding pension credit on other grounds permitted by the Discipline.

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE BROTHERHOOD

Recommendations of the Executive Committee of The North Carolina Conference Brotherhood Amendments to Constitution: Note: Proposed amendments are in capital letters.

The North Carolina Conference Brotherhood is a group of Methodist Ministers and lay people who express their sympathy to the bereaved widow of a Methodist Minister in a way that will be of real assistance when it is needed most. Instead of sending flowers, telegram, or other ways of expressing sympathy, a gift of money $1,800.00 – is sent to the widow. (A GIFT OF MONEY $2,000.00 IS SENT TO THE WIDOW OR BENEFICIARY). This $1,800.00 ($2,000.00) is made possible through contributions made by ministers, laymen, and church groups and organizations who are members of the Brotherhood.

Article 4. Any minister of The North Carolina Conference on trial or in full connection, or any accepted Supply (LAY PASTOR SERVING A CHARGE) may become a beneficiary member of the Brotherhood by payment of an initiation fee of $2.00 (AND ONE MORTUARY ASSESSMENT).

Article 10. The Brotherhood is to be open, permitting new members of join any time prior to their fiftieth birthday. After age 50, membership is closed. (THE BROTHERHOOD IS TO BE OPEN, PERMITTING NEW MEMBERS TO JOIN ANY TIME PRIOR TO THEIR 55 BIRTHDAY FOR ONE YEAR ONLY. THE DATES TO BE FROM THE PASSING OF THIS AMENDMENT AND TO INCLUDE THE LAST DAY OF THE 1973-74 CONFERENCE YEAR.) Each new member joining will pay an initiation fee of $2.00 and make one mortuary payment according to salary, before he is enrolled.

We ask the District Superintendents to present the North Carolina Conference Brotherhood at their District Organizational meeting each year.

We recommend that the Secretary-Treasurer be paid $75.00 per call to handle all the secretarial and bookkeeping work involved in carrying on the business of the Brotherhood.

Information will be available at Annual Conference to answer any questions about the Brotherhood.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

The United Methodist Church

The 1972 regular session of The General Conference of The United Methodist Church held in Atlanta, Georgia, approved the following amendments to the Constitution of The United Methodist Church and submitted them to the Annual Conference for vote:

No. 1972-7

That the first paragraph of The Preamble of the Constitution be amended by deleting the word "men" in the second sentence and by substituting in its place the word "persons" so that the first paragraph of The Preamble of the Constitution as amended will read:

"The Church is a community of all true believers under the Lordship of Christ. It is the redeemed and redeeming fellowship in which the Word of God is preached by persons divinely called, and the Sacraments are duly administered according to Christ's own appointment. Under the discipline of the Holy Spirit the Church seeks to provide for the maintenance of worship, the edification of believers, and the redemption of the world."

No. 1972-8

That the first paragraph of Section II, Article I (Paragraph 13) be amended to read:

"The General Conference shall meet at such times and place as shall be determined by the General Conference or its duly authorized committees, but not more often than once in two consecutive years. Each Annual Conference shall determine whether to elect delegates each two years or each four years."

No. 1972-9

That Section VII, Article I (Paragraph 36) be amended by adding a paragraph at the end thereof as follows:

"If the lay membership should number less than the ministerial members of the Annual Conference, the Annual Conference shall, by its own formula, provide for the election of additional lay members to equalize lay and ministerial membership of the Annual Conference."

No. 1972-10

That Section VII, Article II (Paragraph 37) be amended by deleting the words "with the exception that the lay members may not vote on matter of ordination, character and conference relations of ministers" so that the paragraph as amended will read:

"The Annual Conference is the basic body in the church and as such shall have reserved to it the right to vote on all Constitutional Amendments, on the election of ministerial and lay delegates to the General and Jurisdictional or Central Conferences, on all matters relating to the character and conference relations of the ministerial members, and on the ordination of ministers and such other rights as have not been delegated to the General Conference under the Constitution. It shall discharge such duties and exercise such powers as the General Conference under the Constitution may determine."

No. 1972-11

That Section VII, Article V (Paragraph 40) be amended by deleting the words "provided that such delegates be at least twenty-one (21) years of age and" and substituting, therefore, the words "without regard to age, provided such delegates" so that the paragraph as amended will read:

"The lay delegates to the General Conference and to the Jurisdictional or Central Conference shall be elected by the lay members of the Annual Conference or Provisional Annual Conference, without regard to age, provided such delegates shall have been members of one of the constituent churches forming this union or of the United Methodist Church for at least four years next preceding their election, and are members thereof within the Annual Conference electing them at the time of holding the General and Jurisdictional or Central Conferences.

No. 1972-12

That Division III, Article V (Paragraph 54) be amended by deleting in subunit (2) of the first paragraph thereof the words "he shall have given his specific consent" and substituting in their place the words "that bishop shall have specifically consented" and by deleting in subunit (3) of the first paragraph thereof the words "he" and "him" and substituting in their place the words "the bishop" and by deleting in the second paragraph thereof the word "him" and substituting in its place the words "the bishop" so that the paragraph as amended will read.

"The bishops shall have residential and presidential supervision in the Jurisdictional Conferences in which they are elected or to which they are transferred. Bishops may be transferred from one jurisdiction to another jurisdiction for presidential and residential supervision under the following conditions: (1) The transfer of bishops may be on either of two bases: (a) jurisdiction which receives a bishop by transfer from another jurisdiction may transfer to the jurisdiction or to a third jurisdiction one of its own bishops eligible for transfer, so that the number transferred in by each jurisdiction shall be balanced by the number transferred out, or (b) a jurisdiction may receive a bishop from another jurisdiction and not transfer out a member of its own College of Bishops. (2) No bishop shall be transferred unless that bishop shall have specifically consented. (3) No bishop shall be eligible for transfer unless the bishop shall have served one quadrennium in the jurisdiction which elected the bishop to the episcopacy. (4) All such transfers shall require the approval by a majority vote of the members, present and voting of the jurisdictional Conferences which are involved after consideration by the Committees on Episcopacy. After the above procedures have been followed, the transferring bishop shall become a member of the receiving College of Bishops and shall be subject to residential assignment by that Jurisdictional Conference.

"A bishop may be assigned by the Council of Bishops for presidential service or other temporary service in another jurisdiction than that which elected the bishop, provided request is made by a majority of the bishops in the jurisdiction of the proposed services.

"In the case of an emergency in any jurisdiction or Central Conference through the death or disability of a bishop or other cause, the Council of Bishops may assign a bishop from another jurisdiction or Central Conference to the work of the said jurisdiction or Central Conference with the consent of a majority of the bishops of that jurisdiction or Central Conference."

No. 1972-13

That Division III, Article VII (Paragraph 56) be amended by deleting in the first paragraph thereof the words "him" and "his" and substituting in their place respectively the words "the bishop" and "the"

and by deleting in the second sentence of the second paragraph the words "Each bishop shall report in writing annually all his decisions of law" and substituting in their place the words "All decisions of law made by each bishop shall be reported in writing annually" so that the paragraph as amended will read:

"A bishop presiding over an Annual, Central, or Jurisdictional Conference shall decide all questions of law coming before the bishop in the regular business of a session; provided that such questions be presented in writing and that the decisions be recorded in the journal of the conference.

"Such an episcopal decision shall not be authoritative except for the pending case until it shall have been passed upon by the Judicial Council. All decisions of law made by each bishop shall be reported in writing annually, with a syllabus of the same, to the Judicial Council, which shall affirm, modify, or reverse them."

No. 1972-14

(Contingent upon the Puerto Rico Annual Conference deciding to become an affiliated autonomous church or an affiliated united church)

That Section VIII, Article I (Paragraph 42) be amended by deleting therefrom the words "Puerto Rico" so that the boundaries of the Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference will read:

"Northeastern—Main, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New York, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland, West Virginia, Delaware, District of Columbia."

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY THE 1973 ANNUAL CONFERENCE

PROPOSED AGENDA AND GOALS FOR TASK FORCE FOR MOBILIZING THE UNITED METHODIST CALL TO PEACE AND SELF-DEVELOPMENT OF PEOPLES

I. PURPOSE AND AGENDA:

The task force should be drawn from a cross-section of the Conference divisions of ministries so that it will be an all-inclusive body representing the variety of concerns and interests of the Conference. Such an organization will guarantee a central goal of the Call which is to address the appeal to the whole Church.

The purpose of the Task Force will be to educate, sensitize and encourage the N.C. Conference members to implement (through existing structures) the goals and suggestions of the Call.

This implementation of the Call will represent an application and follow-up to Key '73: From being called to follow Christ, members will be called to serve their neighbors.

II. POSSIBLE SCOPE OF PROGRAMS:

1. Study investments of the Conference.
2. Employ the Continuing Education as one vehicle.
3. Lake Junaluska summer Learning Center has programs this year.
4. The 1973 Youth A.C.S. will include discussions on Call.
5. Broaden the program of having laymen visit and aid churches in underdeveloped countries.
6. Encourage laymen and members to alert congressmen etc. to the concerns represented in the Call.
7. Encourage the missionaries who visit local churches to emphasize and be responsive to the Call.
8. Widen publicity of the Advance Special as an avenue for local churches to further goals of the Call.

III. FUNDING OF TASK-FORCE:

It is suggested that $1500 be appropriated as a supplementary fund to finance the first seven months of the Task-Force. The Calendar Year of 1974 suggested appropriation is to be $2,500.

IV. ROLE OF THE BISHOP:

By calling the Conference to the United Methodist Call To Peace and Self-Development, the Bishop would lend his authority to the goals and would give them an inclusive and umbrella appeal.

RESOLUTION CONCERNING THE METHODIST BOARD OF EDUCATION, INC.

Whereas, the Methodist Board of Education is a creature of the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church, organized and existing for the general purpose of performing the duties, carrying out the responsibilities, and discharging the obligations imposed upon or vested in the Board of Education of said Conference in conformity with the Discipline of said Church; and

Whereas, the functions of said Board of Education are now being reorganized and areas of responsibility are now being reassigned; and

Whereas, it is deemed advisable that the functions and responsibilities of the Methodist Board of Education, Inc. be redefined and its name changed to conform to the changes now occurring in the Conference;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

1. That the Charter of the Methodist Board of Education, Inc. be amended to read as set forth in the amendment hereto attached.

2. That a copy of the proposed amendments to the Charter hereby authorized be submitted to the next hereafter Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church for approval; and

RESOLVED FURTHER, that upon approval of said amended Charter by the Annual Conference, the same be executed by the officers of the corporation and filed in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of North Carolina; and

RESOLVED FURTHER, that the by-laws of this corporation be amended to conform to the division of responsibilities prescribed by the Discipline of The United Methodist Church, and that a draft of the same be submitted for adoption at the next meeting of the Division of Education.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Copies of the amended charter were attached and distributed to the conference. The document was examined and the draft adopted by the conference. The changes in the charter were directed to be made. Copies of the amended Charter are on file in the Conference Secretary's office and the office of The United Methodist Division of Education, Inc.

A RESOLUTION OF RECOGNITION AND APPRECIATION

CLARENCE POE MORRIS

Executive Secretary of the Board of Education	1950-1970
Associate Director of Christian Nurture	1970-1973

For twenty-three years, Dr. C.P. Morris has been one of the great forces for Christian Education in the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church. In fact, his influence has gone beyond the boundaries of his home conference to touch the larger life of the church. He is recognized and appreciated all across the church for his knowledge and expertise in all phases of Christian education and especially in his innovative skills and ability to take new ideas and adapt them to the needs of particular situations. From this ability, our conference has reaped many lasting rewards.

We all know with what care and precision "C.P." has carried on his responsibilities and we have all at times wondered how many mimeograph machines have been worn out and how many tons of paper have been expended because of that precision. But we know even in our best, that the communication has come through and the cause of Christ advanced.

We have had many great people on our Boards of Education across these twenty-three years, and they have all made their unique contribution, but we who have served in this agency, recognized that a lot of the input in terms of planning and idea formation and output in terms of program and administration has been the work of Dr. C.P. Morris.

As we assess the many-faceted programs of leadership development and training in our conference that reaches all the way from the local church to the conference level, we are well aware of the influence of C.P. Morris. He has had a hand in all of them at some point in their development. Records show that more than one hundred thousand persons have been involved in some kind of training and enrichment opportunities in his span of twenty-three years as Executive Secretary of the Conference Board of Education and Associate Director of Christian Nurture.

One can only mention the involvement of C.P. Morris with the life of our church related colleges, Wesley Foundations, Campus Ministry, planning and equipping buildings for Christian education, planning and staffing for specialized ministries to children, youth, and adults.

Dr. Morris has served as chairperson of the Association of Conference Directors of Education of the Southeastern Jurisdiction, Dean of Southeastern Jurisdiction Leadership and Laboratory School, chairperson of the Southeastern Jurisdiction Laboratory Committee, delegate to the Methodist Conference on Christian Education, member of the committee on Christian Nurture of the North Carolina Council of Churches, member of Governor's committee on the White House Conference on Aging and a member of the North Carolina Council on Human Relations.

The greatest achievement that has come within the scope of his ministry has been in the area of conference camping. The camping program was just beginning when "C.P." was elected to the Board of Directors of Camp Don-Lee in 1950. He later was made business manager. Since that time we have developed Camp Chestnut Ridge, Camp Kerr Lake, and Camp Rockfish. The total property value of these camps today is in excess of one million dollars. But the real value of this enterprise is in the more than one hundred thousand persons who have been involved in the Christian education ministry which they provide.

We are well aware of the many persons who have been a part of this marvelous development and we are grateful to each of them. But we also know that C.P. Morris has had a large stake in this great ministry we enjoy today.

It is with great honor that we, the members of the North Carolina Annual Conference, Southeastern Jurisdiction of the United Methodist Church, do hereby recognize and express our appreciation to Dr. Clarence Poe Morris for his twenty-three years of service to the church as Executive Secretary of the Board of Education and Associate Director for Christian Nurture and we do hereby move that this Resolution be printed in the 1973 issue of the Journal of the North Carolina Conference.

RESOLUTION IN MEMORY OF WILLIAM JASPER SMITH

William Jasper Smith, Methodist Layman, died suddenly on the morning of May 21, 1973, in the arms of his wife, Carolyn, at their home in Bethel, North Carolina. The desire to pause and reflect upon the life and works of this truly great Christian is shared by all of us. Jasper was the complete man, effectively bringing his great talent and energy to bear in family, community, business, educational and religious affairs. The beneficiaries of Jasper's life and works are numberless, but it is beyond question that Methodists in general, and the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, in particular, are primary beneficiaries.

Jasper chose or was chosen to serve the Lord as a Methodist and this he did from the day he became a Methodist until the very day he died still serving his own beloved Bethel United Methodist Church as finance chairperson and the Conference as a member of the Board of Pensions. Jasper will long be remembered as a business, civic, and political leader of skill, integrity, and dedication. But it is as a loyal and faithful servant of the Lord and as a wise, loyal, and dedicated Methodist Churchman that he will be most affectionately and gratefully remembered.

Devoid of ostentation and guile, Jasper was not a Christian by flamboyant proclamation, although he eloquently and lucidly affirmed his faith in God in more than 200 Methodist Churches, rather he was a doer believing fervently "that by their fruits ye shall know them."

He served his own church in every capacity except that of minister and often filled the pulpit in the minister's absence. Inevitably, the Conference recognized the worth of the man and thus began a remarkable career of service to all of Methodism. First, as associate Conference Lay Leader. Then in 1941, he was chosen as Conference Lay Leader, a position held by him continuously for 15 years until new tenure rules retired him in 1956. He was elected by the Jurisdictional Conference a member of the National Methodist Board of Lay Activities in 1944 and served until 1956.

As North Carolina Conference Lay Leader, Jasper conceived and initiated three great lay programs which are established lay activities in the Conference. They are:

1. The annual layman's retreat begun at Louisburg College and later, because of large numbers attending, transferred to the larger facilities of Duke University.
2. The annual District Lay Rallies. Thousands of Methodist lay persons annually are inspired by the Christian fellowship and inspirational messages provided by these rallies.

3. The no-silent pulpit program which places a certified lay speaker in every vacant Methodist pulpit during the Lenten Season each year.

The lay program of this Conference shall ever remain as a continuing memorial to Jasper Smith for surpassing anything constructed of marble and granite, mineral, and metal.

From 1956 to 1964, Jasper served on the General Board of Missions. In 1966, he was honored by the Board of Lay Activities when it chose him as Layman of the Year. From 1944 to 1964, he was a delegate to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences.

Having established an enviable reputation as a good builder (he built a modern parsonage for his own church and after his retirement he designed and supervised the reconstruction of the educational department of his church), in 1956 Jasper was chosen to help organize Wesleyan College in Rocky Mount, North Carolina. The beautiful campus, graced with lovely buildings in the Georgian tradition, bespeak the energy, skill, and devotion he unselfishly gave to this task. Until President Collins assumed the presidency, Jasper was North Carolina Wesleyan College. After his retirement in 1967, he remained the business officer and comptroller of the college.

Although a busy man, he was a devoted husband to his wife, Carolyn Pollock Smith, and a wise, loving, and exemplary father to his three children, Betty S. Speir, Bethel, North Carolina, chief guidance counselor at North Pitt High School; Dr. William James Smith, a member of the faculty at East Carolina University; and Robert K. Smith, an attorney of Rocky Mount, North Carolina.

God has indeed blessed us through William Jasper Smith!

NOW, therefore, BE IT RESOLVED:

That we do give humble thanks to God for the life and works of William Jasper Smith and for his service to humanity and particularly for the unselfish, loyal, and beneficial service rendered to the causes of Methodism, for the fellowship of his spirit, for his wise and valuable counsel, for the continuing inspiration of his example, for his unswerving faith in God and his Son, Jesus Christ, and for unceasing labors in God's vineyards. That we honor his memory by causing a copy of this resolution to be entered in the Journal of this Conference which he loved so much and served so well.

Respectfully submitted this 5th day of June, 1973 and adopted by the North Carolina Annual Conference in session.

RESOLUTION HONORING REVEREND C. WADE GOLDSTON

WHEREAS, Louisburg College has had a program to help educate Lay Pastors since September 1, 1954; and

WHEREAS, The Reverend C. Wade Goldston has been the director of this program for the better part of its history; and

WHEREAS, he recently left Louisburg College for the pastorate; and

WHEREAS, the Annual Conference has been greatly benefited by this program, it is our desire today to honor Brother Wade Goldston for his outstanding service to the Conference in his years of service at Louisburg College; and

WHEREAS, the Lay Pastors' program was started as the Department of Town and Country Work of Louisburg College in 1954 by the Commission on Town and Country Work of the North Carolina Annual Conference. Mr. Goldston was appointed by Bishop Paul N. Garber to serve as professor of Town and Country Church Work. Others instrumental in getting the program started were: Dr. Sam Holton, then president of Louisburg College; the Reverend Key Taylor of the Town and Country Commission; and the late Reverend Henry G. Ruark, chairperson of the College Board of Visitors at that time. The next year, 1955, Dr. Cecil W. Robbins came to Louisburg, and he and Brother Wade worked to make the program the on-going success that it has been. Others who have worked in the program are the Reverend Walter N. McDonald, a past director, and the Reverend Sidney E. Stafford, current director; and

WHEREAS, the financial support for the program has come from the College, the Conference and from the Goldston Scholarship Fund, the chief contributors to the fund bearing Mr. Goldston's name were his brother, W.J. Goldston of Houston, Texas, now deceased; his sisters, Mrs. E.N. Benson of Arizona; the late Mrs. P.O. Barber of Greensboro; and the late Mrs. C.O. Teppy of Charlotte; and other relatives and friends, among them the late Mr. Roy Stout, and his wife, Kathleen, of Goldston; Mr. Carl Hicks of Walstonburg; and the late Mr. W.R. Rodgers and his wife of Stantonsburg; and

WHEREAS, over 100 lay ministers have served their churches while participating in this program, and this past Conference year, 1972-73, 12½% or 66 of the Conference's 521 pastoral charges were served by pastors who had participated in this program. In addition, a number are serving the Western North Carolina Conference, the Virginia Conference and some are serving in other denominations; and

WHEREAS, by the personal example of his spiritual commitment to Jesus Christ, Brother Wade has prayed with student lay pastors, rejoiced with them in their successes, guided them in their programs, and given unstintingly of his own resources to their physical and spiritual needs;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church in session at Methodist College, Fayetteville, North Carolina rise in honor and appreciation of the significance of this ministry to this Conference; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this statement become an official part of the minutes of this session of the Conference.

Brother Wade, we love you, we thank God for you, and today, we honor you.

— Sidney Stafford

REPORT OF THE BISHOP'S COMMITTEE ON HIGHER EDUCATION PLANNING AND STRATEGY

A major oil company has adopted as a part of its advertising campaign the phrase, "We'd like you to know . . ." Our committee would like you to have a progress report on the work of this group which was appointed by Bishop Robert M. Blackburn and Bishop Earl G. Hunt in accordance with the actions of the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Annual Conferences in 1972. The committee is composed of 30 regular members, 15 each from the Western North Carolina Conference and the North Carolina Conference.

The present working plan for The Higher Education Planning and Strategy Committee is marked "Draft" because it is a "working plan" document which will be modified as often as circumstances and the wishes of the committee warrant; however, it should give the members of the two annual conferences a clear understanding of both the depth and breadth of the study which is now projected.

During the 1972 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference, Dr. Cameron West asked some penetrating and incisive questions concerning the future of Methodist Higher Education in North Carolina. He began with the premise that there were no easy answers. We are not in higher education because John Wesley said good things about scholarship. We are not in higher education because we have always been there. We are in higher education because that is where tomorrow is. We are in higher education because that is where the action is. We are in Christian higher education because it emphasizes human dignity, it encourages responsibility, it stimulates moral sensitivity, and it comforts us and our future with ultimate questions. Last summer a task force on higher education met in Greensboro. Out of that meeting came the Bishop's Committee on Higher Education and Strategy, charged with making recommendations and long-range plans for United Methodist Christian higher education in North Carolina. The Committee was to recommend a specific strategy for the implementation of that plan.

At its initial organizational meeting, the members of the Committee agreed that they would approach the study with four objectives in mind:

A. The study of United Methodist Higher Education in North Carolina would be approached with an open mind, i.e., without preconceived notions about solutions which should be recommended.

B. The attitudes of members of the Committee would be positive. We believe in United Methodist Higher Education and we think it is essentially important at this time to make a thorough study of its role, function and procedures.

C. Each member would seek constantly to see fully and appreciate thoroughly the great complexity of the task set for the Committee.

D. Finally, it was to be agreed that the Committee would be a hard-working one, that its work would be thorough and its recommendations would be specific.

Draft Copy

Proposed Plan of Study

Objectives.

A. To make an up-to-date study of the present relationship of the United Methodist Church to higher education in North Carolina.

B. To recommend a long-range plan for the relationship of the United Methodist Church to higher education in North Carolina, for the period 1975 to 2000. This plan may involve a single state-wide higher education program, or it may involve separate programs of higher education for each annual conference—depending upon the findings of the study.

C. To recommend strategies and procedure for the implementation of the proposed plan which grows out of the above study.

Study Committee Relationships.

A. Primary emphasis will be placed upon a joint state-wide study of the relationship of the United Methodist Church to higher education in North Carolina.

B. Each annual conference Committee on Higher Education Planning and Strategy will be free at all times to conduct special dimensions of the study which are unique for the annual conference concerned. For effective coordination and trust, it is to be understood that such separate studies will be reported to the companion annual conference.

C. Financing of the study will be handled in the following manner.

1. A special committee will be appointed to seek private funds from interested persons and Foundations.

2. Financing will be on a 60-40 basis, with the Western North Carolina Annual Conference providing 60 percent of the financing and the North Carolina Annual Conference providing 40 percent of the financing. The North Carolina Annual Conference will be asked to set aside $3,000 for immediate use by the joint committee to cover its 40 percent of the joint costs for all cooperative study activities. N.B. (1) This "60-40" policy is taken directly from the joint financing plan used for Campus Ministries by the two-conference Regional Commission on Higher Education and Campus Ministry. (2) The North Carolina Annual Conference has authorized and made available the funds to cover its share of the expenses of the study.

3. Financing after December 31, 1973, will be arranged as the needs are determined by earlier phases of study.

D. Examining exhibits and portions of this report which are available to interested parties from the Bishop's office or the Committee will show the complex relationships of the joint committee, the annual conferences, and the institutions of higher education being studied.

E. Both Bennett College and Duke University have special relationships which may have important implications for the study and for the recommendations which shall be made in the final report of the joint committee. For that reason, both are shown in a special category on the Exhibits Chart.

General Study Procedures

A. The Joint Committee on Higher Education Planning and Strategy has decided essentially to direct the entire study, using paid consultants and research organizations where needed desired. There are several advantages to be achieved from the use of that study model.

1. The people responsible for the implementation of the report(s) will be intimately involved in the development of the plan to be followed.

2. Individuals who are well informed about the programs of each annual conference involved in the study will be developing the plan for church-related higher education, and will be doing so from a much broader perspective than could possibly be the case for outside directors for such a study.

3. Information about the ongoing work of the Higher Education Planning and Strategy Committee can be given appropriate and strategic dissemination, and possibly bring the leadership of the two annual conferences "along with thinking of the study committee," rather than blast them with an accomplished fact at a given dramatic moment after long periods of uncertainty and speculation.

B. The joint committee will work together on appropriate parts of the study; however, each annual conference committee is guaranteed the freedom to direct its special attention to any unique problems which may concern it. N.B. This means specifically that there may be organized both joint sub-committees and independent sub-committees to work on specific areas of the broad study.

C. Although every effort will be made to expedite the work of the committee, the deadline for the presentation(s) of the completed report(s) is the respective annual conference sessions in 1975.

IV. Kinds of Information to be Sought.

A. Complete facts about the present status of each institution to be studied: Brevard College, Greensboro, High Point, Louisburg, Methodist, North Carolina Wesleyan, Pfeiffer College. N.B. It is hoped that these data may be computerized for more thorough analysis.

B. Thorough analysis of all legal questions, to include at least:

1. Study of church-state constitutional questions.
2. Definitions of legal relationships between the institutions, the trustees and the United Methodist Church.
3. Investigation of legal bases for changes in the present programs of church-related higher education.
4. Preparation of legal actions and legal documents for programs finally recommended by the joint committee, including complete sets of new charters and by-laws.

C. Projections.

1. Public higher education planning and strategy in North Carolina.
2. Private higher education planning and strategy.
3. Population trends in North Carolina to the year 2000. This will include location, compositions, and major characteristics.
4. Economic projections for North Carolina, including income trends and distribution.
5. Religious projections, with special attention to the United Methodist Church in North Carolina, including a study of membership, forms, and financial resources.
6. Enrollments in institutions of higher learning. This will include both a study of public and private enrollment situations.
7. Metropolitan structures and programs.
8. Transportation factors.
9. Sociological trends, such as leisure time, retirement, family models and of the like.
10. Higher education structures and models: Independent colleges and/or universities cluster models—resident versus commuter models—scholarship programs—campus ministry.

D. Rationale for church-related higher education, both institution and program types and emphases. This will include a study of: "Institution"—college or university—"Program"—campus ministry—relationships to the United Methodist Church, including the respective annual conferences.

V. A Broad Study of the United Methodist Priorities in North Carolina.

VI. Special Concerns.

A. Joint committee and public relations.

1. Communication between joint committee and the annual conferences at large.
2. Communications between joint committee and the institutions involved.
3. Communications between joint committee and conference boards, agencies, and ad hoc committees.
- B. Use of study and consultant resources from the United Methodist Church at large.
- C. Composition and leadership of the sub-committees.
- D. Location of and contracting for the services of the best possible consultants.
- E. Staffing the study—half-time secretary, perhaps.
- F. Joint Committee coordinating and overseeing procedures.
- G. The development of positive attitudes and feelings of trust.

VII. Immediate Actions:

A. Organizations of sub-committees. Sub-committee on rationale, legal concerns, institutional studies, economic trends and population, church-related higher education models and programs, public higher education trends, programs and policies, priorities, all to report by July 1, 1973. The report on the sub-committee for search for funds has already been received and presented as a part of this draft. A sub-committee to draft a report will bring its proposal later than January 15, 1974.

In conclusion, it should be said to the annual conference that the Higher Education Planning and Strategy Committee believes that the study is moving well at this point. The full committee has developed realistic and effective working relationships between the two annual conferences involved, including the funding relationships and the provisions for both cooperation and autonomy; special aspects of the study have been delegated to able hands; and there is a general tone of strong confidence that we can do a good job. We believe that this study will be the most complete and the most thorough ever made of United Methodism of or by any other Methodist higher education committee or group in North Carolina.

The Committee respectfully asks the North Carolina Annual Conference to reserve its judgments about higher education and to defer all proposals for basic changes in their program until the facts are available to all members of the Conference. The task we face together is a very large one, and it will take time to complete; however, given your support and understanding, we shall face the issues squarely and give you the best possible recommendation about what should be done. We promise that our work will be thorough and our suggested solutions specific. We need your full support; we covet your full confidence; and we welcome your suggestions.

Higher Education Planning and Strategy Committee,
North Carolina Annual Conference

RESOLUTION OF THANKS TO DR. N.W. GRANT

In recognition of the pioneering skill and in appreciation for the effective ministry of N.W. GRANT as the first Director of the North Carolina Conference Council on Ministries, the 1973 annual session meeting at Methodist College in Fayetteville hereby acknowledges with deep appreciation his leadership in this office, 1968-73 and his influence in the structural organizational of the General Council on Ministries of the United Methodist Church.

A RESOLUTION OF APPRECIATION TO BELTON JOYNER

Belton has been an inspiration to all of us. Along with our own pastors he has had an immeasurable influence upon us. We have had his help at Annual Conference, at A.C.S., and in workshops. He has always supported us without bossing us. Whenever we have needed help he has been open and available.

Belton has reflected for us a positive image of the Christian ministry and we are deeply appreciative. He's the kind of Christian we want to be.

As he goes on to another job, we will not forget his leadership and support. We will miss him, but we want him to know that his hopes and dreams will live on in us.

The Youth Delegates would like for the Conference to join us in giving Belton a standing vote of appreciation.

—Bert Fisher

A RESOLUTION OF APPRECIATION TO OUR HOSTS

The Committee on Resolutions and References speaks for the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church in expressing our sincere gratitude and appreciation to Methodist College and the churches of Fayetteville for inviting us to hold our one hundred and forty-eighth session of the Annual Conference at Methodist College.

We respond to the welcome given us by the President of Methodist College, Dr. L. Stacy Weaver; by the mayor of the City of Fayetteville, the Honorable Mr. Jackson F. Lee; the superintendent of the Fayetteville District, Dr. Graham S. Eubank; and the President-elect of Methodist College, Dr. Richard Pearce; and say "Thank you, we have felt at home!"

We are most appreciative to Bill Lowdermilk and his Committee on Entertainment. Our every need has been met without fuss or fanfare. Their attention to planning, and the many details involved in setting up and carrying out this session of the Conference has been a mark of excellence. Thank you for the air-conditioned, co-ed dormitories.

We express our appreciation and gratitude to those persons who helped in the cafeteria; the meals were outstanding. The various agencies who had displays added to our understanding of their particular ministries. Delegates and visitors to the Conference enjoyed browsing and buying at the Cokesbury Book Display. Their "grab-bag" special was exciting and worth repeating.

We express our thanks and appreciation to the Allen Organ Company of Rocky Mount for the use of the 600 Series Computer Organ which has added to our services. And to the North Carolina Conference Chapter of the Fellowship of United Methodist Musicians who made arrangements for our organists and special music, we are most appreciative.

We commend the Planning Committee for continuing the practice of the evening worship services. We are deeply indebted to Bishop Edwin Garrison for his sermon to the ordinands; to Dr. George Outen for his sermon during the Hour of Evangelism; and to Dr. David Flude for his challenging remarks in the name of Missions.

We commend William K. Quick for his work in making known the work of the Conference to the people. To the reporters for the Durham Morning Herald, the Raleigh News and Observer, and the Fayetteville Observer who effectively shared our deliberations, to the news departments of WRAL-TV and WTVD for their film coverage of our conference, we show our gratitude. Bill Quick was so enmeshed in his work that, at times, he "could not see Jesus for the press(!)"

The saddest verse in all the Bible is to be found in II Chronicles which says "The King was not to be found in all the palace." We are blessed far beyond the Hebrews of old in that we have our king, Kimsey King and his splendid staff.

We would be amiss if we failed to recognize the planning committee for the program of our conference. All areas and aspects of our work as a church have been considered in the presentations. Even the long Wednesday night session offered us a chance to discuss our differences.

We express our thanks to Almighty God for our Bishop, Robert M. Blackburn, who has presided graciously over his first Conference. His manner is firm and fair. He allowed us to share our differences in free and open debate. He admitted his oversights, and he shared his insights. His devotional messages were meaningful and inspiring. We pray that this will always be a feature of his sessions of our conference.

Mary Jeanne Blackburn has endeared herself to all of us. Our ministers' wives (and our ministers, too) will acknowledge that she is a gem, a pearl!

We thank Bishop and Mrs. Blackburn for sharing their family, Robert, Jr. and Francis with us this week.

Now, therefore be it resolved that we of the North Carolina Annual Conference do hereby express our gratitude and appreciation to all those who in anyway contributed to our welfare this week.

All of these blessings are expressions of the grace of God and we give thanks that once again our Lord has ministered to us His love and has enabled us to bless each other.

July 15, 1973

The Council on Finance and Administration
 North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church, S.E.J.
 Raleigh, North Carolina

Gentlemen:

Herewith is presented our report on the operations of the various boards and committees the funds of which are handled in the Central Treasurer's Office, for the 1972-73 conference year ended May 31, 1973, consisting of the schedules as set forth in the index.

These statements will be examined by A.M. Pullen & Company, Certified Public Accountants, Raleigh, North Carolina, in connection with their annual audit of our accounts and presented, with any necessary adjustments, in summary form in Exhibit "B" of their report which is on file in the Conference Treasurer's office for examination by anyone desiring to see the audit. Copies of the audit will be distributed to members of the Council on Finance and Administration when the report is completed.

We also take this opportunity to express our appreciation to the members of the Commission for their dedication and unselfish service to the Church in the work of this office, and to all ministers and laymen of this conference for their cooperation and assistance during the past conference year.

Sincerely yours
 Charles K. McAdam
Conference Treasurer

STATISTICAL TABLES

Compiled and Edited by

D. D. TRAYNHAM, Conference Statistician

Note: An explanation of the numbering system:

The charge number for stations or circuits continues in use as heretofore and is subject to change when any change in a name or alignment affects the alphabetical listing.

The new CHURCH numbers have been assigned to all local churches permanently for the benefit of persons doing research. The letters indicate the county (by abbreviation) in which the church is located. The figures are the church number within its county.
